The Evening News Flannery O'Connor Award For Short Fiction Ser:

Evening News Tony Ardizzone, 1986 Tony Ardizzone writes of the moments in our lives that shine that burn in the dim expanse of memory with the intensity and vivid light of the evening news The men and women in these stories tend to arrange their days order their pasts plan their futures in the light of such moments finding epiphanies in the glowing memory of a father's laugh or a mother's repeated story in a broken date or a rained out ball game Set mostly in Chicago's blue collar neighborhoods these stories focus on subjects that concern us all disease and death vandalism and sacrilege rape and infidelity lost love The husband and wife in the title story look at their pasts his as an activist in the sixties and hers as a believer in reincarnation and the tarot in light of the news stories they watch on television each evening and question whether they should bring a child into the world And in The Walk On a bartender and former varsity pitcher for the University of Illinois Fighting Illini finds the actual events of the most cataclysmic day in his past unequal to their impact on his life and so rewrites them in his mind adding an ill placed banana peel a falling meteor and a careening truck in order to create a more fitting climax and finally to leave those memories behind him Searching their pasts for clues to the present searching the horizons of their days for love the characters in The Evening News seek and sometimes find redemption in a world of uncertainty and brightly burning emotions

The Review of Italian American Studies Frank M. Sorrentino, Jerome Krass, 2000-01-01 This collection of articles examines the complex nature of identity in the Italian American community Sorrentino and Krass have constructed a volume that covers topics of diverse interest such as the development of Italian American literary studies and the integration of a uniquely Italian American sensibility into a larger and dominant idea of European American culture As an erudite examination of contemporary studies being done on one of the largest ethnic groups in the United States this work is an essential addition to the ongoing and contentious debates about the nature of ethnicity identity assimilation and acculturation in the United States

Beyond the Godfather A. Kenneth Ciongoli, Jay Parini, 1997 A long overdue collection of memoirs and scholarly reflections on growing up Italian and American

Dagoes Read Fred L. Gardaphé, 1996 Since 1987 writer and critic Fred Gardaphé has regularly reviewed Italian North American literature in Fra Noi an Italian American monthly newspaper based in Chicago This volume features the best of Parole Scritte his monthly columns Introduced by an essay from which the collection gets its title Dagoes Read is the first publication of its kind in the history of Italian North American literature It serves as a fine introduction to this literary movement as well as a survey of recent publications by Italian North Americans Works reviewed include those by Tony Ardizzone Dorothy Bryant Pietro di Donato John Fante Maria Mazziotti Gillan Frank Lentricchia Jay Parini Diane Raptosh Gay Talese Sal LaPuma and many others

New Chicago Stories Fred L. Gardaphé, 1990 A multicultural anthology featuring Maxine Chernoff Tony Ardizzone Sara Paretsky Paul Hoover Karen Lee Osborne Ana Castillo Angela Jackson others With an introduction by Paul L Gardaphé The stories address issues of industrial pollution racism homophobia reproductive freedom

