The Evolution Of The Late Antique World Pb 2001:

Large Asian Lakes in a Changing World Steffen Mischke, 2020-05-11 Describing the natural state of eight important lakes in Asia and the human impact on these lake ecosystems this book offers a valuable reference guide Over the past several decades the Aral Sea Dead Sea Lake Balkhash and other major lakes in Asia have undergone significant changes with regard to their size water level chemical composition and flora and fauna Most of these changes resulted from the loss of water from tributaries now used for irrigation farming or increasing consumption in local industries and households However significant human impacts may have begun as early as 2000 years ago In addition to the three lakes mentioned above Lake Sevan Armenia the Caspian Sea Azerbaijan Iran Kazakhstan Russia Turkmenistan Lake Issyk Kul Kyrgyzstan and Lake Lop Nur China are discussed as the most prominent examples of changing lake ecosystems In contrast an example of an almost pristine lake ecosystem is included with the report on Lake Uvs Nuur Mongolia For each lake the book summarizes its origin and early geological history and reconstructs its natural state and variability on the basis of proxy records from drilled or exposed lake sediments that have accumulated since the last ice age The frequently observed reductions in lake level and size during most recent decades led often to significant environmental impacts in the respective lake catchments including vegetation deterioration soil erosion and badland formation soil salinization or the formation of sinkholes The Huns,

Rome and the Birth of Europe Hyun Jin Kim, 2013-04-18 The Huns have often been treated as primitive barbarians with no advanced political organisation Their place of origin was the so called backward steppe It has been argued that whatever political organisation they achieved they owed to the civilizing influence of the Germanic peoples they encountered as they moved west This book argues that the steppes of Inner Asia were far from backward and that the image of the primitive Huns is vastly misleading They already possessed a highly sophisticated political culture while still in Inner Asia and far from being passive recipients of advanced culture from the West they passed on important elements of Central Eurasian culture to early medieval Europe which they helped create Their expansion also marked the beginning of a millennium of virtual monopoly of world power by empires originating in the steppes of Inner Asia The rise of the Hunnic Empire was truly a geopolitical revolution

Animals, Gods and Humans Ingvild Saelid Gilhus, 2006-09-27 Consulting a wide range of key texts and source material Animals Gods and Humans covers 800 years and provides a detailed analysis of early Christian attitudes to and the position of animals in Greek and Roman life and thought Both the pagan and Christian conceptions of animals are rich and multilayered and Ingvild Saelid Gilhus expertly examines the dominant themes and developments in the conception of animals Including study of biographies of figures such as Apollonius of Tyana natural history the New Testament via Gnostic texts the church fathers and from pagan and Christian criticism of animal sacrifice to the acts of martyrs the source material and detailed analysis included in this volume make it a veritable feast of information for all classicists Glass Making in the Greco-Roman World Patrick Degryse, 2015-01-21 New insights into the trade and processing of mineral raw materials for glass making Free ebook at OAPEN Library www.oapen.org This book presents a reconstruction of the Hellenistic Roman glass industry from the point of view of raw material procurement Within the ERC funded ARCHGLASS project the authors of this work developed new geochemical techniques to provenance primary glass making They investigated both production and consumer sites of glass and identified suitable mineral resources for glass making through geological prospecting Because the source of the raw materials used in the manufacturing of natron glass can be determined new insights in the trade of this material are revealed While eastern Mediterranean glass factories were active throughout the Hellenistic to early Islamic period western Mediterranean and possibly Italian and North African sources also supplied the Mediterranean world with raw glass in early Roman times By combining archaeological and scientific data the authors develop new interdisciplinary techniques for an innovative archaeological interpretation of glass trade in the Hellenistic Roman world highlighting the development of glass as an economic material Contributors Annelore Blomme KU Leuven Sara Boyen KU Leuven Dieter Brems KU Leuven Florence Cattin Universit de Bourgogne Mike Carremans KU Leuven Veerle Devulder KU Leuven UGent Thomas Fenn Yale University Monica Ganio Northwestern University Johan Honings KU Leuven Rebecca Scott KU Leuven

