Nkhoma, 2021-10-29 The first four essays in Mission in Malawi reassess the meaning nature and place of mission in a postmodern world Subsequent essays examine various issues that missionaries and the Church in Malawi have and continue to struggle with These range from the problem of administering church discipline the challenge of Bible translation the question of how to deal with corruption in the corridors of power to the challenges of dealing with initiation rites HIV AIDS patriarchy gender inequality the exercise of the Church s prophetic role lack of contextualized theology and the difficult task of creating an inclusive church and society The last three essays are an attempt to describe a contextual theology appropriate for the African church construct a theology for Malawi and project a future for mission in Malawi in the context of a changing world These essays offer a rare window into the life and struggles of the Malawian Church even as it faces the postmodern future The essays are not only informative but also challenging and thought provoking Scholars students and other readers who share an interest in mission and the life of the Church in Malawi will find this collection of essays indispensable in the many years to come      Called and Empowered Murray W. Dempster, Byron D. Klaus, Douglas Petersen, 1991-10-01 An unprecedented mix of pentecostal theology and mission practice virtually a manifesto for pentecostal missions The fullest and finest missiological treatise originating within classical Pentecostalism available Russell P Spittler      The Craft of Church Planting Christian Selvaratnam, 2022-06-30 Drawing on insights from the training practices of the English medieval craft guilds a global survey of 500 church planters interviews with artists and church planting trainers and the authors 30 years of ministry experience The Craft of Church Planting offers a distinctive and imaginative perspective on the methods used to train future practitioners in the art of church planting Demonstrating how training for the next generation of church planting leaders might be informed by the historic master apprentice model guild learning communities creativity and an artisan approach to ministry this book is a vital resource to inform the methods of training for the next generation of church planters     TEE for the 21st Century David Burke,Richard Brown,Qaiser Julius,2021-09-14 Theological education is at a global crossroads Although many traditional programmes struggle to maintain student enrolment today s environment gives exciting opportunities to serve the global church in ways that are multi level accessible and educationally effective TEE for the 21st Century utilizes missiological educational and sociological perspectives to explore theological education by extension TEE as a powerful contemporary tool for equipping the global church for its global mission Multi authored by a global team of discipline experts brought together by the Increase Association this book speaks to the real life training needs of today s church Addressed to leaders teachers and practitioners it offers a robust framework for critically evaluating the impact of TEE on the formation of whole life disciples in a wide variety of contexts and locations With a proven track record across Asia Latin America and Africa TEE has a role to play in the future of the church empowering every member to fulfil their God given calling to ministry and mission     The History of Education Under Apartheid, 1948-1994 Peter Kallaway,2002     History of the Zambia Baptist Association 1905-2005 L. Frey,2020-11-17 Much good academic work has been done on the mainline churches in many African countries But less so on the smaller missions and the churches that they founded This book describes the history of one of the smaller churches the Zambia Baptist Association with its roots in Malawi 1905 and its missionary connections to England South Africa Sweden Australia and finally to the Liebenzell Mission in Germany It is thus one of the many contributions needed for the writing of a history of the Evangelical churches of Africa     Theological Education for the Mission of the Church in India, 1947-1987 Siga Arles,1991 Indian National independence and Church Union in the Church of South India both in 1947 demanded a rethinking on the part of the Indian Christians with regard to the mission of the Church in India the meaning and methods of ministry and the role of theological education This book is a study of the quest for relevance in Indian theological education during the period 1947 to 1987 This book studies concepts of mission such as the traditional evangelization and the modern participation in nation building ministry as changing from the domination of male clergy to the participation of the laity and women theological education as equipment of the whole church for wider involvement in Indian society within the context of poverty and religious pluralism It deals with the four decades of thought development and indigenous experimentations simultaneously looking at the effect of the evangelical and ecumenical division of the church s understanding of her mission and ministry in India While studying several seminaries Tamilnadu Theological Seminary is used as a case to illustrate the continuing process of the quest for relevance An extensive bibliography notes on people referred and a directory of theological colleges are additional resources in this work     Mission Foundations and other Essays S. Nkhoma,2020-07-09 The first two essays in this book examine the biblical and philosophical basis for mission in the post modern world emphasising the experiential quality of mission over against the rational Subsequent essays discuss various aspects of mission with a focus on the Malawian context They highlight the impact of missionary work on the formation shaping and developments of Malawi as a national state Other essays examine various issues in New Testament scholarship including images of the Historical Jesus and how these relate to wisdom and apocalyptic traditions Mission Theology: 1948-1975 Years of Worldwide Creative Tension Rodger Bassham, 2002-08-19 This volume seeks to be both fair and comprehensive Its critical insights do not prevent the endorsement of an ecumenical latitude consistent with our biblical faith It was written for those who are determined to listen and learn from all whom God has manifestly received and called to holistic mission in today s world Arthur Glasser Professor Fuller Theological Seminary Bassham s comprehensive study of developments in mission theology between 1948 and 1975 is the most thorough and reliable work available on the subject The book is invaluable for an understanding of the crucial issues in world mission during this turbulent period Gerald Anderson Director Overseas Ministries Study Center Bassham has written what ought to become the standard textbook for those seeking to acquire a comprehensive long range perspective on developments in missiology in recent decades Delightfully clear and simple without being simplistic the book shows the remarkable convergence of the main streams of missiological thinking Al Krass Editor The Other Side A People Reborn Christian Keysser, 1980-06-01 Written by a Lutheran missionary with 21 years of experience in New Guinea this book describes how a primitive tribe was transformed into a functioning Christian congregation The author brings together anthropology and biblical theology in providing insights into church growth and proposing an effective model of a people reborn Distance Education in the South Pacific Richard Guy, Toshio Kosuge, Rieko Hayakawa, 2000 Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education Reaching and Teaching M. David Sills, 2010-04-01 Most Christians know and understand that we are to seek to reach the lost around the world Yet Christ's command to us is more specific and calls us to a higher standard of involvement with the peoples of the world He has called the church to make disciples of all people groups and to teach them to observe all He commanded us Matthew 28:18-20 In recent years mission agencies and missionaries have increasingly shifted away from discipleship and teaching toward an emphasis upon evangelism and church planting many to the exclusion of any other field activity While evangelism and church planting are essential components of a biblical missions program they are not sufficient for the complete task to which we have been called Reaching and Teaching examines the task Christ gave in the Great Commission and redefines the task of missions from that which is currently prevalent It surveys missions strategies and methodologies that have increasingly replaced Christ's Great Commission instructions even as they have sought to fulfill it It is a clarion call to return to the biblical task of reaching and teaching the nations for Christ's sake Local Theology for the Global Church Matthew Cook, Rob Haskell, Ruth Julian, 2010-06-01 As the church in the global south continues to grow at a rapid pace the question of how to develop local theologies becomes more and more urgent This book charts a path forward through exegetical theological and cultural analysis by scholars who are wrestling with the issues in their own situations around the globe The contents were developed under the auspices of the World Evangelical Alliance Theological Commission at the Oxford contextualization consultation This book was published in partnership with the World Evangelical Alliance A History of the Ecumenical Movement Ruth Rouse, Stephen Neill, Harold Edward Fey, 1986 A History of the Ecumenical Movement, 1517-1948 Ruth Rouse, Stephen Neill, Harold Edward Fey, 1993 Tentmaking James Francis, Leslie J.
