Sorrow in the House of Colour Julius Ijemhen-Ebetaleye, 2003 In Sorrow in the House of Colour Julius I Ebetaleye challenges orthodox approaches to racial integration with an honest radical thought provoking story of the attempt to achieve racial harmony in an interracial relationship The perspective from which this book is written is unusual and as such the ideas expressed are particularly important Even those who lay claim to metaphorical colour blindness will find this original work an eye opener This book Sorrow in the House of Colour is based on a true life story stemming from the intimate experience of the principal character The objective again is to amongst other things bring to focus the diversity of humanity especially in regard to the black and white racial divide with a view to sensitizing both races to identify a common basis for mutual co existence in order to make the world a better place to live in This is against the background of an increasing globalisation of the various facets of human endeavours whereby as they say the world is becoming one big village thus making sustainable mutually beneficial inter relationship inevitable Therefore the earlier our respective prejudices and mind sets are de emphasized for those features typifying the commonality of humans the better for the entire mankind In essence the objective is to sensitize rather than criticise The intent is to foster Harmony rather than brew Acrimony The goal is to achieve a better World rather than build brick Walls It is my hope that the reading public find Sorrow in the House of Colour as stimulating as it is thought provoking and relevant message a richly textured piece of writing that skilfully manages to be at price inclusive thought provoking and highly readable It is a significant by which I mean that it has relevance to the reader on a number of levels which is itself sure testimony to the author s creative versatility It is a book which abounds with a wealth of perceptively observed detail obviously the product of real experience which lends to the book a poignant sometimes quite gritty reality a dramatic immediacy which is one of its key strengths The characters situations and dialogue are relayed in vivid and lively detail which makes each moment seem entirely authentic As a result the reader is effortlessly drawn into the fabric of this story experiencing it as his or her own reality The structure of the book is an accomplished device in itself patiently built and sparingly meted out with an eye on the necessities of tension pace climax and anti climax May I entreat you to avail yourselves of this publication and recommend same to a friend The

Brooks, Josh Toth, 2007 Have we moved beyond postmodernism Did postmodernism lose its oppositional value when it became a cultural dominant While focusing on questions such as these the articles in this collection consider the possibility that the death of a certain version of postmodernism marks a renewed attempt to re negotiate and perhaps re embrace many of the cultural literary and theoretical assumptions that postmodernism seemingly denied outright Including contributions from some of the leading scholars in the field N Katherine Hayles John D Caputo Paul Maltby Jane Flax among others this collection ultimately comes together to perform a certain work of mourning Through their explorations of this current epistemological shift in narrative and theoretical production these articles work to get over postmodernism while simultaneously celebrating a certain postmodern inheritance an inheritance that can offer us important avenues to understanding and affecting contemporary culture and society

The House of White Shadows Benjamin Leopold Farjeon,1904 The guide to astrology, by Raphael Robert T. Cross,1877 The Influence of the Stars Rosa Baughan,2021-11-26 This book is an extensive study of astrology containing the results of many years of research Astrology is an ancient subject But until recently this generation seemed to have never cared about the foundation of this belief that has been supported for so many years Because of long repressed realism people have developed a new interest in these old world beliefs and this book is written to satisfy this interest

The white rose looking in at the window of every house and home, dictated by the thirteenth fairy to a comprehensionist. sect. 1 White rose,1880 House Beautiful ,1919 The Guide to Astrology Raphael,1886 The House of Joy Laurence Housman,1979-01-01 A long time ago there lived a King and a Queen who had an only son As soon as he was born his mother gave him to the forester s wife to be nursed for she herself had to wear her crown all day and had no time for nursing The forester s wife had just given birth to a little daughter of her own but she loved both children equally and nursed them together like twins One night the Queen had a dream that made the half of her hair turn grey She dreamed that she saw the Prince her son at the age of twenty lying dead with a wound over the place of his heart and near him his foster sister was standing with a royal crown on her head and his heart bleeding between her hands The next morning the Queen sent in great haste for the family Fairy and told her of the dream The Fairy said This can have but one meaning and it is an evil one There is some danger that threatens your son s life in his twentieth year and his foster sister is to be the cause of it also it seems she is to make herself Queen But leave her to me and I will avert the evil chance for the dream coming beforehand shows that the Fates mean that he should be saved The Queen said Do anything only do not destroy the forester s wife s child for as yet at least she has done no wrong Let her only be carried away to a safe place and made secure and treated well I will not have my son s happiness grow out of another one s grave The Fairy said Nothing is so safe as a grave when the Fates are awake Still I think I can make everything quite safe within reason and leave you a clean as well as a quiet conscience The little Prince and the forester s daughter grew up together till they were a year old then one day when their nurse came to look for them the Prince was found but his foster sister was lost and though the search for her was long she was never seen again nor could any trace of her be found The baby Prince pined and pined and was so sorrowful over her loss that they feared for a time that he was going to die But his foster mother in spite of her grief over her own child s disappearance nursed him so well and loved him so much that after a while he recovered his strength Then the forester s wife gave birth to another daughter as if to console herself for the loss of the first But the same night that the child was born the Queen had just the same dream over again She dreamed that she saw her son lying dead at the age of twenty and there was the wound in his breast and the forester s daughter was standing by with his heart in her hand and a royal crown upon her head The poor Queen s hair had gone quite white when she sent again for the family Fairy and told her how the dream had repeated itself The Fairy gave her the same advice as before quieting her fears and assuring her that however persistent the Fates might be in threatening the Prince s life all in the end should be well Before another year was passed the second of the forester s daughters had disappeared and the Prince and his foster mother cried themselves ill over a loss that had been so cruelly renewed The Queen seeing how great were the sorrow and the love that the Prince bore for his foster sisters began to doubt in her heart and say What have I done Have I saved my son s life by taking away his heart Now every year the same thing took place the forester s wife giving birth to a daughter and the Queen on the same night having the same fearful dream of the fate that threatened her son in his twentieth year and afterwards the family Fairy would come and then one day the forester s wife s child would disappear and be heard of no more At last when nine daughters in all had been born to the forester s wife and lost to her when they were but a year old the Queen fell very ill Every day she grew weaker and weaker and the little Prince came and sat by her holding her hand and looking at her with a sorrowful face At last one night it was just a year after the last of the forester s children had disappeared she woke suddenly stretching out her arms and crying Oh Fairy she cried the dream the dream And covering her face with her hands she died The little Prince was now more than ten years old and the very saddest of mortals He said that there were nine sorrows hidden in his heart of which it could not get rid and that at night when all the birds went home to roost he heard cries of lamentation and pain but whether these came from very far away or out of his own heart he could not tell Yet he grew slenderly and well and had such grace and tenderness in his nature that all who saw him loved him His foster mother when he spoke to her of his nine sorrows tried to comfort him calling him her own nine joys and indeed he was all the joy left in life for her Bulletin Östasiatiska museet,1975 The Imperial Dictionary, English, Technological, and Scientific ...
