The Epiphany Of Eagles:

The Epiphany of Eagles Randolph R. Madera, 2004-09-01 I have written a book in praise of women and I am a man Though other men share my admiration for women and my appreciation as both awareness and gratitude for what they have endured on our behalf women are owed more than this alone So with that debt as guide I wrote this book because I feel that no previous written work has ever done justice to the need that a man publicly offer to women an extended tribute for what they have offered to us My book is based upon the conviction that most women possess and have always possessed those strengths of character upon which all meaningful human progress would depend but which many of the men have yet to learn Our progress then requires that men secure for themselves those qualities that have been considered feminine to this time although they are in the end the birthright of men as well In support of this my book discusses a number of relevant issues including history television science sex and men Each of these however is introduced only in so far as it can contribute to the central purpose of this book and although that purpose is constructive by intent and gentle by virtue of its subject it necessarily includes discussion not only of woman herself but also of what opposes her The Epiphany Deception Michael

S. Holihan, 2007-02 The first novel in a new trilogy unravels the ancient shroud of evil and unmask the ominous forces preparing humanity for a powerful delusion All mankind becomes ensnared by this spectacular revelation except for those brave enough to peer behind the dark curtain and behold the truth Jerusalem, Alexandria, Rome Florentino García Martínez, Gerard P. Luttikhuisen, 2004-03-01 The present volume has been compiled by colleagues and friends as a tribute to Dr A Hilhorst the Secretary of the Journal for the Study of Judaism on the occasion of his 65th birthday Its 23 contributions by renowned international experts reflect the various interests of the honouree his approach to the Classical and Semitic languages and literatures as forming part of a continuum and his attention to the interactions between the different literary corpora Several contributions deal with the interaction of the Old Testament with later Jewish Gnostic or Christian writings others explore the influences of Greek writings within a Jewish context at the levels of philology of theological ideas of realia or of influence of literary compositions Furthermore a number of contributions centers on the interaction of Greek motives in Jewish and Christian literature whereas in several others the focus is on the Martyrium literature or on early Christian texts
