Although Coleridge's thinking and writing about the fine arts was both considerable and interesting this has not been the subject of a book before Coleridge owed his initiation into art to Sir George Beaumont In 1803-4 he had frequent opportunities to learn from Beaumont to study Beaumont's small but elegant collection and to visit private collections Before leaving for Malta in April 1804 Coleridge wrote I have learnt as much from Sir George Beaumont respecting Pictures Painting and Painters as I ever learnt on any subject from any man in the same Space of Time In Italy in 1806 Coleridge's experience of art deepened thanks to the American artist Washington Allston who taught him to see the artistic sights of Rome with a painter's eye Coleridge also visited Florence and Pisa and later said of the frescoes in Pisa's Camp Santo The impression was greater I may say than that any poem ever made upon me Back in

England Coleridge visited London exhibitions country house collections and even artists studios In 1814 both Coleridge and Allston were in Bristol Coleridge lecturing Allston exhibiting Coleridge s On the Principles of Genial Criticism began as a defense of Allston s paintings but became a statement about all the arts This book an important contribution to Coleridge s intellectual biography will make readers aware of a dimension of his thinking that has been largely ignored until now The Chautauquan ,1892
