Sound Sculpture:

Sound Sculpture John Grayson, 1975 Environments of Musical Sculpture You Can Build John Grayson, Douglas Walker, Timothy Cowan, 1976 This book shows you how to invent and build your own new musical instruments and sound sculptures using mainly the materials in your environment Over 120 detailed drawings and photos show sample instruments made in this manner by people from all walks of life In addition there are over 70 pages of special music which anyone can play on his newly invented musical instruments or musical sculptures The book outlines a complete non exclusive community and environmental approach to music making where pleasure self motivation and inner satisfaction are the basic ingredients Back cover The ^AOxford Handbook of Sound and Image in Western Art Yael Kaduri, 2016-07-14 The Oxford Handbook of Sound and Image in Western Art is the first book to examine under one umbrella different kinds of analogies mutual influences integrations and collaborations of audio and visual in different art forms painting sculpture installation architecture performance art animation film video art visual music multimedia experimental music sound art opera theatre and dance Sitting at the cutting edue of the field of music and visual arts the book offers a unique at times controversial view of this rapidly evolving area of study Performance Anthology Carl E. Loeffler, Darlene Tong, 1989 Performance art is a major contemporary art form and California is recognized internationally as a pivotal area for innovative performance art activity This updated edition of Performance Anthology offers an extraordinary documentation of California performance art from 1970 through 1989 The anthology provides a chronicle of the literature of artists publications art journals major books and catalogues introductions and original essays by artists and leading historians and critics of performance art in California and photographs illustrating major works by California artists Through the documentation of the literature a framework is established of the artists events organizations and spaces that have been instrumental in launching and sustaining the performance art scene in California Sound Art Revisited Alan Licht, 2019-08-22 The first edition of Sound Art Revisited published as Sound Art Beyond Music Between Categories served as a groundbreaking work toward defining this emerging field and this fully updated volume significantly expands the story to include current research since the book s initial release Viewed through a lens of music and art histories rather than philosophical theory it covers dozens of artists and works not found in any other book on the subject Locating sound art s roots across the centuries from spatialized church music to the technological developments of radio sound recording and the telephone the book traces the evolution of sound installations and sound sculpture the rise of sound art exhibitions and galleries and finally looks at the critical cross pollination that marks some of the most important and challenging art with and about sound being produced today Distant Dreams Kay Dreyfus, Teresa Balough, 2020-01-01 Percy Grainger s childhood imagining of a music capable of reproducing the sounds of nature was translated in his later life into the creation of wondrously inventive Free Music machines Mostly made from found materials these machines take their place in a proud tradition of sound art at a point where the aural and the visual intersect

Two minds converged on the creation of the machines the one self taught and intuitive the other scientifically trained and rigorous The exchange of letters between the two men charts their journey of discovery and the friendship that grew from it a grand passionate human adventure Bill Fontana: Resounding Io Melih Fereli,2022-05-01 Her kitapta Arter Koleksiyonu'nda yer alan tek bir esere odaklanan Arter Yakın Plan dizisinin dördüncü kitabı olarak bir seriyi kapsayan sanatsal retimi boyunca gündelik hayatımız evreyeyen gizli müzilerinin inceliklerini aşıyor. Cataloging Policy and Support Office,2009 Counterpoints Philippe Junod,2017-09-15 Multimedia experiments are everywhere in contemporary art but the collaboration and conflict associated with multimedia is not a new phenomenon From opera to the symphonic poem to paintings inspired by music many attempts have been made to pair sounds with pictures and to combine the arts of time and space Counterpoints explores this artistic evolution from ancient times to the present day The book's main focus is music and its relationship with painting sculpture and architecture Philippe Junod draws on theoretical and practical examples to show how different art movements throughout history have embraced or rejected creative combinations He explains how the Renaissance neoclassicism and certain brands of modernism tried to claim the purity of each mode of expression while other movements such as romanticism symbolism and surrealism called for a fusion of the arts Counterpoints is a unique cultural history one that provides a critical understanding of a popular but previously unheralded art form A Critical Cinema 5 Scott MacDonald,2006-01-30 A Critical Cinema 5 is the fifth volume in Scott MacDonald s Critical Cinema series the most extensive in depth exploration of independent cinema available in English In this new set of interviews MacDonald engages filmmakers in detailed discussions of their films and of the personal experiences and political and theoretical currents that have shaped their work The interviews are arranged to express the remarkable diversity of modern independent cinema and the interactive community of filmmakers that has dedicated itself to producing forms of cinema that critique conventional media Music, Electronic Media, and Culture Simon

