Soul Clap Hands and Sing Paule Marshall, 1988      Soul Clap Its Hands and Sing Natalie L. M. Petesch, 1981 Natalie Petesch has written sixteen stories of extraordinarily broad social and political significance      Soul Clap Hands and Sing Paule Marshall, 1988 In each vignette an aged man who has sacrificed human companionship to pursue fame security material possessions or prestige comes face to face with his hollow existence and imminent death A dramatic confrontation precipitated by female characters offers each a chance to inject greater meaning into his life      The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women's clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature      Soul Clap Hands and Sing Paule Marshall, 1961      Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research      A Human Necklace Moira Ferguson, 2013-12-02 From Brown Girl Brownstones 1959 to The Fisher King 2000 Paule Marshall's novels

novellas and short stories include a rich cast of unforgettable men women and children who forge spiritual as well as emotional and geographical paths toward their ancestors In this the first critical study to address all of Marshall s fiction Moira Ferguson argues that Marshall s work collectively constitutes a multigenerational saga of the African diaspora across centuries and continents In creating a space for her characters interrupted lives and those of their elders and ancestors Ferguson argues Marshall trains a spotlight on slavery s wake and engages her fiction in the service of healing deep global wounds

The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation's creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential Watching Other People Work Peter Carnahan, 2012-12-12 WATCHING OTHER PEOPLE WORK volume three of an autobiography by Peter Carnahan covers the 18 plus years the author worked as Director of the Theatre and Literature Programs of The Pennsylvania Council on the Arts This time from 1972 to 1991 was a period of enormous growth for the arts in Pennsylvania and the nation Reflecting that growth the PCA budget grew from 286 000 to 12 million during the period During the second decade covered by this volume Carnahan began his next career as a writer publishing his first nonfiction book in 1989 Conversations with Jim Harrison, Revised and Updated Robert DeMott, 2018-12-18 Conversations with Jim Harrison Revised and Updated offers a judicious selection of interviews spanning the writing career of Jim Harrison 1937 2016 from its beginnings in the 1960s to the last interview he gave weeks before his death in March 2016 Harrison labeled himself and lived as a quadra schizoid writer He worked in fiction poetry nonfiction and screenwriting and he published more than forty books that attracted an international following These interviews supply a lively narrative of his progress as a major contemporary American author This collection showcases Harrison s pet peeves his candor and humility his sense of humor and his patience He does not shy from his authorial obsessions especially his efforts to hone the novella for which he is considered a contemporary master or the frequency with which he defied polite narrative conventions and created memorable resolute female characters Each conversation attests to the depth and range of Harrison s considerable intellectual and political preoccupations his fierce social and ecological conscience his aesthetic beliefs and his stylistic orientations in poetry and prose Mr Skeffington Elizabeth Von Arnim, 2022-09-15 In Mr Skeffington Elizabeth Von Arnim crafts a poignant exploration of feminine identity and societal expectations in the aftermath of World War I The novel is characterized by its lyricism and keen psychological insight as it revolves around the life of Fanny Skeffington a woman grappling with her worth and desirability against a backdrop of shifting societal norms Von Arnim s deft use of wit and irony permeates the narrative illustrating Fanny s journey through love loss and self discovery while capturing the essence of a society in transition Elizabeth Von Arnim a celebrated author of the early 20th century draws from her own experiences as a woman navigating a male dominated literary landscape The daughter of a German aristocrat her unique heritage and personal struggles including her own tumultuous relationships inform her characters and themes Her intimate understanding of women s issues and her own life experiences profoundly shaped Mr Skeffington highlighting the complexities of female existence in a changing world Readers seeking a nuanced portrayal of women s liberation and resilience will find Mr Skeffington a compelling read Von Arnim s rich prose invites reflection on the nature of beauty and worth making it not only a tale of personal struggle but also a timeless commentary on gender dynamics This novel is a must read for those interested in early feminist literature and the intricacies of human relationships Keats and Negative

Capability Li Ou, 2009-08-06 Negative capability the term John Keats used only once in a letter to his brothers is a well known but surprisingly unexplored concept in literary criticism and aesthetics This book is the first book length study of this central concept in seventy years As well as clarifying the meaning of the term and giving an anatomy of its key components the book gives a full account of the history of this idea It traces the narrative of how the phrase first became known and gradually gained currency and explores its primary sources in earlier writers principally Shakespeare and William Hazlitt and its chief Modernist successors W B Yeats and T S Eliot Meanwhile the term is also applied to Keats s own poetry which manifests the evolution of the idea in Keats s poetic practice Many of the comparative readings of the relevant texts including King Lear illuminate the interconnections between these major writers The book is an original and significant piece of scholarship on this celebrated concept
