Legend Tripping Lynne S. McNeill,Elizabeth Tucker,2018-11-30 Legend Tripping A Contemporary Legend Casebook explores the practice of legend tripping wherein individuals or groups travel to a site where a legend is thought to have taken place Legend tripping is a common informal practice depicted in epics stories novels and film throughout both contemporary and historical vernacular culture In this collection contributors show how legend trips can express humanity s interest in the frontier between life and death and the fascination with the possibility of personal contact with the supernatural or spiritual. The volume presents both insightful research and useful pedagogy making this an invaluable resource in the classroom. Selected major articles on legend tripping with introductory sections written by the editors are followed by discussion questions and projects designed to inspire readers to engage critically with legend traditions and customs of legend tripping and to explore possible meanings and symbolics at work. Suggested projects incorporate digital technology as it appears both in legends and in modes of legend tripping. Legend Tripping is appropriate for students, general readers and folklorists alike. It is the first volume in the International Society for Contemporary Legend Research series, a set of casebooks providing thorough and up to date studies that showcase a variety of scholarly approaches to contemporary legends along with variants of legend texts, discussion questions and projects for students. Contributors: S. Elizabeth Bird, Bill Ellis, Carl Lindahl, Patricia M. Meley, Tim Prizer.

Opening Doors to a Richer English Curriculum for Ages 10 to 13 (Opening Doors series) Verity Jones, Leah Crawford, Bob Cox, 2019-10-14

Opening Doors to a Richer English Curriculum for Ages 10 to 13 takes Bob Cox's award winning Opening Doors series into bold new territories providing a treasury of techniques and strategies all carefully selected to support the design of a deeper, more creative and more expansive curriculum. Together with Leah Crawford and Verity Jones, Bob has compiled this rich resource to help teachers enhance their learners' engagement with challenging texts and develop their writing skills as budding wordsmiths. It includes 15 ready to use units of work covering a range of inspiring poetry and prose from across the literary tradition, complete with vivid illustrations by Victoria Cox. Bob, Leah and Verity's innovative ideas on theory, best practice and how to cultivate a pioneering classroom spirit are all integrated into the lesson suggestions which have been designed for both the teacher's and the learners' immediate benefit. Together they empower teachers to explore with their learners the scope and depth of literature capable of inspiring high standards and instilling a love of language in its many forms. Furthermore, they help teachers to lay down intricate curricular pathways that will prompt their pupils to better enjoy literature, read and analyse texts with a greater sense of curiosity and write with more originality. The book includes a great range of texts, both as the core of each unit and as link reading, incorporating some contemporary texts to show how past and present co-exist and how various literary styles can be taught using similar principles, all of which are open to further adaptation. The authors have also suggested key concepts around which the curriculum can be built, with the units providing examples with which you can work. All of the extracts and illustrations you will need in order to begin opening doors in your classroom are downloadable, and the book also includes a helpful glossary of key terms.
