Latham,Alyson J. O'Daniel,2017-10-03 As scholars have by now long contended global neoliberalism and the violence associated with state restructuring provide key frameworks for understanding flows of people across national boundaries and eventually into the treacherous terrains of the United States borderlands The proposed volume builds on this tradition of situating migration and migrant death within broad systems level frameworks of analysis but contends that there is another perhaps somewhat less tidy but no less important sociopolitical story to be told here Through examination of how forensic scientists define navigate and enact their work at the frontiers of US policy and economics this book joins a robust body of literature dedicated to bridging social theory with bioarchaeological applications to modern day problems This volume is based on deeply and critically reflective analyses submitted by individual scholars wherein they navigate and position themselves as social actors embedded within and perhaps partially constituted by relations of power cultural ideologies and the social structures characterizing this moment in history Each contribution addresses a different variation on themes of power relations production of knowledge and reflexivity in practice In sum however the chapters of this book trace relationships between institutions entities and individuals comprising the landscapes of migrant death and repatriation and considers their articulation with sociopolitical dynamics of the neoliberal state Design with the Desert Richard

Malloy, John Brock, Anthony Floyd, Margaret Livingston, Robert H. Webb, 2016-04-19 Typical development in the American Southwest often resulted in scraping the desert lands of the ancient living landscape to be replaced with one that is human made and dependent on a large consumption of energy and natural resources This transdisciplinary book explores the natural and built environment of this desert region and introduces development tools for shaping its future in a more sustainable way It offers valuable insights to help promote ecological balance between nature and the built environment in the American Southwest and in other ecologically fragile regions around the world Leave Only Footprints Conor Knighton, 2021-04-06 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A delightful sampler plate of our national parks written with charisma and erudition Nick Offerman author of Paddle Your Own Canoe From CBS Sunday Morning correspondent Conor Knighton a behind the scenery look at his year traveling to each of America s National Parks discovering the most beautiful places and most interesting people our country has to offer NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY OUTSIDE When Conor Knighton set off to explore America s best idea he worried the whole thing could end up being his worst idea A broken engagement and a broken heart had left him longing for a change of scenery but the plan he d cooked up in response had gone a bit overboard in that department Over the course of a single year Knighton would visit every national park in the country from Acadia to Zion In Leave Only Footprints Knighton shares informative and entertaining dispatches from what turned out to be the road trip of a lifetime Whether he s waking up early for a naked scrub in a historic bathhouse in Arkansas or staying up late to stargaze along our loneliest highway in Nevada Knighton weaves together the type of stories you re not likely to find in any guidebook Through his unique lens America the Beautiful becomes America the Captivating the Hilarious and the Inspiring Along the way he identifies the threads that tie these wildly different places together and that tie us to nature and reveals how his trip ended up changing his views on everything from God and love to politics and technology Filled with fascinating tidbits about our parks past and reflections on their fragile future this book is both a celebration of and a passionate case for the natural wonders that all Americans share Encyclopedia of Deserts Michael A.
