Cefalu, G. Kuchar, B. Reynolds, 2014-10-14 This companion volume to The Return of Theory in Early Modern English Studies Tarrying with the Subjunctive exemplifies the new directions in which the field is going as well as the value of crossing disciplinary boundaries within and beyond the humanities Topics studied include posthumanism ecological studies and historical phenomenology Farocki/Godard Volker Pantenburg, 2025-10-01 There is a tension between the requirements of theoretical abstraction and the capacities of the film medium where everything that we see on screen is concrete A train arriving at a station a tree bodies faces Since the complex theories of montage in Soviet cinema however there have continuously been attempts to express theoretical issues by combining shots thus creating a visual form of thinking This book brings together two major filmmakers French New Wave master Jean Luc Godard and German avant gardist Harun Farocki to explore the fundamental tension between theoretical abstraction and the capacities of film itself a medium where everything seen onscreen is necessarily concrete Volker Pantenburg shows how these two filmmakers explored the potential of combined shots and montage to create film as theory Feverland Alex Lemon, 2017-09-11 Alex Lemon is a brave headlong writer and he captures the life of the body with vivid and memorable intensity Mark Doty Brain surgery Assault weapons in the bed of a pickup truck Sophia Loren at the Oscars Rilke Rodin and the craters of the moon Recovery and disintegration Monkeys stealing an egg outside a temple in Kathmandu Brushing teeth bloody on long car rides under blue skies Pain ours and what we bring to others Wildfires in southern California Rats in Texas Childhood abuse Dreams of tigers and blackout nights The sweetness of mangoes A son born into a shadowy hospital room Love Joy In Feverland Alex Lemon has created a fragmented exploration of what it means to be a man in the tumult of twenty first century America and a harrowing associative memoir about how we live with the beauties and horrors of our pasts How to move forward Lemon asks when trapped between the demons of one's history and the angels of one's better nature How to live in kindness to become a caring partner and parent when one can muster very little such tenderness for oneself How to be here now How to be here good Immersed in darkness but shot through with light Feverland is a thrillingly experimental memoir from one of our most heartfelt and inventive writers The Individual without Passions Elena Pulcini, 2012-08-09 The Individual without Passions Modern Individualism and the Loss of the Social

Bond offers an innovative look at an extremely timely and important issue individualism from the point of view of a theory of passions This book underlines the importance of the problem of the passions in both forming individual identity and building the social bond Drawing inspiration from classic authors that represent fundamental milestones along the route of modern individualism from Montaigne to Hobbes from Locke to Smith from Rousseau to Tocqueville The Individual without Passions puts forward new hypotheses that contrast with the consolidated views of contemporary reflection both modern and postmodern Elena Pulcini argues that passions are crucial not only when they are strong homo oeconomicus but also when absent or weak homo democraticus in both cases producing pathological effects on the Self and the social bond Finally this book underlines that the image of the modern individual does not end with the egoistical passions and that it is possible to reactivate empathetic and solidaristic passions furthermore it proposes the hypothesis that the solidaristic passions go to fight the egoistical passions This hypothesis seems confirmed and is most evident in the phenomenon of the gift as interpreted by Marcel Mauss and his contemporary heirs the hidden testimony of a desire for belonging which enables us to propose a new figure of the individual homo reciprocus

Essaying Montaigne John O'Neill, 2001-05-01 John O'Neill reads Montaigne's Essays from their central principle of friendship as a communicative and pedagogical practice operative in society literature and politics The friendship between Montaigne and La Boétie was ruled neither by plenitude nor lack but by a capacity for recognition and transitivity As an essayist Montaigne is an exemplary practitioner of a technique of difference and recognition that puts all certainties of history philosophy and culture in the balance of weighted comparison The essayist reveals how every absolute subjectivity or authority is shaken by its internal weakness once we move inside the contrastive structure of domination in politics gender and race O'Neill's reading of the Essays strives to be faithful to the phenomenology of their embodied practices of reading to write to re-read and re-write From this standpoint he engages the principal critical readings of the Essays over the last century that have examined with great brilliance their history structure and psychology Whether the structure is evolutionary structuralist Marxist or psychoanalytical O'Neill provides close readings of Montaigne's literary critics By bringing to bear the ethico-critical practice of essaying to resist the subjection of the Essays to dominant criticism O'Neill reminds readers that Montaigne's appeal is in how he survived bloody cultural war with a balance of modesty and tolerance invoking compromise where others practice violence

Face Jessica Helfand, 2019-11-12 An elaborately illustrated A to Z of the face from historical mugshots to Instagram posts By turns alarming and awe-inspiring Face offers up an elaborately illustrated A to Z from the didactic anthropometry of the late nineteenth century to the selfie-obsessed zeitgeist of the twenty-first Jessica Helfand looks at the cultural significance of the face through a critical lens both as social currency and as palimpsest of history Investigating everything from historical mugshots to Instagram posts she examines how the face has been perceived and represented over time how it has been instrumentalized by others and how we have reclaimed it for our own purposes From vintage advertisements for a nose adjuster to contemporary artists who reconsider the visual construction of race Face delivers an intimate yet kaleidoscopic adventure while posing universal questions about identity

Myths of Renaissance Individualism J. Martin,2016-02-05 The idea that the Renaissance witnessed the emergence of the modern individual remains a powerful myth In this important new book Martin examines the Renaissance self with attention to both social history and literary theory and offers a new typology of Renaissance selfhood which was at once collective performative and porous At the same time he stresses the layered qualities of the Renaissance self and the salient role of interiority and notions of inwardness in the shaping of identity Myths of Renaissance Individualism in short will interest students not only of history but also of art history literature music philosophy psychology and religion Woolf and the City Elizabeth F. Evans, Sarah E. Cornish, 2010 Edited collection from acclaimed contemporary Woolf scholars focusing on urban issues These include addressing the ethical and political implications of Virginia Woolf s work a move that suggests new insights into Woolf as a real world social critic
