William Gifford the young Samuel Taylor Coleridge and his circle Elizabeth Barrett Browning's Sonnets from the Portuguese George Meredith's Modern Love Dante Gabriel Rossetti's House of Life and Augusta Webster's Mother and Daughter As women became a force to be reckoned with among the reading public and the writing community the term sonnet often operated as a satirical label that was not restricted to poetry adhering to the strict formalities of the genre Van Remoortel's study in its attentiveness to the sonnet's feminization during the late eighteenth century offers important insights into the ways in which changing attitudes about gender and genre shaped critics' interpretations of the reception histories of nineteenth-century sonnet sequences
