Metaphors for Death Around the World Wojciech Wachowski, Karen Sullivan, 2021-11-29 This book reflects on the ways in which metonymy and metaphor are used conceptually and linguistically to mitigate the more difficult dimensions of death and dying setting out a unique line of research within Conceptual Metaphor Theory The volume argues that metonymic and metaphoric descriptions of death and dying reflect taboos concealment and other considerations not found in figurative descriptions of life producing distinct forms of euphemism frames and mental spaces particular to conceptualizations of death The first part takes a closer look at metonymy to illuminate the ways in which it allows a person to zoom in on death's more inoffensive dimensions or zoom out from its more troubling aspects The second part focuses on the more palatable concepts which metaphorically structure and help to better understand death A wide range of classical and modern examples from European Asian Australian and African languages and cultures showcase points of overlap and divergence Opening up new lines of inquiry into research on death and dying and offering a linguistically focused complement to anthropological and religious studies on the topic this book will be of interest to scholars in cognitive linguistics sociolinguistics cross cultural communication and cultural studies

Coequal and Counterbalanced John D. Garr, 2013-01-16 God created woman and man so that they would be consubstantial and coequal and that they would manifest perfectly counterbalanced complementarity The relationship of the two halves of humanity was to be one of love mutuality and fulfillment By recovering the Hebraic understanding of God's blueprint for them both women and men can finally experience the relationship that God designed to be heaven on earth The God Designed Two in One Coequal Counterbalanced Partnership Designer Fashioned Woman Gender Self Identity and Self Fulfillment Spare Ribs and Afterthoughts Marriage as Heaven on Earth Whatever your race ethnicity gender faith or social status this book and the other volumes in this series will literally set you free from misconceptions that have long perverted relationships between women and men As you reconnect with the Hebraic foundations of your faith you will rediscover God's original design for humanity and you will come to understand respect and honor the different God designed distinctives preferences and roles for women and men that counterbalance and complement each other in mutuality and love

Lexicon of the Mouth Brandon LaBelle, 2014-06-19 Lexicon of the Mouth surveys the oral cavity as the central channel by which self and surrounding are brought into relation Questions of embodiment and agency attachment and loss incorporation and hunger locution and the non sensical are critically examined In doing so LaBelle emphasizes the mouth as a vital conduit for negotiating the foundational narrative of proper speech Lexicon of the Mouth aims for a viscous poetic and resonant discourse of subjectivity detailed through the micro oralities of laughing and whispering stuttering and reciting eating and kissing among others The oral cavity is posed as an impressionable arena susceptible to all types of material input contamination and intervention while also enabling powerful forms of resistance attachment and conversation as well as radical imagination Lexicon of the Mouth argues for the revolutionary promise of the laugh the spirited mythologies of the whisper the schizophonic of self talk and the primal noise of gibberish suggesting that the significance of voicing is fundamentally bound to the exertions of the mouth Subsequently assumptions around voice and vocality are unsettled in favor of an epistemology of the oral highlighting the acts of the tongue the lips and the throat as primary mediations between interior and exterior social structures and embodied expressions LaBelle makes a significant contribution to currents in sound and voice studies by reminding that to hear the voice and to consider a politics of speech is first and foremost to assume the mouth
