The Aesthetic of Jean Cocteau William Chapman,1955 The Theatre Esthetic of Jean Cocteau Lydia Lallas Crowson,1972 Jean Cocteau and an Aesthetic of Music Marcia Mary G. Pasquer,1967 Reader's Guide to Lesbian and Gay Studies Timothy Murphy,2013-10-18 The Reader's Guide to Lesbian and Gay Studies surveys the field in some 470 entries on individuals Adrienne Rich arts and cultural studies Dance ethics religion and philosophical issues Monastic Traditions historical figures periods and ideas Germany between the World Wars language literature and communication British Drama law and politics Child Custody medicine and biological sciences Health and Illness and psychology social sciences and education Kinsey Report The Poetic Idioms of Jean Cocteau's Art James Jackson,2024-09-23 Cocteau had an ambition many a poet has to become immortal But he perhaps more than most addressed this ambition directly in a great many of his plays poems and films This book puts the work of this elusive and compelling poet under the microscope examining how he channeled the concerns and anxieties of his age and beyond into his creations Putting aside anecdotes of his life and other biographical minutiae it turns to the creative achievements of the polymath some well known some less so to examine how he wrestles with the profound questions that concern human nature and enters into a conversation with his creative forebears on matters relating to love imagination suffering and consolation Religion and French Literature Buford Norman,1998 Cinematic Mythmaking Irving Singer,2010-09-24 Mythic themes and philosophical probing in film as an art form as seen in works of Preston Sturges Jean Cocteau Stanley Kubrick and various other filmmakers Film is the supreme medium for mythmaking The gods and heroes of mythology are both larger than life and deeply human they teach us about the world and they tell us a good story Similarly our experience of film is both distant and intimate Cinematic techniques panning tracking zooming and the other tools in the filmmaker's toolbox create a world that is unlike reality and yet realistic at the same time We are passive spectators but we also have a personal relationship with the images we are seeing In Cinematic Mythmaking Irving Singer explores the hidden and overt use of myth in various films and in general the philosophical elements of a film's meaning Mythological themes Singer writes perform a crucial role in cinematic art and even philosophy itself Singer incisively disentangles the strands of different myths in the films he discusses He finds in Preston Sturges's The Lady Eve that Barbara Stanwyck's character is not just the biblical Eve but a liberated woman of our times Eliza Doolittle in the filmed versions of Shaw's Pygmalion is not just a statue brought to life but instead a heroic woman who must survive her own dark night of the soul The protagonist of William Wyler's The Heiress and Anieszka Holland's Washington Square is both suffering Dido and an awakened Amazon Singer reads Cocteau's films including La Belle et la Bête Orphée and The Testament of Orpheus as uniquely mythological cinematic poetry He compares Kubrickian and Homeric epics and analyzes in depth the self-referential mythmaking of Federico Fellini in many of his movies including 8½ The aesthetic and probing inventiveness in film Singer shows us restores and revives for audiences in the twenty first century myths of creation of the questing hero and of ideals both secular and religious that have had enormous significance throughout the human search for love and meaning in life

The Guernica Bull Harry C. Rutledge,2008-06-01 In The Guernica Bull Harry C Rutledge examines the use of classical motifs in twentieth century literature art and drama From the echoes of Plato s dialogues at the heart of Thomas Mann s Death in Venice to the retelling of the story of Harmodius and Aristogiton a story with grim parallels to Nazi Germany in Marguerite Yourcenar s L na these modern works are a testament to both the creativity of modern artists and the versatility and timelessness of classical themes Rutledge finds the ideal meshing of classical images and modern sensibility in Pablo Picasso s Guernica The most startling classical image in the painting is the bull a Cubist face staring out from the canvas at the viewer unmoved by the scene of death and destruction around him A symbol of the intense violence and disorder which has characterized this century Picasso s Minoan bull is at the same time a symbol of creative potency and artistic achievement The classical tradition in our era is Rutledge suggests multi faceted much like the Cubist paintings which view human beings as if through a prism in all their infinite variety and beauty The legacy of the Greeks and Romans is both stimulus and resource for modern artists as evidenced by the meticulous historical reconstruction in Yourcenar s M moires d Hadrien the recreation of an ancient setting in modern terms in Jean Cocteau s The Infernal Machine and T S Eliot s The Family Reunion and the influence of classical monuments and landscapes in the poetry of Frederick Nicklaus James Dickey and Richard Wilbur Modern artists have often found an affinity between themselves and the ancients In the Greek and Roman works that through their clarity and brevity have transcended time and place contemporary writers and painters perceive the essence of the infinite which is the challenge in any artistic endeavor Showing how some modernists have met this challenge The Guernica Bull explores the ancient antecedents of several of the most distinctive twentieth century masterpieces

