The Expo celebration ,1986      Port Alberni Jan Peterson,2014-05-08 Any community that has ever been labelled a mill town carries both the promise of prosperity and the constant threat of collapse its fortune hinging on a single industry whose performance is as much related to the whims of a global economy as it is to the abundance of a key natural resource The people of Port Alberni located deep in Vancouver Island s Alberni Valley know all too well the highs and lows that come with such a label Jan Peterson who lived in Port Alberni for two of the town s most tumultuous decades and worked as a reporter for the Alberni Valley Times describes how the town s people persevered through three decades of boom and bust developed a vibrant arts and sporting community and strived to make life better under any circumstances From the prosperous 1970s when Port Alberni earned the reputation of forestry capital of Canada to the decline of the industry in the 1980s when economic uncertainty signalled a need for diversification to the environmental protests in nearby Clayoquot Sound which polarized the community Port Alberni tells the town s story from a perspective that is rarely heard Through fascinating interviews and meticulous historical research Peterson captures the heart and soul of a town so often defined by dollars and cents      World's Fair ,1982      The Canadian Who's who ,2001      Quill & Quire ,1988      B C Studies ,1986

Fienberg,2012-12-06 The International Statistical Institute was founded in 1885 and is therefore one of the world s oldest international scientific societies The field of statistics is still expanding rapidly and possesses a rich variety of applications in many areas of human activity such as science government business industry and everyday affairs In consequence the celebration of the Institute s centenary in 1985 is of considerable interest not only to statisticians but also more widely to the international scientific community As part of its centennial celebration planning the Institute decided to publish a volume of papers representing the immensely wide range of interests encompassed by statistics in its international context viewed both from a historical and from a contemporary standpoint We were fortunate in securing the services of Anthony Atkinson and Stephen Fienberg as Editors of this volume they have worked hard over a period of several years to put together a most fascinating collection of papers On behalf of the Institute it is my pleasant duty to thank them and the authors for their contributions J DURBIN President International Statistical Institute Preface The papers in this volume were prepared to help celebrate the centenary of the International Statistical Institute During the ISI s first 100 years statistics has matured both as a scientific discipline and as a profession in ways that the ISI s founders could not possibly have imagined      Marketing Modernism in Fin-de-Siècle Europe Robert Jensen,2022-02-08 In this fundamental rethinking of the rise of modernism from its beginnings in the Impressionist movement Robert Jensen reveals that market discourses were pervasive in the ideological defense of modernism from its very inception and that the avant garde actually thrived on the commercial appeal of anti commercialism at the turn of the century The commercial success of modernism he argues depended greatly on possession of historical legitimacy The very development of modern art was inseparable from the commercialism many of its proponents sought to transcend Here Jensen explores the economic aesthetic institutional and ideological factors that led to its dominance in the international art world by the early 1900s He emphasizes the role of the emerging dealer gallery market and of modernist art historiographies in evaluating modern art and legitimizing it through the formation of a canon of modernist masters In describing the canon building of modern dealerships Jensen considers the new ideological dealer and explores the commercial construction of artistic identity through such rhetorical concepts as temperament and independent art and through such institutional structures as the retrospective His inquiries into the fate of the juste milieu a group of dissidents who saw themselves as true heirs of Impressionism and his look at a new form of art history emerging in Germany further expose a linear dealer oriented history of modernist art constructed by or through the modernists themselves Studio,1994 Expo 67 and Its World Craig Moyes,Steven Palmer,2022-06-17 In 1967 Montreal hosted Man and His World Terre des hommes By far the most successful cultural event ever produced in Canada it was embraced by the public at the same time as intellectuals from Marshall McLuhan to Umberto Eco hailed it as a new type of exhibition for a new global age Because it was held where and when it was on a man made archipelago in the St Lawrence River seven years into Quebec's Quiet Revolution Expo 67 also provided a prism through which the idea of the nation could be refracted and recast in original ways Misunderstood by some scholars as an expensive exercise in official patriotism while maligned by Quebec intellectuals as a crypto federalist distraction from the real business of national independence the fair nevertheless showcased Montreal as the de facto capital of a suddenly modern Quebec engaging with a late modern world Expo 67 and Its World proposes a reappraisal of the 1967 Montreal International and Universal Exhibition across a range of political social and cultural spaces from the dispossession of Indigenous Peoples and what was then known as the Third World through the aspirations of Montreal Quebec and Canada to the increasingly global ambit of youth culture medicine film and finance A new approach to understanding Expo 67 the collection challenges assumptions about the significance of the event to Canadian Qu b cois and First Nations history Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner,Mary F.
