The Ethics Of Giving And Receiving Am I My Foolish Brothers Keeper:

The Ethics of Giving and Receiving William F. May, Adolph L. Soens, 2000 These essays by prominent ethicists social philosophers theologians and leaders of nonprofit institutions grapple with the many thorny issues surrounding philanthropy and voluntarism An outgrowth of two conferences sponsored by the Maguire Center at SMU in 1996 97 the essays examine the common and conflicting interests of donors boards staffs and beneficiaries the interface of voluntary communities with larger entities such as government and the precarious balancing act between charity solidarity and responsibility We Make a Life by What We Give Richard B. Gunderman, 2009-09-07 According to an old saying We make a living by what we get but we make a life by what we give In 22 brief and insightful essays Richard B Gunderman shows us that the key to more rewarding giving can be found by looking beyond mere donations of money Exploring the ethical core of sharing and examining its importance for both those who receive and those who give here is a book to deepen our understanding of what it means to share Democracy and Public Administration Richard C Box, 2015-03-12 The true measure of the successful practice of public service is its ability to remain faithful to the tenets of democratic society This introductory text links the practice of public administration to the core concepts of American democracy It covers the nuts and bolts of public administration in the context of delivering democracy in public service providing what the public really wants as opposed to what self serving bureaucracies may call for Chapters in Democracy and Public Administration discuss the functional topics covered in other texts but from the perspective of this democratic ideal Each chapter is written by an expert in the area and summarizes previous research in the area presents the author s research and thought and offers ways in which practitioners can apply the concepts discussed to their daily work Giving Circles Angela M. Eikenberry, 2009-06-29 Describes giving circles and how they work to meet social needs and solve community problems and examines the role of philanthropy in democratic society Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations Kathryn A. Agard, 2010-10-19 Leaders of nonprofit organizations deliver programs and services vital to the quality of life in the United States All the activities of our religious communities the vast majority of the arts and culture human services and community development pursuits as well as education and environmental advocacies take root and deliver their services within the nonprofit sector Welcome to the world of leadership in nonprofit organizations This sector offers an opportunity to serve as well as to lead Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations A Reference Handbook engages voices on issues and leadership topics important to those seeking to understand more about this dynamic sector of society A major focus of this two volume reference work is on the specific roles and skills required of the nonprofit leader in voluntary organizations Key Features Presents contributions from a wide range of authors who reflect the variety vibrancy and creativity of the sector itself Provides an overview of the history of nonprofit organizations in our country Describes a robust and diverse assortment of organizations and opportunities for leadership Explores the nature of leadership and its complexity as exemplified in the nonprofit sector Includes topics such as personalities of nonprofit leaders vision and starting a nonprofit organization nonprofit law statutes taxation and regulations strategic management financial management collaboration public relations for promoting a nonprofit organization and human resource policies and procedures Nonprofit organizations are a large independent diverse and dynamic part of our society This landmark Handbook tackles issues relevant to leadership in the nonprofit realm making it a welcome addition to any academic or public library

Giving Well, Doing Good Amy A. Kass, 2008-01-11 This anthology explores the enterprise of philanthropy assumptions aspirations and achievements It brings together key texts that can provide guidance to current and prospective donors trustees and professional staff of foundations and leaders of nonprofit organizations Organized thematically these texts seek to illuminate fundamental questions about the idea and practice of philanthropy to promote more thoughtful discussion about practical issues facing the philanthropic sector and to point a way toward a philanthropic practice that is more responsible more effective and more civic spirited Amy A Kass has selected readings from sources that range from the classics to the contemporary from foundational statements on philanthropy to reflections on key issues of novelists and poets Each illuminates some aspect of philanthropy The book is arranged according to themes goals and intentions gifts donors and recipients grants grantors grantees bequests and legacies effectiveness accountability and leadership

Telethons Paul K. Longmore, 2016 Marshaling two decades worth of painstaking research Paul Longmore's book provides the first cultural history of the telethon charting its rise and profiling the key figures philanthropists politicians celebrities corporate sponsors and recipients involved

Apples of Gold in Pictures of Silver Yuval Levin, 2010-01-01 For more than forty years Leon R Kass has been a prolific and distinguished writer an outstanding teacher of the humanities and a wise interpreter of the moral implications of modern science In Apples of Gold in Pictures of Silver fifteen of his colleagues students and friends celebrate his life's work with a collection of essays on themes and issues that have been of central concern to his scholarship

Religious Giving David H. Smith, 2010-04-06 Religious Giving considers the connection between religion and giving within the Abrahamic traditions Each contributor begins with the assumption that there is something inherently right or natural about the connection But what exactly is it To whom should we give how much should we give what is the relationship between our giving and our relationship to God Writing for the introspective donor congregational leader or student interested in ways of meeting human needs the authors focus on the philosophical or theological dimensions of giving The contributors goal is not to report on institutional practices but to provide thoughtful constructive guidance to the reader informed by a critical understanding of the religious traditions under review

Good Intentions David H. Smith, 2005 Besides helpful editorial material this work includes ten papers that were presented in a seminar sponsored by the Center on Philanthropy at Indiana Univ part of the IU School of Liberal Arts at Indiana Univ Purdue Univ Indianapolis All of the essays address philanthropy its definition relationships motives forms history and precepts Amy Kass discusses what philanthropy meant to Booker T Washington largely education in black self help What it meant to Jane Addams Paul Pribbenow explains is the common work of citizens Secular standards for the morality of philanthropy are the subject of essays by Patricia Werhane and Paul Schervish and by David Craig in the best of the essays Religious standards for the moral aspects of philanthropy are the subject of essays by Elliot Dorff Jewish Philip Turner Protestant and John Langan Catholic David Hammack provides a fascinating history of American nonprofit organizations The final essay by William Sullivan gives readers reason to worry because American inequality is increasing at the same time that effective democratically based philanthropy is decreasing Those who can learn much from this book include not only philanthropic givers and takers such as foundation executives college administrators and church leaders but also moral philosophers theologians and government officials Summing Up Recommended Lower level undergraduates and above general readers General Readers Lower division Undergraduates Upper division Undergraduates Graduate Students Researchers Faculty Professionals Practitioners Reviewed by J M Betz American Book Publishing Record ,2000-07
