Das, Michael Palmiotto, 2006 The World Police Encyclopedia is the only existing reference work to systematically survey all the police systems in all the countries of the world the 189 UN member states plus Switzerland Each article describes police history police education and training structure of the force s in relation to the country s form of government and criminal justice system police responsibilities and duties most common crimes structure and role of the courts correction structure organization and function of the police force s use of firearms local and central interactions community relations and current issues and challenges This unique resource will be of interest to scholars of history foreign policy and politics as well as government agencies NGOs and others involved in working internationally to control international and domestic crime International Statebuilding in West Africa Abu Bakarr Bah, Nikolas Emmanuel, 2024-08-06 At the turn of the twenty first century manipulation of the democratic process coupled with preexisting political and economic grievances led to years long civil wars in Sierra Leone Liberia and C te d Ivoire During and after these conflicts international peacekeeping efforts and humanitarian intervention became the dominant paths for restoring stability by rebuilding the state Using these three countries as case studies this manuscript sheds light on internationally driven state building in war torn West African nations the problematic nature of the postcolonial state and the difficulties of securing its people s wellbeing Connecting peace and conflict democracy and international development studies Bah and Emmanuel argue that there is a clear nexus between the concepts and practices of peace building and statebuilding that peace building and statebuilding are not domestic matters alone but also matters of global intervention and that civil wars can be viewed as opportunities for state building through creative postwar partnerships and organization This study goes beyond the familiar concepts of failed states R2P peacekeeping and peace mediation and introduces and enhances the concepts of state decay new humanitarianism people centered liberalism and institutional design In doing so it provides critical lessons that local and international actors can draw on as they try to figure out practical solutions to the political economic and social problems that impede the development of peaceful and democratic multiethnic postcolonial states in Africa and beyond Applying comparative historical methods and theory to archival materials and expert interviews International Statebuilding in West Africa seeks to shift the discourse on civil wars from their causes and implications to the opportunities they provide to rework failed states and to shift the discourse on African states from their colonial and neocolonial legacies to their shared moral and security interests with the rest of the world International Security and the United States Paul Bellamy, Karl DeRouen Jr., 2007-12-30 Shaped by often very dramatic events international security and the international system have changed significantly in recent years The conclusion of the Cold War the emergence of new political systems the growth of significant threats such as terrorism and the development of new security doctrines have driven global transformation These volumes provide detailed information on countries from every geographic region and continent on the globe evaluating their relationship with the United States and measuring the potential security threats posed by each The contributors consider factors such as geography and history the political systems of each state their human rights records the ability to maintain law and order and provide security within their own borders the impact of current administrations rulers or regimes on a nation s foreign policy and the regional factors that often dictate local politics in order to make their assessments All of the entries in this set follow a standardized outline and present a concise but detailed assessment of each country Each entry begins with a discussion of geography through which the contributors identify the state s natural resources environmental issues and the extent of its territorial jurisdiction The focus then shifts to social and political organizations Populations are broken down by not only numbers but by ethnic and religious affiliations access to health care education housing and income All of those aspects are often a reflection of the system of government in place Like the United States those governments are comprised of different parties or leaders with various interests The contributors assess those entities and interests within each country They measure the ways in which factors of religion nationalism and globalism impact and shape not only domestic policies but also foreign policy and ultimately the country s relationship to the United States Other areas such as military organizations and activities records on human rights and justice recognition of and adherence to international conventions and national attitudes towards security are also considered Every entry also includes an assessment of current and potential security issues and an analysis of current terrorist threats that may already be in place or that are beginning to develop in various nations Each entry concludes with a summary of current relationships with the United States Those relationships are defined by the identification and brief analysis of formal trade aid or military treaties in place between the United States and other nations the general attitude of a nation s citizenry and its government towards the U S and finally identifying any social and cultural links between nations and the U S migration patterns language economies Finally possible changes and trends that will impact security issues are identified by the contributors Taken in their entirety these encyclopedias contain a wealth of information in a concise format that will serve as a valuable reference guide not only for specialists but general readers as well

