Sound Thinking Basic Learning The Making And Sharing Of Music:

Sound Thinking - Basic Learning, the Making and Sharing of Music Catherine H. Kiernan, 1987-01-01 Sound Thinking Steven Clifford Dillon, Andrew R. Brown, 2011 Sound Thinking provides techniques and approaches to critically listen think talk and write about music you hear or make It provides tips on making music and it encourages regular and deep thinking about music activities which helps build a musical dialog that leads to deeper understanding Navigating Music and Sound Education Julie Ballantyne, Brydie-Leigh Bartleet, 2010-01-08 Navigating Music and Sound Education has been specifically written for pre service teachers who are studying music education curriculum or pedagogy subjects It features the voices of leading international academics in the field to illuminate issues of importance in preparing pre service teacher education students The engaging examples provided in each chapter are drawn from real life educational settings and enable readers to critically explore the perspectives presented by the authors and consider the application of such perspectives in their future practice Music, Higher Education, and Society David E. Myers, 2025-03-27 This volume asserts that institutional teaching study administration and performance of music should derive from essential goodness the transcendent value embodied in meaning making that is manifest through holistic cognitive creative kinesthetic productive and expressive reality The classical music ecosystem suffers from a legacy of survival rather than flourishing across increasingly diverse audiences among whom personal and shared meaning is the crux of perceived value Myers calls for a renaissance in professional education and practice that embeds rigorous and disciplined adherence to essential goodness as a non negotiable premise Change leadership is essential if classical music and musicians are to offer society the value it deserves through the classical arts and administrators boards funders and artists must adopt attitudes of service to this greater good in order to invite and lead participatory co creative engagement Through critical analysis of the longstanding status quo Myers offers powerful suggestions for change beginning in higher education and flowing through applications across society Contextualizing music higher education within wider ecosystems of teaching and practice this book shows how leaders can embrace strategic change as a positive opportunity and offers new models for addressing contemporary challenges in a mission driven way including preparing musicians for careers and engaging communities Teaching and Evaluating Music Performance at University John Encarnacao, Diana Blom, 2020-04-28 Fresh perspectives on teaching and evaluating music performance in higher education are offered in this book One to one pedagogy and Western art music once default positions of instrumental teaching are giving way to a range of approaches that seek to engage with the challenges of the music industry and higher education sector funding models of the twenty first century Many of these approaches formal informal semi autonomous notated using improvisation or aleatory principles incorporating new technology are discussed here Chapters also consider the evolution of the student play as a medium for learning reflective essay writing multimodal performance interactivity and assessment criteria The contributors to this edited volume are lecturer practitioners choristers

instrumentalists producers and technologists who ground their research in real life situations The perspectives extend to the challenges of professional development programs and in several chapters incorporate the experiences of students Grounded in the latest music education research the book surveys a contemporary landscape where all types of musical expression are valued not just those of the conservatory model of decades past This volume will provide ideas and spark debate for anyone teaching and evaluating music performance in higher education Uniform Trade List Annual ,1989 Bowker's Complete Sourcebook of Personal Computing, 1985 R.R.
