The Cambridge Companion to Medieval British Manuscripts Orietta Da Rold, Elaine Treharne, 2020-12-17 The scholarship and teaching of manuscript studies has been transformed by digitisation rendering previously rarefied documents accessible for study on a vast scale The Cambridge Companion to Medieval British Manuscripts orientates students in the complex multidisciplinary study of medieval book production and contemporary display of manuscripts from c 600 1500 Accessible explanations draw on key case studies to illustrate the major methodologies and explain why skills in understanding early book production are so critical for reading editing and accessing a rich cultural heritage Chapters by leading specialists in manuscript studies range from explaining how manuscripts were stored to revealing the complex networks of readers and writers which can be understood through manuscripts to an in depth discussion on the Wycliffite Bible The Atlantic Economy during the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries Peter A. Coclanis, 2020-05-21 The Atlantic Economy during the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries is a collection of essays focusing on the expansion elaboration and increasing integration of the economy of the Atlantic basin comprising parts of Europe West Africa and the Americas during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries In thirteen essays the contributors examine the complex and variegated processes by which markets were created in the Atlantic basin and how they became integrated While a number of the contributors focus on the economic history of a specific European imperial system others mirroring the realities of the world they are writing about transcend imperial boundaries and investigate topics shared throughout the region In the latter case the contributors focus either on processes occurring along the margins or interstices of empires or on breaches in the colonial systems established by various European powers Taken together the essays shed much needed light on the organization and operation of both the European imperial orders of the early modern era and the increasingly integrated economy of the Atlantic basin challenging these orders over the course of the same period Canadian Gazette and Export Trader, 1908

Marketing English Books, 1476-1550 Alexandra da Costa, 2020-11-04 The monograph series Oxford Studies in Medieval Literature and Culture showcases the plurilingual and multicultural quality of medieval literature and actively seeks to promote research that not only focuses on the array of subjects medievalists now pursue in literature theology and philosophy in social political jurisprudential and intellectual history the history of art and the history of science but also that combines these subjects productively It offers innovative studies on topics that may include but are not limited to manuscript and book history languages and literatures of the global Middle Ages race and the post colonial the digital humanities media and performance music medicine the history of affect and the emotions the literature and practices of devotion the theory and history of gender and sexuality ecocriticism and the environment theories of aesthetics medievalism Marketing English Books is about how the earliest printers moulded demand and created new markets Until the advent of print the sale of books had been primarily a bespoke trade but printers faced a new sales challenge how to sell hundreds of identical books to individuals who had many other demands on their purses This book contends that this forced printers to think carefully about marketing and potential demand for even if they sold through a middleman as most did that wholesaler bookseller or chapman needed to be convinced the books would attract customers Marketing English Books sets out therefore to show how markets for a wide range of texts were cultivated by English printers between 1476 and 1550 within a wider European context devotional tracts forbidden evangelical books romances gestic and bawdy tales news pilgrimage guides souvenirs and advertisements and household advice Through close analysis of paratexts including title pages prefaces tables of contents envoys colophons and images the book reveals the cultural impact of printers in this often overlooked period It argues that while print and manuscript continued alongside each other developments in the marketing of printed texts began to change what readers read and the place of reading in their lives on a larger scale and at a faster pace than had occurred before shaping their expectations tastes and even their practices and beliefs The American Nation, a History: Greene, E. B. Provincial America, 1690-1740 Albert Bushnell Hart, 1905 A Companion to the English Dominican Province Eleanor J. Giraud, J. Cornelia Linde, 2021-02-22 A Companion to the English Dominican Province offers an account of Dominican activities in England Ireland Scotland and Wales from their arrival in 1221 until their dissolution at the Reformation Over the three centuries covered in this volume the Friars Preachers not only devoted themselves to the cure of souls via preaching

Carby,2021-10-12 Winner of the British Academy s Nayef Al Rodhan Prize for Global Cultural Understanding 2020 Highly commended for PEN Hessel Tiltman Prize 2020 A haunting and evocative history of British empire told through one woman s family story Where are you from was the question hounding Hazel Carby as a girl in post war London One of the so called brown babies of the Windrush generation born to a Jamaican father and Welsh mother Carby s place in her home her neighbourhood and her country of birth was always in doubt Emerging from this setting Carby untangles the threads connecting members of her family in a web woven by the British Empire across the Atlantic We meet Carby s working class grandmother Beatrice a seamstress challenged by poverty and disease In England she was thrilled by the cosmopolitan fantasies of empire by cities built with slave trade profits and by street peddlers selling fashionable Jamaican delicacies In Jamaica we follow the lives of both the white Carbys and the black Carbys including Mary Ivey a free woman of colour whose children are fathered by Lilly Carby a British soldier who arrived in Jamaica in 1789 to be absorbed into the plantation aristocracy And we discover the hidden stories of Bridget and Nancy two women owned by Lilly who survived the Middle Passage from Africa to the Caribbean Moving between Jamaican plantations the hills of Devon the port cities of Bristol Cardiff and Kingston and the working class estates of South London Carby s family story is at once an intimate personal history and a sweeping summation of the violent entanglement of two islands In charting British empire s interweaving of capital and bodies public language and private feeling Carby will find herself reckoning with what she can tell what she can remember and what she can bear to know The Legacy of M. R. James Lynda Dennison,2001 The Chamber of Commerce Journal ,1924 The History of the Book in the West: 17001800 Eleanor F. Shevlin,2017-03-02 Influenced by Enlightenment principles and commercial transformations the history of the book in the eighteenth century witnessed not only the final decades of the hand press era but also developments and practices that pointed to its future the foundations of modern copyright a rapid growth in the publication circulation and reading of periodicals the promotion of niche marketing alterations to distribution networks and the emergence of the publisher as a central figure in the book trade to name a few The pace and extent of these changes varied greatly within the different sociopolitical contexts across the western world The volume s twenty four articles many of which proffer broader theoretical implications beyond their specific focus highlight the era s range of developments Complementing these articles the introductory essay provides an overview of the eighteenth century book and milestones in its history during this period while simultaneously identifying potential directions for new scholarship The Agricultural Gazette and Modern Farming ,1911 The Book in Britain Daniel
