Sos Save Our Schools:

SOS, 1989      Save Our Schools Ralph E. Robinson, Barbara A. Beswick, 2000-09 Work dedicated to educating each child appropriately and identifying at risk youngsters by Grade Two and salvaging them by Grade Eight      Reimagining Development in Southeast Asia Jose Monfred C. Sy, Ananeza P. Aban, 2025-03-15 This volume consolidates chapters from across Southeast Asia as a means of discussing alternative development pathways It presents radical re imaginings of how development might look considered alongside the growing disillusionment over mainstream development models In suggesting alternative models of development it reframes participatory processes from the developing world discussing practices of decolonization anti capitalism plurality anti racism effacing patriarchy and ecological sustainability designed and executed by grassroot communities and civil society organisations CSOs The grassroots and social movement paradigms highlighted in this collection seek to challenge and change the dominant model of development instituted in ASEAN which have largely failed in meaningfully addressing the issues faced by different sectors That the book project springs from an engagement between scholars and on the ground practitioners means that several chapters combine reflective case based viewpoints To this end the book is relevant to scholars students and practitioners working in areas related to Southeast Asian politics economy and culture      Violence in the Schools DIANE Publishing Company, 1995-07 The only national survey that asks school districts what steps they taking to make schools safer and to prevent violence This is the 4th publication outlining the Best Practices in school districts Provides local school board members with information about how other school districts are responding to the epidemic of violence Contains tables      Conference Before the United States Commission on Civil Rights United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1961      Conference Before the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, 1961      Conference Before the United States Commission on Civil Rights,      Politics, Race, and Schools Joseph Watras, 2013-11-26 First Published in 1997 Focusing on a case study from the civil rights movement the author illuminates the issues and problems that emerge when schools are used to advance social equality He examines the political controversies surrounding the racial desegregation of public and private schools in Dayton over a 40 year period during which the city initiated several nationally recognized programs to overcome segregation The book also discusses racial integration in public and religious schools in different parts of the United States during that time It describes experiences in public schools Catholic schools and private schools covering individually guided education ethnic studies magnet schools compensatory education and the New Futures Program funded by a private foundation The text is innovative in its survey of the relationships between city administrators public school officials and Catholic and private school educators It also provides important analysis of how curriculum changes have affected desegregation and examines the role of private philanthropies in education      School and Community, 1981      Our Minds on Freedom Shannon Frystak, 2009-12 Our Minds on Freedom examines the role of women as organizers and leaders in the black struggle for equality in Louisiana

Using gender as a basic organizing principle in combination with other systems of inequality race and class it challenges the notion that men led women organized and places female activism regardless of gendered expectations at the center The author concludes that women were not passive participants in the Louisiana civil rights movement but leaders and heroines in their own right

Defending Public Education from Corporate Takeover Todd Alan Price, John Duffy, Tania Giordani, 2012-12-19 At this moment schools are doing everything they can to win the Race to the Top They are allocating their funding to test preparation ridding beloved teachers and transferring students who drag down their grade average on the state report card This book describes the current state of the education system in the United States Readers will be on the front lines of the protests in Madison in the inner city public turned charter schools and in the shoes of the teachers dealing with educational politics every day By the end of this text you may beg the question who's winning in the Race to the Top

Changing Australian Education Alan Reid, 2020-07-28 Australian education policy for the past 40 years has been heading in the wrong direction and is entirely unsuitable for preparing young people for the 21st century Exaggeration Sadly not For a teacher there is nothing more exhilarating than encouraging young people to realise the power of learning But in our schools today teachers spend so much time preparing their students for high stakes tests gathering data and filling in forms that many of them feel like the life has been squeezed out of their role Schooling has been turned into a market and school leaders are forced to spend precious time and resources competing with other schools Their professional experience is disregarded as policy makers turn to the corporate world and self appointed commentators to determine curriculum and school funding The outcome Our schooling system is becoming more segregated children from poorer backgrounds are falling behind public schools are starved of funds and good teachers are leaving One of the most highly regarded educational leaders in Australia Alan Reid argues it's time to reconsider the purposes of education the capacities we need for the future and the strategies that will get us there He outlines a new narrative for Australian schooling that is futures focused and prizes flexibility adaptability collaboration and agility with students teachers and school communities at centre stage A provocative and persuasive argument for the necessity of a new narrative for Australian schooling so as to meet better the demonstrable demands of the twenty first century Emeritus Professor Bob Lingard The University of Queensland At the heart of the book is a penetrating critique of neoliberalism and the damaging effects it is having on education and society It should be essential reading for policy makers educators parents and anyone interested in the current state of Australian education

