This is My Story Cleophus James LaRue, 2005-01-01 African American women continue to confess their call to ministry even when they know such a confession may cause them to face criticism and even ostracism from many of the same men and women who nurtured them in the faith In This Is My Story thirteen successful African American women clergy tell the powerful inspirational and sometimes heartbreaking stories of their calls and ministerial journeys which they experienced in the midst of anguish uncertainty and in many cases unfriendly leadership environments Each of the women includes a sermon of particular importance to her

Stilling the Storm Kathleen S. Smith, 2006-12-28 When congregations go through difficult times worship will both reflect and influence those difficulties The practice of worship itself can be a key part of the congregation s healing process Teacher and consultant Kathleen Smith successfully demonstrates this truth in Stilling the Storm a book for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the ways that worship intertwines with the life and health of a congregations There are three main types of difficulty congregations can face times of crisis transition and conflict Smith considers their differences similarities and implications for worship and explains the congregational dynamics that accompany such times and the roles that leaders play She reviews basic principles of worship and the ways that unique moments and regular habits of worship shape the congregation For each type of difficulty she suggests important themes for congregations and their worship planners Smith explores the wide range of liturgical resources available for congregations going through difficult times and how those resources can best be shaped to fit the specific situation they are experiencing A perceptive guide to the worship we offer to God in all times and situation Stilling the Storm is an important resource for all congregations of all worship traditions

The Souls of Black Folk Association for the Study of African-American Life and History, 2004 In this curriculum guide the Association for the Study of African American Life and History continues its emphasis on Du Bois prophetic statement first enunciated at the Pan African Conference of 1900 that the problem of the Twentieth Century is the problem of the color line and moreover the double consciousness or two ness confronting African Americans two souls two thoughts two unreconciled strivings two warring details in one dark body whose dogged strength alone keeps it from being torn asunder In addition to engaging the issues raised in Du Bois prophetic statement the editors have chosen to highlight the following themes in his seminal work The Souls of Black Folk Revisited Black History and Historians The Tuskegee Machine and the Politics of Accommodation Talented Tenth Race Relations Pan Africanism The Sacred Arts These themes are reflective of the evolving scholarship that W E B Du Bois expressed in The Souls of Black Folk and throughout his prolific career While it is patently impossible to design a curriculum guide around the fifty or more state history standards the editors have employed the Mid continent Region Education Laboratory s Content Knowledge A Compendium of Standards and Benchmarks for K 12 Education as well as consulting the state standards in California Maryland Illinois and Virginia in creating this useful guide

Embodied Spirits Sherry Bryant-Johnson, Therese Taylor-Stinson, Rosalie Norman McNaney, 2014-03-01 First book addressing the concerns and issues of people of color in spiritual direction These essays speak of how we have incorporated our contemplative practices into our family life our urban non religious background how we have been nurtured in struggles for health and life through our contemplative prayer practices and our courage to survive and even thrive in the midst of dire circumstances We speak of the unfolding bridge between faith and culture our conflicts with an Interspiritual journey with a Christian foundation our sexuality our journey to healing and authenticity and how we are taking this practice that began in the first centuries of the church with the desert mothers and fathers to the present and into the future with spiritual direction through the Internet across the world from the Introduction

Hallelujah, Anyhow! Barbara C. Harris, 2018-09-17 A role model tells her story and that of the nation and the church Hallelujah Anyhow is the long awaited memoir of the Rt Rev Barbara Harris the first woman bishop in the Anglican Communion Edited by Kelly Brown Douglas Dean of the Episcopal Divinity School at Union Seminary and an author and noted theologian in her own right the book offers previously untold stories and glimpses into Bishop Harris childhood and young adult years in her native Philadelphia as well as her experiences as priest and bishop both active and actively retired A participant in Dr Martin Luther King s march from Selma to Montgomery and crucifer at the ordination of the Philadelphia 11 Bishop Harris has been eyewitness to national and church history In the book she reflects on her experiences with the racism sexism and other isms that pervade the life of the church while still managing to say Hallelujah Anyhow Photographs accompany the text and round out this portrait of a pioneer respected outside as well as inside the church for her fierce outspoken and life long advocacy for peace and justice

By the Vision of Another World James D. Bratt, 2012 This book samples the rich variety of worship practices in American history to show how worship can be a fruitful subject for historians to study and how past cases can enrich our understanding of worship today By the Vision of Another World gathers highly regarded historians who usually are not read together because of the widely different subjects on which they typically work Yet their essays all fit together here as they address how worship work and worldview converge and reinforce each other no matter what particular place era denomination or ethnic racial group is under consideration The variety of methodologies and voices will appeal to a breadth of critical interests while the consistently high quality of historical narrative will keep readers engaged The Howard University Bibliography of African and Afro-American Religious Studies
