The Eucharist Vol 7 Of The Message Of The Fathers Of The Church Series:

Selected Works (The Fathers of the Church, Volume 95) Fulgentius, Saint Fulgentius (Bishop of Ruspa), 2010-04-15 This volume gives English readers for the first time an opportunity to study a representative selection of the writings of this early sixth century author It also presents Fulgentius's biography the Life for the first time in English     The Beauty of the Eucharist ,2010 This book examines what some of the most prominent voices of Christianity's distant past have taught about the Eucharist The author's goal is to look at how the proponents of an emerging Christian orthodoxy understood celebrated and presented the Eucharist in the centuries immediately following the end of the apostolic era Dennis Billy has done a masterful job of exposing us to almost 600 years of Christian belief on the Eucharist as reflected in the Fathers of the Church He reminds us that this living faith of the dead is part of our heritage something that we ignore only at our peril and loss His writing is clear practical and his treatment of each Father consistent He helps us to see how each writer adds to the mosaic and richness of our Eucharistic faith Especially helpful are the reflection questions that end each chapter as these force readers to plumb the depth of their own understanding and faith and to examine how the Eucharist affects the whole of their Christian lives I recommend it highly Paul Bernier Editor Emmanuel Magazine     Reinterpreting the Eucharist Anne F. Elvey, Carol Hogan, Kim Power, Claire Renkin, 2014-10-14 The Eucharist continues to be central to contemporary Christian religious tradition and to be the focus for a wide range of assumptions and disputes Chief amongst these disputes is the role of women in the theology and the ritual of the Eucharist Reinterpreting the Eucharist brings together a diverse range of voices with each using their own marginalized experience to explore other ways indigenous culture medieval and contemporary art social history and environmental ethics of engaging with the Eucharist Presenting new forms of theological and ethical engagement the book responds to the challenge of reconsidering the meaning of the Eucharist today     Material Eucharist David Grumett, 2016-09-22 Material Eucharist interprets the Eucharist through its material elements of bread and wine Drawing upon a rich variety of biblical patristic medieval and modern texts and traditions David Grumett brings together theological reflection and liturgical action and shows their mutual dependence For both theologians and liturgists a central concern is the matter out of which the created order has been made from which issues of community and social justice are inseparable The ingredients of bread and wine anticipate in their harvesting and manufacture the formal church liturgy which is extended back into the world by the transformative priestly action of laypeople Indeed the transforming presence of Christ in the Eucharist as flesh and substance is theologically grounded in his transformative presence in the wider created order as expressed in eucharistic giving and exchange between churches and their wider communities Rooting the Eucharist in materiality suggests its primary context to be the death and resurrection of Christ in the power of the Spirit in which its recipients may share The many aspects of theology and liturgy with which the book deals have large implications for how the Eucharist is understood in a range of academic disciplines and for how it is celebrated in churches today

Stubbs,2020-09-17 In most modern discussions of the Eucharist the Jewish temple and its services of worship do not play a large role They are often mentioned in passing but little work is done in grounding organizing or explicating the connections between these things and the Eucharistic celebration In Table and Temple David Stubbs sheds light on the reasons for this neglect and shows the important role the temple and its worship played in the imagination of Jesus and his disciples about what was to become a central Christian practice He then explores the five central meanings of the temple and its main services of worship demonstrating their relationship to the five central meanings of the Christian Eucharist These central meanings of the temple itself the daily weekly and monthly sacrifices and the three pilgrim feasts are linked to the history of salvation Stubbs distills them to 1 the real presence of God and God's Kingdom among God's people 2 thanksgiving for creation and providence 3 remembrance of past deliverance 4 covenant renewal in the present and 5 a hopeful celebration of the feast to come They provide a solid ground upon which to organize contemporary Christian Eucharistic imagination and practice Such a solid ground not only expands our theology and enriches contemporary practice it can also bring greater ecumenical unity to this central Christian rite

Communion Ecclesiology and Social Transformation in African

Catholicism Idara Otu, 2020-05-15 In this book Idara Otu, one of the new theological voices from Africa, rethinks ecclesiology in the changing context of a wounded and broken world. What does the Catholic Church in Africa look like post-Vatican II? This book creatively illuminates the intrinsic connections between ecclesial communion and social mission in the changing face of the church in Africa. The multiple levels of dialogue in African Catholicism, especially in the reception and contextualization of conciliar teachings, is redefining world Christianity. The author explores how dialogue, synodality, inculturation, leadership, human security, social issues, and social transformation are shaping the identity and mission of the church in Africa. This book also engages recent magisterial teachings and diverse theological voices in developing the praxis for the emergence of particular churches in Africa that are defined by the joys and sorrows of God's people. The book calls for a Triple C church revitalized through Conversion, Communion, and Conversation, as well as fostering integral and sustainable social transformation in Africa's contested march toward modernity.
