The Changing

Organisation and Management of Local Government Steve Leach,Kieron Walsh,John Stewart,1994-09-19 Local government organisation and management in Britain is in the throes of a major transformation brought about by changing economic social and political circumstances and central government legislation This book outlines the major pressures for change and analyses and assesses local government s response in terms of role culture structure and internal process Particular attention is paid to the consequences of new decentralised competitive regulatory and enabling models of what local authorities should be like in the mid 1990s

Capacity Building in Developing and Emerging Countries Elie

Chrysostome,2019-07-16 This book explores new perspectives on how to improve the chances of success regarding capacity building in developing and emerging countries Drawing on lessons learned in the course of six decades of capacity building research and practice it identifies the required conditions for the success of capacity building efforts and suggests that a radical change in mindset has become a critical aspect in developing countries In addition the book discusses capacity building in connection with entrepreneurship especially female entrepreneurship transnational diaspora remittances and combating corruption which it considers to be essential drivers of sustainable development in developing and emerging countries The book s contributing authors represent the leading minds in capacity building research and practice and include researchers from prestigious universities in North America Europe and Africa as well as international development experts from institutions such as the International Monetary Fund IMF the World Bank African Development Bank and African Capacity Building Foundation All authors have considerable expertise regarding capacity building issues and represent 26 emerging and developing countries in Africa Asia the Middle East Caribbean Islands North America and Europe Local Governance in Industrial Countries Anwar Shah,2006 The information revolution in recent years has worked as a catalyst to create a globalized yet localized world with local governments playing an ever increasing role in the domestic and global economy How these governments will be able to shoulder their responsibilities especially the delivery of local services more effectively is the concern of this book The book edited by Anwar Shah provides a comparative perspective on international practices in local governance and draws lessons from these experiences to guide future reform Case studies include the following countries Argentina B Managing Local Government Kimberly L. Nelson,Carl W. Stenberg,2025-06-24 Managing Local Government An Essential Guide for Municipal and County Managers 2nd Edition covers the basics of the local government management curriculum with a regional approach that examines the local governmental structural forms administrative functions and financial considerations inherent to the metropolitan environment To prepare the next generation of local leaders authors Kimberly Nelson and Carl Stenberg incorporate real life scenarios case studies and class discussion questions to help students understand contemporary issues Proceedings of the International Conference of Public Administration and Governance (ICoPAG 2022) Firda Hidayati,Niken Lastiti Veri Anggaini,Fadillah Putra,Muhammad Chazienul Ulum,2023-07-25 This is an open access book The role of administrative science in the management of public sector organizations and the business sector is crucial Accordingly it must be able to create science based contributions in the disruption time caused by the current pandemic Since a lot of challenges arise in administrative science due to this pandemic such as physical restrictions digitization of services and also loss of economic resources need some change and adaptation in the practise of public administration Various important discussions and research in public administration on pandemics have achieved many things starting from the impact of the pandemic in various sectors organizational adaptation strategies policy implementation and evaluation policy best practices for resilience but among that good work much is still needed One of them is public discussion forums that are able to provide inspiration and solutions to various problems in this new normal era Therefore the Master of Public Administration program organize an international seminars and conferences entitled Globalization and the Challenges of Public Administration in the Post Covid 19 amid intense geopolitical competition The whole series of virtual international seminar and conference is open to students lecturers researchers policy makers and practitioners who are interested in issues related to Administrative Science to share their work and ideas Participants will present their paper work in English Non presenting participants are allowed to choose discussion groups according to their respective interests and thus the seminar will be a good opportunity to receive feedback for the presented papers and stay informed about trends and research agendas in the field Agile Government: Emerging Perspectives In Public

Management Melodena Stephens Balakrishnan, Raed Awamleh, Fadi Salem, 2022-04-07 The governments of today are not able to transform and adapt to changes in the world around them as demanded by their constituents The nature of work value of public goods and the constant bombardment of crises are making the old bureaucratic structures obsolete Agile Government is an emerging theme that of government wide reinvention for adaptiveness and responsiveness It places the accountability delivery capture design and creation of public value at the heart of the government The concept of agile government is confused with terms like Agile Manifesto agile governance agility among others and because of this needs some unpacking This book is a deep dive into this topic It offers insights from the theoretical development of the topic of agile government some lessons from government practices around the world and ongoing academic and policy research The project is spearheaded by the Mohammed Bin Rashid School of Government which is the first teaching and research institution in the Arab world focusing on public policy and governance

Japan's Emerging Youth Policy Tuukka Hannu Ilmari Toivonen, 2013 From the 1960s onwards Japan's rapid economic growth coincided with remarkably smooth transitions from school to work and with internationally low levels of youth unemployment However this changed dramatically in the 1990s and by the 2000s youth employment came to be recognized as a serious concern requiring an immediate response What shape did this response take Japan's Emerging Youth Policy is the first book to investigate in detail how the state experts the media as well as youth workers have reacted to the troubling rise of youth joblessness in early 21st century Japan The answer that emerges is as complex as it is fascinating but comprises two essential elements First instead of institutional carrots and sticks as seen in Europe actors belonging to mainstream Japan have deployed controversial labels such as NEET Not in Education Employment or Training to steer inactive youth into low wage jobs A second approach has been crafted by entrepreneurial youth support leaders that builds on what the author refers to as communities of recognition As illustrated in this book using evidence from real sites of youth support one such methodology consists of exploring the user i.e. the support receiver whereby complex disadvantages family relationships and local employment contexts are skilfully negotiated It is this second dimension in Japan's response to youth exclusion that suggests sustainable internationally attractive solutions to the employment dilemmas that virtually all post industrial nations currently face but which none have yet seriously addressed Based on extensive fieldwork that draws on both sociological and policy science approaches this book will be welcomed by students scholars and practitioners in the fields of Japanese and East Asian studies comparative social policy youth sociology the sociology of social problems and social work