Emmerson,2009 Technology revolutionised the ways that music was produced in the twentieth century As that century drew to a close and a new century begins a new revolution in roles is underway The separate categories of composer performer distributor and listener are being challenged while the sounds of the world itself become available for musical use All kinds of sounds are now brought into the remit of composition enabling the music of others to be sampled or plundered including that of unwitting musicians from non western cultures This sound world may appear contradictory stimulating and invigorating as well as exploitative and destructive This book addresses some of the issues now posed by the brave new world of music produced with technology Music and Technology in the Twentieth Century Hans-Joachim Braun,2002-09-16 Braun Universitat der Bundeswehr presents 13 contributions by scholars in two fields of history musicology and technology Topics include the role of Yamaha in Japan s musical development the social construction of the synthesizer the player piano as a precursor of computer music the musical role of airplanes and locomotives the origins of the 45 RPM record violin vibrato and the phonograph Jimi Hendrix the aesthetic challenge of sound sampling and others Originally published in 2000 as I Sing the Body Electric Music and Technology in the 20th Century Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

P-Z Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy,1990 Developing an All-School Model for Elementary Integrative Music Learning Carol E. Reed-Jones,2014-03 The purpose of this study was to investigate the potential for increasing informal music making in elementary school culture and create a model of such music making Precedence for this model can be found in the literature of ethnomusicology educational psychology and learning theory multicultural music education and cultural anthropology Literature from four distinct traditions and contexts of music making in integrative sociocultural contexts sub Saharan African ngoma and Community Music as manifested in New Orleans second lines old time music and dance and summer camp music making was parsed with a philosophical lens to determine and assess possible areas of intersection between these four participatory cultures and North American public school culture

Each of these five areas was examined through a comprehensive review of literature to define their salient characteristics. These characteristics were sorted to determine commonalities between areas and the zones of intersection became the basis for a speculative model of integrative music learning featuring the inclusion of musical opportunities and interludes throughout the school day thus taking school music beyond the confines of the music room. Instruction in music classes would still continue enhanced in this model by supplemental learning opportunities inspired by the informal learning of traditional world musics the participatory practice of New Orleans second line parades old time music and dance and summer camp music culture. This model of integrative learning is also informed by current educational best practices such as child centered learning peer tutoring experiential learning and multicultural perspectives. It acknowledges the diversity of traditions consulted while aiming for the unity in their seemingly disparate disciplines. Five universal characteristics were uncovered in the search for areas of intersection between North American elementary school culture child culture ngoma music making and Community Music style music making in New Orleans old time music and dance and summer camp contexts: a Song b play c informal learning as evidenced by oral tradition peer tutoring self learning d kinesthetic learning and e contextualized learning as evidenced in the sociocultural uses of music and situated learning. This model strives for the enactment of school music as a vital and integral part of daily school culture.

Music and Heritage provides new thinking about the diverse ways people engage with heritage. By exploring the relationships that exist between music place and identity the book illustrates how people form attachments to place and how such attachments are represented by sound and music making. Presenting case studies and perspectives from across a range of genres the volume argues that combining music with heritage provides an alternative and productive opportunity to think about heritage values and place attachment. Contributions to this edited collection use a diversity of methods perspectives cues and genres to reflect critically on issues related to these and other interconnections in ways that encourage new thinking about the character meaning and purpose of cultural heritage and the various ways in which people can interact with it through sound.

thus re encountering the supposedly familiar world around them Taking heritage studies musicology and place making research in new directions Music and Heritage will be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of heritage history music geography and anthropology It will also be relevant to those with an interest in how music relates to place making and place attachment as well as to practitioners and policymakers working in the planning design and creative sectors