Death on the Nile Walter Scheidel, 2017-09-18 A pioneering comparative and multidisciplinary study of the interaction between local disease environments and demographic structure this book breaks new ground in reconstructing the population history of Egypt during the Roman period and beyond Drawing on a wide range of sources from ancient census data and funerary commemorations to modern medical accounts statistics and demographic models the author explores the nature of premodern disease patterns challenges existing assumptions about ancient age structure and develops a new methodology for the assessment of Egyptian population size Contextualising the study of Roman Egypt within the broader framework of premodern demography ecology and medical history this is the first attempt to interpret and explain demographic conditions in antiquity in terms of the underlying causes of disease and death Volcanoes of the World Lee Siebert, Tom Simkin, Paul Kimberly, 2011-02-09 This impressive scientific resource presents up to date information on ten thousand years of volcanic activity on Earth In the decade and a half since the previous edition was published new studies have refined assessments of the ages of many volcanoes and several thousand new eruptions have been documented This edition updates the book's key components a directory of volcanoes active during the Holocene a chronology of eruptions over the past ten thousand years a gazetteer of volcano names synonyms and subsidiary features an extensive list of references and an introduction placing these data in context This edition also includes new photographs data on the most common rock types forming each volcano information on population densities near volcanoes and other features making it the most comprehensive source available on Earth's dynamic volcanism Climate Change in the Middle East and North Africa William R. Thompson, Leila Zakhirova, 2021-07-04 Environmental factors in the Middle East and North Africa MENA have played a crucial role in the historical and social development of the region The book delves into a broad set of historical literature from the past 15 000 years that neglected to consider environmental factors to their full effect Beyond the broad historic analysis the chapters derive conclusions for today s debate on whether climate change leads to more social conflict and violence Introducing a theoretical framework focused on adaptive cycling this book probes and refines the role of climate in ancient and modern political economic systems in the MENA region It also underscores just how bad the 21st century environment may become thanks to global warming While the MENA region may not survive the latest onslaught of deteriorating climate there is also some interest in how a region that once led the world in introducing all sorts of innovations thousands of years ago has evolved into a contemporary setting characterized by traditional conservatism poverty and incessant strife Emphasizing regional dynamics the book s central question deals with the role of climate change in the rise and decline of the MENA region The book will be a key resource to students and readers interested in global warming including academics and policymakers Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002-04 Wearmouth and Jarrow

Monastic Sites Rosemary Cramp,2005 Founded by Benedict Biscop in the late 7th century the twin monastery of Wearmouth and Jarrow achieved an international reputation through the writings of Bede Destroyed in the mid 9th century the house was refounded in the 11th and survives to this day as a seat of religious scholarship This volume describes the material remains from the excavations Nature's Palette Patrick Baty,2021-05-18 This fully realized colour catalogue includes elegant contemporary illustrations of every animal plant or mineral cited in Syme s edition of Werner s nomenclature of colours The Wycliffite Heresy Kantik Ghosh,2001-10-04 Kantik Ghosh argues that one of the main reasons for Lollardy s sensational resonance for its times and for its immediate posterity was its exposure of fundamental problems in late medieval academic engagement with the Bible its authority and its polemical uses Examining Latin and English sources Ghosh shows how the same debates over biblical hermeneutics and associated methodologies were from the 1380s onwards conducted both within and outside the traditional university framework and how by eliding boundaries between Latinate biblical speculation and vernacular religiosity Lollardy changed the cultural and political positioning of both Covering a wide range of texts scholastic and extramural in Latin and in English written over half a century from Wyclif to Thomas Netter Ghosh concludes that by the first decades of the fifteenth century Lollardy had partly won the day Whatever its fate as a religious movement it had successfully changed the intellectual landscape of England Medieval and Renaissance Art Glyn Davies,Kirstin Kennedy,2009-11 This important and beautiful book accompanies the opening of the Victoria and Albert Museum s spectacular new Medieval and Renaissance galleries Among the textiles paintings sculpture glass metalwork prints manuscripts furniture ceramics and jewelry featured here are such renowned treasures as the Devonshire tapestries the Leonardo Notebooks Donatello s Ascension relief the reliquary casket of St Thomas Becket and many more astonishing works Organized thematically the book explores the social contexts responsible for these captivating objects both commonplace and precious recovering the attitudes of makers and owners of the time toward artistic practice

Rather than adopting the traditional sharp distinction between the Medieval and Renaissance the authors explore aspects of the whole of this long period in European design and manufacture an approach that emphasizes the continuities and gradual developments that were often as significant as sudden upheaval A general historical introduction to the social and political background is followed by chapters that explore concepts of art workshops and sales the classical past ornament religious art health and body and the ways in which objects themselves express the attitudes of their owners Pedagogy,

Intellectuals, and Dissent in the Later Middle Ages Rita Copeland, 2001-07-26 This book is about the place of pedagogy and the role of intellectuals in medieval dissent Focusing on the medieval English heresy known as Lollardy Rita Copeland places heretical and orthodox attitudes to learning in a long historical perspective that reaches back to antiquity She shows how educational ideologies of ancient lineage left their imprint on the most sharply politicized categories of late medieval culture and how radical teachers transformed inherited ideas about classrooms and pedagogy as they brought their teaching to adult learners The pedagogical imperatives of Lollard dissent were also embodied in the work of certain public figures intellectuals whose dissident careers transformed the social category of the medieval intellectual Looking closely at the prison narratives of two Lollard preachers Copeland shows how their writings could serve as examples for their fellow dissidents and forge a new rapport between academic and non academic communities The Evolution of the Late Antique

Cities and the Meanings of Late Antiquity Mark Humphries,2019-11-04 The last half century has seen an explosion in the study of late antiquity which has characterised the period between the third and seventh centuries not as one of catastrophic collapse and decline and fall but rather as one of dynamic and positive transformation Yet research on cities in this period has provoked challenges to this positive picture of late antiquity This study surveys the nature of this debate examining problems associated with the sources historians use to examine late antique urbanism and the discourses and methodological approaches they have constructed from them It aims to set out the difficulties and opportunities presented by the study of cities in late antiquity in terms of transformations of politics the economy and religion and to show that this period witnessed very real upheaval and dislocation alongside continuity and innovation in cities around the Mediterranean