Under the Spell of Orpheus Judith E. Bernstock, 1991 This comprehensive view of the Orpheus myth in modern art focuses on an extremely rich artistic symbol and cuts through all the clichés to explore truly significant problems of meaning The author takes a new approach to the iconography of major modern artists by incorporating psychological and literary analysis as well as biography The three parts of the book explore the ways in which artists have identified with different aspects of the often paradoxical Orpheus myth The first deals with artists such as Paul Klee Carl Milles and Barbara Hepworth In the second Max Beckmann Oskar Kokoschka and Isamu Noguchi are discussed Artists examined in the final part include Pablo Picasso Jacques Lipchitz Ethel Schwabacher and Cy Twombly The author documents her argument with more than sixty illustrations

Twentieth-century French Dramatists Mary Anne O'Neil, 2006 Essays on twentieth century French playwrights who were largely influenced by non French traditions during the greatest age of French theater since the mid 1700s French drama of the twentieth century was cosmopolitan experimental and eclectic and attempted to appeal to a wider audience than in the past Dramatists came not only from Paris but from the provinces and the French states of the Caribbean as well as from Francophone countries such as Belgium

Dance, Desire, and Anxiety in Early Twentieth-Century French Theater Charles R. Batson, 2017-03-02 The 1909 arrival of Serge de Diaghilev's Ballets Russes in Paris marked the beginning of some two decades of collaboration among litterateurs painters musicians and choreographers many not native to France Charles Batson's original and nuanced exploration of several of these collaborations integral to the formation of modernism and avant-gardist aesthetics reinscribes performances of the celebrated Russians and the lesser known but equally innovative Ballets Russes into their varied artistic traditions as well as the French historical context teasing out connections and implications that are usually overlooked in less decidedly interdisciplinary studies Batson not only uncovers the multiple meanings set in motion through the interplay of dancers musicians librettists and spectators but also reinterprets literary texts that inform these meanings such as Valéry's L'Amour et la danse Identifying the performing body as a site where anxieties drives and desires of the French public were worked out he shows how the messages carried by and ascribed to bodies in performance significantly influenced thought and informed the direction of much artistic expression in the twentieth century His book will be a valuable resource for scholars working in the fields of literature dance music and film as well as French cultural studies

Fashion Industry Eleni Mouratidou, 2020-10-21 The book studies the way the luxurious fashion develops representational politics by reinvesting symbolic fields such as art and culture religion and the sacred as well as politics in other words fields that represent a certain common pattern of life and a common interest I develop a semiotic approach of the way art exhibitions print and audiovisual advertising publishing and distribution politics as well as special ready to wear collaborations with arts such as Jeff Koons reveal the fashion industry's gesture of pretending being a non commercial structure especially in order to cover up its industrialisation and banalization process The Transparent Illusion

Rebecca M. Pauly, 1993 This unique study interprets forty major French films their texts and intertexts analyzing them both as windows on their subject projections of the imagination and as frames or mirrors reflecting the cultural contexts that produced them They are grouped in three major categories foregrounding their relationship to history literature or the filmmaking process itself in ascending order of opacity and modernity This much needed work offers not only comparative cultural perspectives on French text and film but also a better understanding of the poetics of image and ideology
