Prayer and Modern Man Jacques Ellul, 2012-06-11 The man of our time does not know how to pray writes the French theologian Jacques Ellul but much more than that he has neither the desire nor the need to do so He does not find the deep source of prayer within himself I am acquainted with this man I know him well It is I myself Out of this common experience the prominent social critic and former resistance leader makes a searing analysis of man's alienation from God and traces the reasons for praying or not praying With razor like statements he cuts through the weaknesses of much traditional praying and in the end offers a strong and positive program for praying in today's troubled times The Summits of Modern Man
