The Ever Rolling Stream:

An Ever Rolling Stream Don Snuggs, 2015-06-28 From the conventional to the unconventional in life and medicine Don Snuggs had a very normal childhood Born in 1932 and a child of the war he matured into an imaginative unconventional professional practitioner of alternative medicine After surviving the trauma of war many found themselves the subject of prejudice and discouragement but with his determination to succeed Don went on to make his mark on the world As a child Don spent some of his childhood in hospital which ultimately led to his interest in medicine and the nursing profession An Ever Rolling Stream details his life from his wartime childhood to his life as a nurse Don shares his memories of being in charge of a cancer ward in the Uxbridge RAF hospital and how it taught him the effects that disease and ill health can have on a person This led Don eventually to pursue an interest in Chinese medicine with its different approach to the sick person and his predicament Most of his stories talk not about cure but about care as Don shares his time spent comforting and caring for distressed patients as well as the support and friendship he shared with his bemused colleagues An Ever Rolling Stream is a touching memoir that allows the reader to share some of Don Snuggs most personal memories of his time spent living in a war torn Britain and caring for those most affected by their afflictions This book will appeal to readers with an interest in the Second World War as well as those with an interest in traditional and alternative medicine Time, Like an Ever-Rolling Stream Judith Moffett, 2015-05-29 Judith Moffett returns to the future with this moving tale of the Hefn occupation of Earth and how it affects the planet's native humans two in particular Pam Pruitt a talented young woman from Kentucky and Liam O'Hara whose unique friendship with the Hefn Humphrey saved his life The two teens journey to a special place in remote Kentucky Hurt Hollow where the painter Orrin Hubbell and his wife Hannah found a way to live in peace with the planet during the twentieth century The prospects of living peacefully seem distant for Pam and Liam both of whom must find peace with themselves as well as with the Hefn Directive The marvelous events that befall them en route to Kentucky and in the Hollow itself beautifully depict the subtle ways in which the world shapes them and the stunning ways in which they change the world Cracking the Timeline Ruth Rosemary, 2023-03-10 History versus science history versus history or history with science who has it right In this book you will be challenged to think differently about BC history Discover a calendar that is over five thousand years old and how the younger calendars go with it in this timeline Discover a reason why different dates are assigned to the same event Explore why the Second Temple of Judaism which stood partly BC and partly AD for about 420 years can have a start date in the 500s BC and 300s BC Discover concurrent event reading of the Bible as it relates to history Discover the accuracy preserved by forefathers and more With the use of the Gregorian calendar beginning in the 1500s we read BC history with dates that go backward as events move forward This is exactly the opposite of our current dates where the dates move forward as events move forward In this book there is a BC to AD timeline of the Bible some history and some prophesied events As you read you will go on a journey through history and put together past and present through what was written down about events and prophesied events 157 Lament That Generates Covenant Walter Brueggemann, 2025-03-03 This collection of essays pertains to matters that urgently concern our faith My work consists in recognition that our various systems of meaning power and control are decisively penultimate even though we conduct ourselves as though they are ultimate Thus our articulation of theology and faith are momentary and require endless rearticulation Our various expressions of nation race class and gender are momentary arrangements that give us assurance but that are sure to be yet again unsustainable claims The idiom in which biblical faith is given us is inescapably poetic an exercise in imagination elusive imagery and playful phrasing The long history of the church consists in the seductive practice of trying to catch such poetic utterance in settled prose that we parse with logic and precision Such efforts are always less than adequate as the poetry of testimony always surges beyond our best prose Thus as a case in point the church has engaged much energy in parsing the creeds But in the end the creeds are poetry designed for liturgic affirmation rather than reduction to cold rationality bereft of context For much too long the church has focused on private spiritual other worldly matters In fact the biblical reportage and advocacy concern the continuing struggle for an alternative economy that is governed by neighborly generosity an economy that eschews private accumulation by the powerful at the expense of the vulnerable On all counts it is my hope that this collection of essays will serve all those who do the continuing work of faithful study faithful worship and faithful action in the world The Eloquence of Grace James M. Childs Jr., Richard Lischer, 2012-10-12 Joseph A Sittler 1904 1987 was one of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century distinguished for his pioneering work in ecology and for his preeminence as a preacher He gave both the Beecher Lectures at Yale and the Noble Lectures at Harvard As the preacher s theologian Sittler approached the interpretation of Scripture with a clear understanding of current critical scholarship but also in the freedom of the gospel at the center of Scripture and with the humility of a theologian of the cross In following the trajectory of the text into the preaching situation he gave a lively timeless and eloquent expression to the fact that the interpretation of texts is in the service of proclamation This collection of readings from Sittler s rich legacy contains a great many presentations and sermons that have never before appeared in print Theologically serious preaching close attention to language engagement with the best of sacred and secular culture and a deep respect for the text all characteristics of Sittler s work are the sort of features that continue to edify They remain as benchmarks for good preaching even as styles and contexts evolve Millgate and Playgoer , 1920 Songs of the Lesser Servants Richard Alan Ruof, 2003-09 Eleven year old Connor refuses to accept his parents impending divorce Instead he boldly takes matters into his own hands by setting up an on line dating service To insure that all of their dates will be miserable he matches up his parents with people causing grief in his own life If he can discourage them from dating other people then just maybe they will give each other another chance Written in screenplay format To Everything a Season Bonnie Bowman Thurston, 2004-03-26 The fruit of her determined prayer for a way to give her spirit time to catch up this

