The European Defence Initiative Geoffrey Lee Williams, 1986-06-18      The Strategic Defense Initiative Ralph L. Dietl, 2018-08-15 The Nuclear and Space Talks revolutionized arms control The Cold War endgame commenced with the umbrella negotiations that linked START and INF negotiations to a regulation on the weaponization of space This volume reveals a US grand strategy to replace deterrence with a collective security order An entente of the superpowers was needed to transform bipolarity The US planned the replacement of mutually assured destruction by mutually assured security A global astrodome was to protect a nuclear disarmed world The Franco German special relationship in European affairs had to be amended by a US SU special relationship to replace classic bloc politics The Reagan Administration planned a global zero agenda a joint development of a global protective system and a creation of a Common House of Europe In brief the superpowers prepared the velvet revolution that eliminated the Cold War structures Neither containment nor convergence offers a valid explanation of the Cold War endgame Co creation is the key to decipher the end of the Cold War NATO Europe challenged the transformation of bipolarity The European NWS resisted to a multilateralization of strategic arms control In Europe the classic Cold War thinking survived the fall of the Iron Curtain European conservatism contributed to the geopolitical catastrophe of the first order the downfall of the Soviet Union The Reagan Administration developed a Grand Strategy to end the Cold War The US SU co creation of an astrodome was meant to ease a global zero agenda A global collective security structure under the United Nations was to replace deterrence The superpower project collapsed due to the penetration of US decision making by NATO Allies The European NWS totally objected to a multilateralization of strategic arms control to preserve their relative position in the international system      The Dynamics of European Security Cooperation, 1945-91 Gülnur Aybet, 2016-01-12 This is the first integrated analysis of all aspects of security cooperation in western Europe from 1945 to 1991 It provides an accessible yet sophisticated survey of the wider dynamics of security cooperation in each decade throughout this period It covers all aspects of security cooperation which range from the political such as a European voice in arms control to military such as a European input into NATO strategy and economic involving collaboration in defence technology and production      Nato and the Transatlantic Alliance in the Twenty-First Century G. Williams, B. Jones, 2001-03-13 This book examines the nature of international politics in the twentieth century It encapsulates those essential and enduring features likely to be present in the twenty first century One important feature is the friction generated by nation states attempting to coexist in a still largely unequal and hierarchical system of states The possible impact of three powerful simultaneous and intersecting revolutions on international relations and the future of NATO is assessed in relation to the twenty first century      Labour's Decline and the Social Democrats' Fall Geoffrey Lee Williams, 1989-06-01 This book traces the decline of the Labour Party's popularity and the development of the Social Democratic party The authors have also written Crisis in European Defence and The European Defence Initiative Europe's

Bid for Equality      A European Security Architecture after the Cold War G. Aybet, 2000-06-05 A European Security Architecture after the Cold War provides a critical account of the re projection and redefinition of Western values and security institutions in the post Coldwar era This transformation is explored in three stages The first stage covers the period 1990 91 and explains the preservation of a western security community inherited from the Cold War through a process of institutional reconstruction largely carried out on paper The second stage from 1991 to 1992 sees the incorporation of a purpose for these institutions as a framework for the implementation of collective security The third stage explores the emerging questions of legitimacy surrounding the new tasks of these institutions as they become embroiled in the war in the former Yugoslavia The precedents of legitimate intervention in upholding democracy free markets and human rights in the post coldwar era are examined from the perspectives of international law and Gramscian derived concepts of legitimacy focusing on the acceptance of military power by civil society and how intervention in these terms becomes a cultural practice
