The Equations Of Love Tuesday And Wednesday Lillys Story:

The equations of love Ethel Wilson, 1952 The Equations of Love Together with Tuesday and Wednesday and Lilly's Story Ethel Wilson, 1952 The Equations of Love Ethel Wilson, 2010-01-05 In the two novellas that make up The Equations of Love Ethel Wilson describes ordinary people in perilous circumstances with extraordinary insight and compassion Tuesday and Wednesday reconstructs the events of two days in the life of Mort and Myrtle Johnson whose uninspired marriage is strangely transformed by the tragic intervention of fate Lilly's Story is the study of a woman who protecting her daughter invents a new identity for herself only to live as a fugitive from her own happiness First published in 1952 these intuitive and richly ironic stories reveal the unspoken longings and surprising motives that balance the equations of love The Equations of Love Ethel Wilson, 1974 Mrs. Golightly and Other Stories Ethel Wilson, 2010-09-21 The eighteen pieces collected in Mrs Golightly and Other Stories bring together the many and subtle voices of Ethel Wilson demonstrating her extraordinary range as a writer From the gentle mockery of the title story to the absurdist reportage of Mr Sleepwalker Wilson exerts unerring narrative control Revealing what is simple and complicated and timeless in everyday life these stories also venture into irrational realms of experience where chance encounters assume a malevolent form and coincidence transmuted into nightmare First published in 1961 Mrs Golightly and Other Stories is a diverse and rewarding collection unified by Ethel Wilson's distinct and engaging wit The Ethel Wilson Symposium Lorraine McMullen, 1982-01-01 Ethel Wilson David Stouck, 2003-01-01 Ethel Wilson is one of Canada's most important writers This biography draws on archival material and interviews to describe in detail her early life as an orphan in England and Vancouver and her long writer's apprenticeship spanning from the publication of some children's stories in 1919 to the appearance of Hetty Dorval in 1947 2003 Ontario Library Review, 1977 The Writers Directory, 1976

Cross-Cultural Reckonings Blanche H. Gelfant, 1995-01-27 Blanche H Gelfant's book Cross Cultural Reckonings both demonstrates and questions the applicability of postmodern cultural and literary theories to realistic texts to fiction and autobiographies valued for their truth Drawing together an unusual combination of Russian American and Canadian writers the various essays of this book provide new and original perspectives upon the puzzling issues of national identity of historical change and continuity of gender and the integrity of literary genres the boundaries between text and context and the underlying if overlooked conflicts between the postmodern critic's skepticism and a writer's belief in the transcendence of art and truth To avoid the contingencies inherent in binary comparisons the essays in this book seek a triadic form analogous to the triptych or polyptych of the visual arts Multi faceted non linear and open ended such a form might allow the academic essay to recover a waywardness that traces back to Montaigne cited in prefatory notes and to the etymological meaning of the essay as an exagium or weighing as an act of reckoning A study at once elegant erudite and personal Cross Cultural Reckonings reckons with writers of different backgrounds and reputation in whom Gelfant discovers surprising affinities among them the Russian writers Lydia Chukovskaya Natalya Baranskaya and Alexander Solzhenitsyn Ethel Wilson a highly reputed Canadian writer the famous cross cultural figure Emma Goldman and established as well as new or rediscovered American writers such as Willa Cather Saul Bellow Arlene Heyman and Meridel Le Sueur These writers are discussed singly and in comparative essays each of which is discrete and self contained while all interconnect and reflect upon each other as exemplary demonstrations of cross cultural literary criticism and the deferred final judgment that results from a weighing and reweighing of books The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968 An Independent Stance W. J. Keith,1991 Part One of this strongly worded informed and wide ranging collection examines key issues for the future of Canadian criticism Part Two offers new readings of important works by Grove Wilson MacLennan Davies Laurence Hood Wiebe Hodgins and Atwood As W J Keith argues We still have a mission to have our literature recognized as an essential reflection of our national life This is what I mean by retrenchment and consolidation Literature can survive without literary criticism but it cannot survive if it is unknown and unread It is criticism s prime function at the present time to see that it is both known and read with that mature enjoyment which is a combination of emotional sensitivity and humane intelligence As critics scholars editors we shall not be fulfilling our responsibilities or justifying our existence if we attempt anything less Or as Keith modestly observes in his introduction to this collection If this book is of any interest it will be because Canadian literature is an important subject Literary commentators like myself are middle men and should be prepared to admit the fact If this book succeeds in helping readers to appreciate the works of Canadian writers that I discuss and to derive increased pleasure and insight from them it will have served its purpose I can see no other justification for it or for any other work of criticism Bulletin - Canadian Library Association Canadian Library Association,1959 Canadian Library ,1959 Canadiana ,1991 Canadian Selection Alvan Bregman,Ontario.