pithy reflection on the qualities of time will introduce highly respected biblical scholar professor pastor widow friend and author Bonnie Thurston to a wider audience everyone who is time pressed and deadline pressured The news is good Time is the creation of a generous God who always provides not only the bare essentials but usually a feast As the writer of Ecclesiastes mused For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven It is with her trust in this abundance that Thurston explores the mystery of time and the rediscovery of the Judeo Christian understanding of time as God s sacred and bountiful gift She looks at time from both a historical and a theological perspective she studies seasons as measured by the liturgical cycle the monastic day the jubilee year and the Sabbath and she ponders the meaning of time participles familiar phrases such as finding time making time spending time and marking time With her encouragement the reader will discover that there is enough time if we redeem the time by reclaiming the Sabbath the time built into the rhythm of creation by God for rest and re creation To Everything a Season offers reflection exercises to help us understand both how we think about and how we use time as well as suggestions for ways of making Sabbath in the midst of our own crowded lives The result is an invitation and a recipe for living in the present moment in God s eternal Now Tranquility by Tuesday

The Attributes of God Volume 2 A. W. Tozer, 2007-02-14 The most important question we can ask For A W Tozer there is no question more important than What is God like The desire to know God consumed his entire life and ministry That's why those who read him come to know God more intimately Originally preached as sermons to the Avenue Road congregation in Toronto this follow up to The Attributes of God Volume 1 examines ten more attributes of God It also includes a study guide for an in depth look at each attribute Self Existent Transcendent Eternal Omnipotent Immutable Omniscient Wise Sovereign Faithful Loving Steeped in Scripture and filled with the Spirit Tozer preached with striking clarity and power The sense of his sermons comes through on every page bringing the Word of God to bear upon you Water: A Spiritual History Ian Bradley, 2012-11-02 Water has long been associated with the magical the mysterious and the divine From sacred springs to holy wells and from hydropathic cures and temperance reform to the modern spa Ian Bradley explores how water's creative health giving and restorative powers have been conceived worshipped and marketed in an essentially spiritual way In pre Christian times springs and rivers were seen as the dwelling places of deities with magical life giving and curative powers associated especially with the feminine and with ritual cleansing and rebirth With the coming of Christianity water was incorporated into Christian ritual and tradition through baptism and the cult of holy wells From the 16th century onwards the benefits of water came to be seen more in terms of therapeutic healing than the miraculous Through the development of drinking and bathing cures spas and hydrotherapy a more scientific but still essentially spiritual understanding of the curative properties of water was developed By the eighteenth century spas and watering places had acquired their own enchanted and mysterious qualities in many ways taking the place of medieval pilgrim shrines Now a new more hedonistic kind of pilgrim comes to modern spas to experience a potent post modern elixir of self oriented well being Sunday Afternoon, 1878 November Kent Gramm, 2001-11-09 It begins with the search for hallowed ground the exact place from which Abraham Lincoln delivered the Gettysburg Address In bleak November Kent Gramm makes a pilgrimage to the most famous battleground in American history and over the course of a month transforms his search into a discovery of the meaning of Lincoln's elegy for America's identity For Gramm the century that began with Lincoln's address and ended with the assassinations of the 1960s saw the destruction of the modern world and with it America's sense of purpose The book reflects on the November anniversaries of public events such as the Armistice that ended World War One Kristallnacht the assassination of John F Kennedy the death of C S Lewis the first major battle of the Vietnam War and the publication of Robert F Kennedy s To Seek a Newer World and also on private events in Gramm s family history provide the occasions for Gramm s meditations on public and private heroism on modernism s hopes and postmodern despair In November he asks us to seek a path toward the new birth of freedom that Lincoln envisioned at Gettysburg The month begins with things that perish But ultimately November is a journey of hope as was Lincoln s journey to Gettysburg So too I will journey to Gettysburg in these pages Like Lincoln s fellow citizens I go there to assuage personal grief to find answers and I hope for me as for them that my personal sorrows become a vehicle for larger answers and a larger purpose Lincoln addressed their grief why not mine he gave his generation purpose why not ours

The Daring Muse Margaret Anne Doody, 1985-07-04 The Daring Muse is a challenging account of the richness and complexity of Augustan poetry It takes in a broad range of writers from the Restoration to the Regency from Rochester and Dryden to Cowper and Crabbe and shows the essential connections between them Augustan poetry has too often been thought of as uniform staidly classical even dull Margaret Doody explodes this myth once and for all She shows it to be poetry of great energy and diversity of extravagant conceits subversive parody incessant stylistic and formal experimentation a self consciously innovative poetry that sought to express and extend the perpetual restless activity of the human mind Both the principles and techniques of the verse are related to similar elements in the novels of the period the book s numerous illustrations help to show how the poems were presented and interpreted in their own time
