Songs For Junior Choirs:

Simple Sacred Songs for Children Jean Anne Shafferman, Tim Hayden, Simple Sacred Songs for Children is the perfect resource for beginning children's choirs. The tuneful easily learned melodies employ timeless classic formal structures that foster the establishment of a lifelong love of singing and sow the seeds of the choral art. Spanning the entire church year, the six songs include titles for Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter, as well as general occasions. As an added bonus, this comprehensive collection includes reproducible song sheets for the singers featuring both melody and lyrics. Simple Sacred Songs for Children, 2007-06. Simple Sacred Songs for Children is the perfect resource for beginning children's choirs. The Supervisors Service Bulletin, 1929. The Scottish Musical Magazine, 1919. Charles Villiers Stanford Paul Rodmell, 2017-07-05. The first book devoted to the composer Charles Villiers Stanford 1852-1924. Since 1935, this survey provides the fullest account of his life and the most detailed appraisal of his music to date. Renowned in his own lifetime for the rapid rate at which he produced new works, Stanford was also an important conductor and teacher. Paul Rodmell assesses these different roles and considers what Stanford's legacy to British music has been. Born and brought up in Dublin Stanford studied at Cambridge and was later appointed Professor of Music there His Irish lineage remained significant to him throughout his life and this little studied aspect of his character is examined here in detail for the first time A man about whom no one who met him could feel indifferent Stanford made friends and enemies in equal numbers Rodmell charts these relationships with people and institutions such as Richter Parry and the Royal College of Music and discusses how they influenced Stanford s career Perhaps not the most popular of teachers Stanford nevertheless coached a generation of composers who were to revitalize British music amongst them Coleridge Taylor Ireland Vaughan Williams Holst Bridge and Howells While their musical styles may not be obviously indebted to Stanford s it is clear that without him British music of the first half of the twentieth century might have taken a very different course

Developing an All-School Model for Elementary Integrative Music Learning Carol E. Reed-Jones, 2014-03 The purpose of this study was to investigate the potential for increasing informal music making in elementary school culture and create a model of such music making Precedence for this model can be found in the literature of ethnomusicology educational psychology and learning theory multicultural music education and cultural anthropology Literature from four distinct traditions and contexts of music making in integrative sociocultural contexts sub Saharan African ngoma and Community Music as manifested in New Orleans second lines old time music and dance and summer camp music making was parsed with a philosophical lens to determine and assess possible areas of intersection between these four participatory cultures and North American public school culture Each of these five areas was examined through a comprehensive review of literature to define their salient characteristics These characteristics were sorted to determine commonalities between areas and the zones of intersection became the basis for a speculative model of integrative music learning featuring the inclusion of musical opportunities and interludes throughout the school day thus taking school music beyond the confines of the music room Instruction in music classes would still continue enhanced in this model by supplemental learning opportunities inspired by the informal learning of traditional world musics the participatory practice of New Orleans second line parades old time music and dance and summer camp music culture This model of integrative learning is also informed by current educational best practices such as child centered learning peer tutoring experiential learning and multicultural perspectives It acknowledges the diversity of traditions consulted while aiming for the unity in their seemingly disparate disciplines Five universal characteristics were uncovered in the search for areas of intersection between North American elementary school culture child culture ngoma music making and Community Music style music making in New Orleans old time music and dance and summer camp contexts a Song b play c informal learning as evidenced by oral tradition peer tutoring self learning d kinesthetic learning and e contextualized learning as evidenced in the sociocultural uses of music and situated learning This model strives for the enactment of school music as a vital and integral part of daily school culture