ageism the subjugation of minority cultures to the rich the white the male They provide alternative interpretations of life in the city Many are stories never before published The Italian American Heritage Pellegrino A D'Acierno,2021-12-12 First published in 1999 The many available scholarly works on Italian Americans are perhaps of little practical help to the undergraduate or high school student who needs background information when reading contemporary fiction with Italian characters watching films that require a familiarity with Italian Americans or looking at works of art that can be fully appreciated only if one understands Italian culture This basic reference work for non specialists and students offers quick insights and essential easy to grasp information on Italian American contributions to American art music literature motion pictures and cultural life This rich legacy is examined in a collection of original essays that include portrayals of Italian characters in the films of Francis Coppola Italian American poetry the art of Frank Stella the music of Frank Zappa a survey of Italian folk customs and an analysis of the evolution of Italian American biography Comprising 22 lengthy essays written specifically for this volume the book identifies what is uniquely Italian in American life and examines how Italian customs traditions social mores and cultural antecedents have wrought their influence on the American character Filled with insights observations and ethnic facts and fictions this volume should prove to be a valuable source of information for scholars researchers and students interested in pinpointing and examining the cultural intellectual and social influence of Italian immigrants and their successors Evening Out David Walton,2010-03-01 David Walton s collection of eight stories five of which are set in Pittsburgh offers darkly humorous meditations on modern life In Skin and Bone an unexpected strange and ultimately tragic encounter between a karate student and his instructor raises questions about guilt and responsibility The Sundeck touches on sex loneliness and the difficulty for people to meaningfully connect In the title story a dinner party attended by a struggling academic begins with the toast No more angst or ennui only to end in hostility and disaster Evening Out was the first book to win the Flannery O Connor Award for Short Fiction A Semiotic of Ethnicity Anthony Julian Tamburri,1998-09-11 Using semiotics as a theoretical foundation this book reexamines the notion of the hyphenate writer It argues for an analogous set of categories no longer chronologically or generationally based but cognitively based so that the traditionally considered first stage or first generation hyphenate writer now figures as an expressive writer who is not necessarily part of the immigrant or first American born generations He or she may actually belong to a later generation and write about his or her ethnicity with those characteristics more readily associated with the first stage hyphenate writer Good and Balanced Ethan Laughman,2020-03-01 Set on the field of play or maybe just its memory these stories of the sporting life range beyond the expected to include such pursuits as yoga billiards horse racing cards and boxing Here even iconic sports like football basketball and baseball get a fresh take through stories that might feature a losing coach a woman hoopster or a groundskeeper rather than a star player Whether front and center as a story s driving force or as a backdrop for other concerns the skill cunning and aggression on display here are familiar to all of us as players willing or not in all manner of contests Stories from the Flannery O'Connor Award Charles East,2013-03-01 Stories selected from winning volumes published in the series first fifteen years from David Walton s Evening Out 1983 to Andy Plattner s Winter Money 1997 Spinning Away from the Center Ethan Laughman,2019-09 These stories offer layered perceptive takes on what home means to us The people we meet in these stories are often traveling to and from home thinking about where they have come from where they are headed and how that journey will impact their futures Although the stories approach homecoming and homesickness through varied moods and styles they all come around to confronting a shared need a place to call home Changes Ethan Laughman,2021-03-01 These stories are enveloped by change and the changes that shift the trajectories of our lives change that shatters us change that opens the world and change from which we can never come back These fourteen stories tell us about extensive and inevitable changes and how we realign ourselves and our lives if we can A Perfect Souvenir Ethan Laughman,2020-09-15 Travel and the exhilarating experiences it offers us is the shared concern of these stories which have been chosen from among the hundreds that have appeared in the prestigious Flannery O Connor Award for Short Fiction series More than seventy volumes which include approximately eight hundred stories have won the Flannery O Connor Award This stunning trove of always engaging often groundbreaking short fiction is the common source for this anthology on childhood and for planned anthologies on such topics as family gender and sexuality animals and more Travel can whisk us away to craggy mountainsides and sunny coastlines or bustling cities and mysterious jungles Travel can excite and rejuvenate or intimidate and overwhelm These sixteen stories reflect upon our immense intriguing world and our explorations of it whether you choose to follow the beaten path or abandon it Hold that Knowledge Ethan Laughman,2019 Love in some of the infinite ways we may know it is the shared concern of these stories which have been chosen from among the hundreds that have appeared in the prestigious Flannery O Connor Award for Short Fiction series More than seventy volumes which include approximately eight hundred stories have won the Flannery O Connor Award This stunning trove of always engaging often groundbreaking short fiction is the common source for this anthology on love and for planned anthologies on such topics as work family animals children and more Emerging love or love on its way out the door Love that transcends or love that just stubbornly hangs on These fourteen stories give us at least that many new ways of looking at a state of mind that can send us either soaring or plummeting all in a heartbeat Growing Up Ethan Laughman,2021-03 Mid-American Review ,1991 Rituals to Observe Ethan Laughman,2019 Compiled from the Flannery O Connor Award for Short Fiction series these stories always amount to something more than a celebration of the holidays dotting our calendars from month to month Even though holidays can occasion a return to the familiar these stories diversify how we observe holidays and challenge traditional associations with holidays such as Christmas However the underlying rituals which make us pause feel love and act remain in place No author in this anthology means for a holiday to be the main focus yet the holiday makes the story work Many of the stories display family tensions that add a wild card element to holidays Characters also may feel forced to buy into a holiday s assigned emotion fear on Halloween gratitude on Thanksgiving whereas experience leads in another direction Maybe it s a holiday s time of year or maybe it s the baggage the holiday arrives with or that we hand to it For whatever reasons each holiday has its own atmosphere Each story serves to complicate the human observation of holidays and offers a nuanced understanding of related themes such as family and motherhood travel grief and mourning processes and memory More generally holidays are days of observance and that aspect alone offers a lot to unpack

A Day's Pay Ethan Laughman,2020-09-15 Work and the coffee fueled day to day grind is the shared concern of these stories which have been chosen from among the hundreds that have appeared in the prestigious Flannery O Connor Award for Short Fiction series More than seventy volumes which include approximately eight hundred stories have won the Flannery O Connor Award This stunning trove of always engaging often groundbreaking short fiction is the common source for this anthology on work and for planned anthologies on such topics as family gender and sexuality animals and more Sometimes work is rewarding and sometimes it s just demanding From the cubicle to the courtroom from the stage to the station These fifteen stories reflect upon the time we dedicate to the jobs we do from the moment we begin our commute to the second we return home and every hardworking hour in between

The Slow Release Ethan Laughman,2019-03-01 Death that ending of all endings is the shared concern of these stories which have been chosen from among the hundreds that have appeared in the prestigious Flannery O Connor Award for Short Fiction series More than seventy volumes which include approximately eight hundred stories have won the Flannery O Connor Award This stunning trove of always engaging often groundbreaking short fiction is the common source for this anthology on death and for planned anthologies on such topics as work family animals children and more Most of the expected ways by which we take our leave are covered here accident murder suicide illness old age Perhaps less expected is how in these stories a matter we d rather not think about becomes the stuff of fiction so compelling that we can t stop thinking about it How can something so final and certain spread so much ambiguity in its wake What did we think of the departed and what did they think of us How long will they be around in our hearts and heads even after they re gone How will we forgive those who may have caused the death of a loved one These fifteen stories give us many new ways of looking not only at death but at the lives that must go on in its aftermath

Down on the Sidewalk Ethan Laughman,2020-03-01 Front porches family cars playgrounds swimming pools from such familiar haunts of childhood these stories look out on the world through young eyes and hearts Wise beyond their years or soon to be Ruthie Omar J J and the other kids in these stories veer in and out of touching distance to hard lessons about trust love and mortality However engaged or aloof grownups are always nearby Far from perfect emissaries to the realm of adulthood they pose questions for children even as they offer answers
