Deadly Agenda Jeffrey Lee SHANNON, 2009-04-23 For twenty six years James Drake Foster has been haunted by the memory of his foster sister's tragic suicide the evening of her high school graduation Only he knows why she took her own life Now a successful private investigator and predator of vulnerable affluent women ten years his senior he embarks on a mission that will not only avenge her death but will also protect her from harm in the event heaven is accepting undesirables He is confident the mission will also drive his own demons of the past from his mind The success of his agenda depends on his ability to function as two distinctly different individuals the competent and idealistic private eye and a psychopathic serial killer Four months and six bodies later mission accomplished Not quite Suddenly his agenda is derailed

Blue Angel Nadine Monaco, 2016-01-15 Physical therapist Jennifer Wade is unable to put the pieces of her life back together again after her Navy pilot fianc dies in a plane accident Flyer Paul Davis her fianc s best friend feels responsible for the tragedy When Jennifer and Paul must work together two years after the accident they are stunned by their mutual attraction They share a pained past yet their current chemistry is undeniable But this is a relationship that cannot be Jennifer needs stability for herself and her deceased fianc s baby and Paul must focus on getting fit and back in the cockpit When Paul is offered the position of his dreams they both need to decide if love can ever be enough The Amateur Photographer & Photography, 1927 James Jones Willie Morris, 1978 He also recounts Jones s race against the clock to finish Whistle the culmination of his World War II trilogy which Morris himself completed after his friend s death in 1977 BOOK JACKET The New York Times Magazine, 1996 The Descendants of John Grant and Mary Sabeen George Allen Grant M.A., 2023-12-11 In Nova Scotia the focus of study about Scottish settlers including the Grants has been on the eastern counties of the province and on Cape Breton Island In the United States when Grants are mentioned a significant concern seems to be to find a genealogical or DNA link to Ulysses Grant No one has seriously examined and written about the Grant families of southwestern Nova Scotia That leaves a space for me to act in and to develop a narrative history of a family founded in the soil strengthened by the forest and challenged by the sea environments that comprise the fundamental essence of Nova Scotia And so my passion has been to tell the story of my family and their relatives in southwestern Nova Scotia and to follow the paths of many of them to New England especially to Massachusetts This study will fulfill an implicit task left to me by my Aunt Ruth Dexter That is the essence of why I have spent so much of my retirement on this task But there is more to come as I follow suggestive clues left by my ancestors or seek to overcome brick walls that stump every genealogist from time to time When I began this project my aim was simply To collate and present a family history of the line descending from John Grant and Mary Sabeen to myself If I had stayed within that framework this book would have been much shorter and less interesting As it turns out there are many fascinating aspects to our story Not only will you read about the hard working and courageous children of John and Mary but you will follow them and their offspring as they find love and marriage sometimes with close or distant cousins You will ride or sail with them as they migrate within Nova Scotia and outward to New England You will wonder at their expressions of faith and sense their hidden internal conflict as they make religious choices based on factors we can only imagine spirituality simplicity availability or energetic missionaries reflected in obituaries burial sites or their answers to census questions You will share their sorrow at the deaths of loved ones through accident disease suicide loss at sea or in the service of their country in war particularly in World War I You will learn of their varied occupations trades and professions from farming fishing and forestry to shoemaking carpentry and sailing nursing and teaching You will join them as they strive to become master mariners volunteer in their churches train young women with the YWCA in China or succor the sick and wounded with the Red Cross in Siberia follow them south to Boston and the Caribbean east to Europe and across the Pacific to Asia Only then you will come to understand why at its core my passion has been to be the voice of my direct ancestors and extended family within a defined framework of time and place to record their activities where sources allow in essence to be the story they could not write