Professor Barry Down Murdoch University Durham County Jean Bradley Anderson, 1990 In this broad sweeping history of Durham County Jean Bradley Anderson begins with a discussion of the geography climate and geology of the region from the seventeenth century to 1981 its centennial year This remarkably comprehensive work moves beyond traditional local histories that focus on powerful families Rather Anderson integrates the stories of well known figures with those of ordinary men and women blacks and whites to create a complex but fascinating portrait of Durham's economic political social and labor history Drawing on extensive primary research Durham County examines the origins of the town of Durham and recounts the growth of communities around mills stores taverns and churches in the century preceding the rise of tobacco manufacturing It examines all phases of life in the county agriculture architecture the arts education industry politics and religion Anderson pays particular attention to such turning points as the coming of the railroad the Confederate surrender at the Bennett Place the war s connection to the rise and flourishing of the tobacco industry the move to Durham of Trinity College the development of the Research Triangle Park and the subsequent rise of the health service and high tech industries

S.O.S., Save Our Schools, Save Our State Ernest M. Bernal,Northern Arizona University. Center for Excellence in Education,1989 Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ,1996 The Best of Enemies, Movie Edition Osha Gray Davidson,2018-11-12 C P Ellis grew up in the poor white section of Durham North Carolina and as a young man joined the Ku Klux Klan Ann Atwater a single mother from the poor black part of town quit her job as a household domestic to join the civil rights fight During the 1960s as the country struggled with the explosive issue of race Ellis and Atwater met on opposite sides of the public school integration issue Their encounters were charged with hatred and suspicion In an amazing set of transformations however each of them came to see how the other had been exploited by the South s rigid power structure and they forged a friendship that flourished against a backdrop of unrelenting bigotry Now a major motion picture The Best of Enemies offers a vivid portrait of a relationship that defied all odds View the movie trailer here <https://youtu.be/eKM6fSTsA0> Illinois Education ,1915 Beneath the Image of the Civil Rights Movement and Race Relations David A. Harmon,2019-05-23 This study is the story of the local Civil Rights Movement and race relations in Atlanta Georgia from 1946 to 1981 Most examinations of the Civil Rights Movement have been written from a national perspective These studies have presented local African American protest movements as part of a national campaign for civil rights that lasted approximately from 1955 the Montgomery Bus Boycott to 1968 the assassination of Dr Martin Luther King Jr In this context demonstrations in Montgomery Greensboro Albany Birmingham Selma and Memphis have been viewed as prototypical African American protest movements and milestones in this national campaign for civil rights First published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Understanding Neoliberal Rule in K-12 Schools Mark Abendroth,Brad J. Porfilio,2015-06-01 The word fundamentalism usually conjures up images of religions and their most zealous followers Much less often the word appears in connection with political economy The phrase free market gives the connotation that capitalism is freedom Neoliberalism is the rise of global free market fundamentalism It reaches into nearly every aspect of our daily lives as it seeks to dominate and eliminate the last vestiges of public domains through wanton privatization and deregulation It degrades all that is public The good news is that a global community of resistance continues to struggle against neoliberal oppression Formal and informal education entities contribute to these struggles offering visions and strategies for creating a better future The purpose of this volume is twofold Several contributors will highlight how the neoliberal agenda is impacting educational policy formation teaching and learning and relationships between K 12 schools and communities Other contributors will highlight how the global community has gradually become conscious of the ideological doctrine and how it is responsible for human suffering and misery The volume is needed because the growing body of educational research linked to exploring the impact of neoliberalism on schools and society fails to provide conceptual or historical understanding of this ideology It is also an important scholarly intervention because it provides insights as to why educators scholars and other global citizens have challenged the intrusion of market forces over life inside K 12 schools Teacher educators schoolteachers and anyone who yearns to understand what is behind the debilitating trend of commercial forces subverting humanizing educational projects would benefit from this volume Activists educators youth and scholars who seek strategies and visions for building democratic schools and a society would consider this volume essential reading
