Contested States Mindie Lazarus-Black,Susan F. Hirsch,2012-11-12 Contested States examines how hegemony is created and facilitated through law as well as how people use legal arenas to resist oppression The essays written by anthropologists and historians offer rich historical and ethnographic detail as they engage these themes in such contexts as colonial and post colonial courts in Kenya India Uganda and the Caribbean bureaucracies in Tonga and Turkey and judicial processes in the historical and contemporary United States Contested States contributes to the new focus on power and social process in legal studies and argues that while states encode and enforce law a crucial part of the power of law is its very contestability The book demonstrates that theoretical insights learned in legal arenas can deepen one s overall understanding of sociocultural order and the processes of historical and legal change Slave stories Gunvor Simonsen,2017-12-15 In the Danish West Indies hundreds of enslaved men and women and a handful of Danish judges engaged in a broken often distorted dialogue in court Their dialogue was shaped by a shared concern with the ways slavery clashed with sexual norms and family life Some enslaved men and women crafted respectable Christian self portraits which in time allowed victims of sexual abuse and rape to publicly narrate their experiences Other slaves stressed African Atlantic traditions when explaining their domestic conflicts Yet these gripping stories did not influence the legal system While the judges cunningly embraced slave testimony they also reached guilty verdicts in most trials and punished with extreme brutality Slaves spoke but mostly to no avail In Slave Stories Gunvor Simonsen reconstructs the narratives crafted by slaves and traces the distortions instituted by Danish West Indian legal practice In doing so she draws us closer to the men and women who lived in bondage in the Danish West Indies present day US Virgin Islands in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries
