Friedrich Schleiermacher's Pathways of Translation Piotr de Bończa Bukowski,2023-01-30 This interdisciplinary study introduces readers to Friedrich Schleiermacher s diverse pathways of reflection and creative practice that are related to the field of translation By drawing attention to Schleiermacher s various writings on a range of subjects including philology criticism hermeneutics dialectics rhetoric and religion the author makes it clear that the frequently cited lecture ber die verschiedenen Methoden des bersetzens On the Different Methods of Translating represents but a fraction of Schleiermacher s contributions to modern day insights into translation The analysis of Schleiermacher s various pathways of reflection on translation presented in this book leads to the conclusion that translation is part of the essence of the world as it is a fundamental tool of our cognition and a foundation of our existence In Schleiermacher s works transfer translation mediation and communication underpin our very existence in the world and our self awareness At the same time they represent fundamental categories for a project that focuses on the consolidation and assimilation through translation of that which is foreign different diverse The Oxford Handbook of German Philosophy in the Nineteenth Century Michael N.

Forster,Kristin Gjesdal,2015 The Oxford Handbook of German Philosophy in the Nineteenth Century is the first collective critical study of this important period in intellectual history The volume is divided into four parts The first part explores individual philosophers including Fichte Hegel Schopenhauer Marx and Nietzsche amongst other great thinkers of the period The second addresses key philosophical movements Idealism Romanticism Neo Kantianism and Existentialism The essays in the third part engage with different areas of philosophy that received particular attention at this time including philosophy of nature philosophy of mind philosophy of language philosophy of history and hermeneutics Finally the contributors turn to discuss central philosophical topics from skepticism to materialism from dialectics to ideas of historical and cultural Otherness and from the reception of antiquity to atheism Written by a team of leading experts this Handbook will be an essential resource for anyone working in the area and will lead the direction of future research The New Century Keith Ansell-Pearson, Alan D. Schrift, 2014-09-03 This volume covers the period between the 1890s and 1930s a period that witnessed revolutions in the arts and society which set the agenda for the rest of the century In philosophy the period saw the birth of analytic philosophy the development of new programmes and new modes of inquiry the emergence of phenomenology as a new rigorous science the birth of Freudian psychoanalysis and the maturing of the discipline of sociology This period saw the most influential work of a remarkable series of thinkers who reviewed evaluated and transformed 19th century thought A generation of thinkers among them Henri Bergson Emile Durkheim Sigmund Freud Martin Heidegger Edmund Husserl Karl Jaspers Max Scheler and Ludwig Wittgenstein completed the disenchantment of the world and sought a new re enchantment What the Ballad Knows Adrian Daub, 2022 In What the Ballad Knows author Adrian Daub elucidates the complex relationship between ballads and nationalism in 19th century German culture

Theodor Storms Sämtliche Werke Theodor Storm, 1919 Mapping Medea Anna Albrektson, Fiona Macintosh, 2023 This insightful and varied collection of essays uses rare material from archives across Europe to examine the many stage versions of Medea throughout the late eighteenth century Forms of Life Andreas Gailus, 2020-09-15 In Forms of Life Andreas Gailus argues that the neglect of aesthetics in most contemporary theories of biopolitics has resulted in an overly restricted conception of life He insists we need a more flexible notion of life one attuned to the interplay and conflict between its many dimensions and forms Forms of Life develops such a notion through the meticulous study of works by Kant Goethe Kleist Nietzsche Wittgenstein Benn Musil and others Gailus shows that the modern conception of life as a generative organizing force internal to living beings emerged in the last decades of the eighteenth century in biological thought At the core of this vitalist strand of thought Gailus maintains lies a persistent emphasis on the dynamics of formation and deformation and thus on an intrinsically aesthetic dimension of life Forms of Life brings this older discourse into critical conversation with contemporary discussions of biopolitics and vitalism while also developing a rich conception of life that highlights rather than suppresses its protean character Gailus demonstrates that life unfolds in the open ended interweaving of the myriad forms and modalities of biological ethical political psychical aesthetic and biographical systems Channel Crossings Clive Scott, 2017-12-02 Scott's subtle and adventurous analysis breaks new ground in textual understanding while his translations radically challenge established orthodoxies As he crosses back and forth between French and English poetry he has illuminating encounters with a wide range of poets from Labe and Shakespeare to Auden and Jaccottet The embodiment of gender in the sonnet the performance of the dramatic voice the inflexions of the self in the voice of lyric verse the landscaping of nature in the line of verse the interventions of the translator in the peculiar lives of the prose poem and free verse the tasks of the translator and the comparatist in a new age these are some of the issues addressed by Clive Scott in a sequence of essays as absorbing as they are original Channel Crossings is the recipient of the R H Gapper Prize for 2004 The Prize which is judged by the Society for French Studies recognises the best publication of its year by any French studies scholar working in the United Kingdom or Ireland The citation noted In his book Clive Scott gives a subtle and adventurous account of how processes of cultural exchange have played an active and enduring role in the development of the language of poetry in French and English over a period of several centuries Clive Scott's book was one of a number of very impressive works published in 2002 The judges choice was made in the light of the book's originality and its likely impact on wider critical debate on the language of poetry and on questions of method and approach in comparative literature

Hegel and Aesthetics William Maker, 2000-05-11 Hegel's Lectures on Aesthetics present a systematic and historical overview of the nature and development of art in light of its meaning and philosophical significance This book considers Hegel's aesthetics from a variety of perspectives With a strong and clear introduction by William Maker the individual essays address Hegel's treatment of music painting comedy and architecture as well as his earlier writings on art his relations to Schiller and to Schlegel his treatment of romanticism the place of aesthetics in the system and his controversial claims about the overcoming of art Several perspectives focus specifically on the contemporary relevance of Hegel's aesthetics in light of developments in art since his time and especially in connection with modernism postmodernism and deconstruction Contributors include William Desmond Brian K Etter Andrew G Fiala Martin Gammon Edward Halper Stephen Houlgate David Kolb Stephen C Law Judith Norman Carl Rapp Jere Surber and Richard D Winfield

Turning Points Ansgar Nünning, Kai Marcel Sicks, 2012-10-30 At times of crisis and revolution such as ours diagnoses of crucial junctures and ruptures turning points in the continuous flow of history are more prevalent than ever Analysing literary cinematic and other narratives the volume seeks to understand the meanings conveyed by different concepts of turning points the alternative concepts to which they are opposed when used to explain historical change and those contexts in which they are unmasked as false and over simplifying constructions Literature and film in particular stress the importance of turning points as a sensemaking device as part of a character s or a community s cultural memory while at the same time unfolding the constructive and hence relative character of turning points Offering complex reflections on the notion of turning points literary and filmic narratives are thus of particular interest to the present volume