The Changing Politics of European Security S. Gänzle,A. Sens,2007-01-30 The Changing Politics of European Security explores the key security challenges confronting Europe from relations with the US and Russia to the use of military force and the struggle against terrorism In the future the authors conclude European states will act alone independent of America on security matters The Europa World Year Book 2005 Europa,2005 One of the world s foremost reference sources renowned for reliable up to date information Our Social World Jeanne H. Ballantine,Keith A. Roberts,2008-11-17 The most innovative introduction to

Sociology in a generation presents a coherent essay that inspires students to develop their sociological imaginations to see the world and personal events from a new perspective and to confront sociological issues on a day to day basis This engaging text introduces the discipline of sociology to the contemporary student and provides an integrated comprehensible framework from which to view the world In each chapter authors Jeanne H Ballantine and Keith A Roberts provide an organizing theme that is not exclusively tied to one theoretical paradigm to help students see relationships between topics Our Social World presents the perspective of students living in the larger global world Politics and Society in Southeast Asia Peter A. Poole,2014-11-18 The Asian financial crisis of 1997 1998 caused severe hardship in Southeast Asia and many countries tightened their regulation of banks and other financial institutions adopted more conservative fiscal policies and made themselves less vulnerable to Western market fluctuations by forming closer trade and investment ties with their neighbors This book analyzes the major political and economic reforms that resulted from the Asian financial crisis looking particularly at how such reforms helped to prepare Asian countries for coping with the 2009 global recession In each of the ten country chapters the historical background social and political system economic development and foreign relations of each country are analyzed and compared with those of neighboring countries The concluding chapter looks ahead at the prospects for Southeast Asia in a more integrated Asian region Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Contested States in World Politics D. Geldenhuys,2009-04-22 This book investigates a phenomenon in world politics that is largely overlooked by scholars namely entities lacking international recognition of their status as independent states It includes case studies on the Eurasian Quartet Kosovo Somaliland Palestine Northern Cyprus Western Sahara and Taiwan National Geographic Collegiate Atlas of the World National Geographic Society (U.S.),2006 This compact easy to use atlas offers the convenience of smaller scale without sacrificing clarity or detail instead identically scaled maps on a given continent enable readers to compare physical political and regional information simply and accurately In addition access to a companion Web site provides continuing and complementary information Our Social World Dr Jeanne H Ballantine,Keith A. Roberts,2011-04-25 The Third Edition of Our Social World Introduction to Sociology is truly a coherent textbook that inspires students to develop their sociological imaginations to see the world and personal events from a new perspective and to confront sociological issues on a day to day basis Key Features Offers a strong global focus A global perspective is integrated into each chapter to encourage students to think of global society as a logical extension of their own micro world Illustrates the practical side of sociology Boxes highlight careers and volunteer opportunities for those with a background in sociology as well as policy issues that sociologists influence Encourages critical thinking Provides various research strategies and illustrates concrete examples of the method being used to help students develop a more sophisticated epistemology Presents The Social World Model in each chapter This visually compelling organizing framework opens each chapter and helps students understand the interrelatedness of core concepts New to the Third Edition Thirty new boxed features including the innovative Engaging Sociology and Applied Sociologists at Work features Three substantially reorganised chapters 2 Examining the Social World 3 Society and Culture and 13 Politics and Economics 315 entirely new references and 120 new photos Malaysia in Pictures Francesca DiPiazza,2006-01-01 With text and detailed color pictures describes the social cultural and economic history of Malaysia Transforming NATO Ivan Dinev Ivanov,2011-07-16 Transforming NATO New Allies