Indeed, this is the book that will inspire, instill hope and give more than a glimpse into what makes these stalwarts strong. When Fortune magazine called Mackay Mister Make Things Happen it was right on the money. Getting this amazing group of people from various walks of life to talk openly about their abilities to bounce back shows him to be a master at getting people to divulge some of their defeats and their dreams. Hopeful, tough-minded and filled with indispensable advice, We Got Fired And It's the Best Thing That Ever Happened to Us will show anyone how to turn a modern bummer into a major blessing. It's a rarity, a sure thing in our shaky times.

Send the Light Lottie Moon, 2002. When the author's father died, Marc Jolley decided that he needed to write something for his sons about what was important in his life. The result, while not a full autobiography, deals with three things in his life that have shaped it more than others: it is about what he loves, baseball, God, and family, but not necessarily in that order all of the time. This memoir then is about what the author knows, and to that extent, each sentence is true in the best tradition of Hemingway. Safe at Home is both a phrase used in baseball and an expression that captures the importance of family. This story is about how faith, family, and baseball have intersected in his life, an intersection that occurs at home. Critical moments of Jolley's life have seen God, baseball, and family impact at very important times in his life. Whether losing a game after game in little league, watching the World Series with his father, or quitting the high school team, the presence of family and his faith shape how he overcomes disappointment or celebrates the sheer joy of playing. Collecting baseball cards in 1968 provides him with a lesson in race, and his mother's faith that opens his eyes to a world he never knew.
