Topics covered include poetry basics for singers, exercises for singers in working with poetry, insights into composers' musical settings of poetry, building recital programs, performance suggestions, and recommended literature for college and university classical voice majors. The three appendices address further aspects of poetry: guidelines for creating a recital program and representative classical voice recitals of various descriptions. Art Song: Linking Poetry and Music is extremely useful as an unofficial text for college/university vocal literature classes, as an excellent resource for singers and voice teachers, and of interest to all those who are fascinated by the rich legacy of the art song genre. Notes, Music Library Association, 2002. The Singer's Repertoire, Part IV, Berton Coffin, Werner Singer, 2005-11-18. Songwriters of the American Musical Theatre, Nathan Hurwitz, 2016-09-01. From the favorites of Tin Pan Alley to today's international blockbusters, the stylistic range required of a musical theatre performer is expansive. Musical theatre roles require the ability to adapt to a panoply of characters and vocal styles. By breaking down these styles and exploring the output of the great composers, Songwriters of the American Musical Theatre offers singers and performers an essential guide to the modern musical. Composers from Gilbert and Sullivan and Irving Berlin to Alain Boublil and Andrew Lloyd Webber are examined through a brief biography, a stylistic overview, and a comprehensive song list with notes on suitable voice types and further reading. This volume runs the gamut of modern musical theatre from English light opera through the American Golden Age up to the mega-musicals of the late Twentieth Century, giving today's students and performers an indispensable survey of their craft.