Missions and Capabilities by Ivan Dinev Ivanov examines the three dimensions of NATO s transformation since the end of the Cold War the addition of a dozen new allies the undertaking of new missions such as peacekeeping crisis response and stabilization and the development of new capabilities to implement these missions The book explains these processes through two mutually reinforcing frameworks club goods theory and the concept of complementarities NATO can be viewed as a diverse heterogeneous club of nations providing collective defense to its members who in turn combine their military resources in a way that enables them to optimize the Alliance s capabilities needed for overseas operations Transforming NATO makes a number of theoretical contributions First it offers new insights into understanding how heterogeneous clubs operate Second it introduces a novel concept that of complementarities Finally it re evaluates the relevance of club goods theory as a framework for studying contemporary international security These conceptual foundations apply to areas well beyond NATO They provide useful insights into understanding the operation of transatlantic relations alliance politics and a broader set of international coalitions and partnerships This update in April 2013 covers new developments related to NATO s transformation after this book was originally published http://homepages.uc.edu/ivanovid/pdfs/book_update.pdf Zimbabwe At The Crossroads Jacob Wilson Chikuhwa,2006-05-15 The theme of Zimbabwe at the Crossroads is on issues of governance and economic management The story being told is how a prosperous country at independence in 1980 has virtually turned from a bread basket to a begging bowl After the success with A Crisis of Governance Zimbabwe Dr Jacob Chikuhwa continues the tragic analysis of the Zimbabwean economy An analysis set against a backdrop of growing poverty in a country with abundant human and natural resources this book weaves together a cast of socio economic factors that form the causes of the economic quagmire This academic expos brings to the fore the desperate hope for democracy and economic recovery in Zimbabwe International donor agencies and institutions specialising in African development studies will be delighted with Jacob Chikuhwa s latest instalment whose driving force is the statistical analysis of events in the southern African country Southeast Asian Affairs 2006 Daljit Singh,Lorraine Carlos Salazar,2006 Contains contributions by experts that discuss the significant issues and events of 2006 in each of the Southeast Asian nations and the region as a whole The WTO and its Development Obligation Elimma C. Ezeani,2011-10-01 The WTO and its Development Obligation Prospects for Global Trade boldly argues that in view of the WTO s development based focus there is an urgent need for developing countries to realise the potential benefits of global trade in their domestic environment Ezeani also acknowledges and examines the underlying factors which make it challenging for developing countries to make meaningful gains from participating in global trade The Europa International Foundation Directory 2007 Europa Publications,2007-06 A comprehensive guide to foundation activity on a world wide scale High-Value Natural Resources and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding Pivi Lujala,2012-03-29 For most post conflict countries the transition to peace is daunting In countries with high value natural resources including oil gas diamonds other minerals and timber the stakes are unusually high and peacebuilding is especially challenging Resource rich post conflict countries face both unique problems and opportunities They enter peacebuilding with an advantage that distinguishes them from other war torn societies access to natural resources that can yield substantial revenues for alleviating poverty compensating victims creating jobs and rebuilding the country and the economy Evidence shows however that this opportunity is often wasted Resource rich countries do not have a better record in sustaining peace In fact resource related conflicts are more likely to relapse Focusing on the relationship between high value natural resources and peacebuilding in post conflict settings this book identifies opportunities and strategies for converting resource revenues to a peaceful future Its thirty chapters draw on the experiences of forty one researchers and practitioners as well as the broader literature and cover a range of key issues including resource extraction revenue sharing and allocation and institution building The book provides a concise theoretical and practical framework that policy makers researchers practitioners and students can use to understand and address the complex interplay between the management of high value resources and peace High Value Natural Resources and Post Conflict Peacebuilding is part of a global initiative led by the Environmental Law Institute ELI the United Nations Environment Programme UNEP the University of Tokyo and McGill University to identify and analyze lessons in natural resource management and post conflict peacebuilding The project has generated six edited books of case studies and analyses with contributions from practitioners policy makers and researchers Other books in the series address land water livelihoods assessing and restoring natural resources and governance
