The Face In The Shadows:

The Face in the Shadows Wendy Jane Collins, 2020-11-03 Lucy and Ben Reid and their children Jake and Emily are about to change their whole lives and move away from their family home at Primrose Hill After Ben's Great Aunt Maud dies and his parents mysteriously disappear without a trace they decide to move away to continue running Maud's shop Bartons in Frank and Janet Reid's absence Follow their journey and see how they navigate their new life living at Hilltop Manor You will meet the staff who reside there with them lots of new friends and maybe some people who are not so nice along the way Be prepared to face plenty of dramatic twists and turns throughout and when Lucy is alone in the study or so she thinks near the big bookcases and filing cabinets in the darkest corner of the room someone else joins her but there is one big question who is the face in the shadows

A Marriage of Shadows and Other Poems Margaret Veley, 1889 The Aesthetics of Shadow Daisuke Miyao, 2013-03-04 In this revealing study Daisuke Miyao explores the aesthetics of shadow in Japanese cinema in the first half of the twentieth century This term coined by the production designer Yoshino Nobutaka refers to the perception that shadows add depth and mystery Miyao analyzes how this notion became naturalized as the representation of beauty in Japanese films situating Japanese cinema within transnational film history He examines the significant roles lighting played in distinguishing the styles of Japanese film from American and European film and the ways that lighting facilitated the formulation of a coherent new Japanese cultural tradition Miyao discusses the influences of Hollywood and German cinema alongside Japanese Kabuki theater lighting traditions and the emergence of neon commercial lighting during this period He argues that lighting technology in cinema had been structured by the conflicts of modernity in Japan including capitalist transitions in the film industry the articulation of Japanese cultural and national identity and increased subjectivity for individuals By focusing on the understudied element of film lighting and treating cinematographers and lighting designers as essential collaborators in moviemaking Miyao offers a rereading of Japanese film history

Sticks, Stones, and Shadows Martin Isler, 2001 What do the pyramids of Egypt really represent What could have driven so many to so great and often so dangerous an effort Was the motivation religious or practical Illustrated with more than 300 photographs and drawings this book presents an original approach to the subject of pyramid building It reveals the connection between devices that served both a practical need for survival and a spiritual belief in gods and goddesses It examines Egyptian technologies and techniques from the origins of pyramid development to the step by step details of how the ground was leveled how the site was oriented and how the stone was raised and placed to meet at a distant point in the sky Here the author also asks and answers questions virtually ignored for the last century He discloses for example the ancient use of shadows now denigrated to the ornamental back yard sundial but once an important tool for telling the height of an object geographical directions the seasons of the year and the time of day He also reinterprets the ancient stretching of the cord ceremony which once was thought to have only religious significance but here is shown as the means of establishing the
