English Novel Janet Horowitz Murray, 2016-07-22 First published in 1987 these essays deal with the three major novels of George Meredith It explores in particular Meredith's feminism and demonstrates how each novel embodies his very modern views of the relations between the sexes This book will be of interest to those studying 19th Century literature and feminism

Novel Notions Katherine E. Kickel, 2023-06-14 Medical popular and literary understanding about the imagination converged when Thomas Willis asserted that he had discovered the area of the brain that facilitated imagining Taking this discovery as paradigmatic Novel Notions examines the reverberations of the medical investigation of the imagination in early British novels by Daniel Defoe Henry Fielding Laurence Sterne and Ann Radcliffe It argues that one of the novel's central features was a mapping of the terrain of human cognition imagination and creation as a continuation of early modern medicine's account of perceptual experience All the novels discussed reveal a simultaneous anxiety and excitement about medicine's understanding of the relationship between the imagination and perceptual experience through narrators who reflect on the nature of authoring The Victorian Novel Louis James, 2008-04-15 This inspiring survey challenges conventional ways of viewing the Victorian novel Provides time maps and overviews of historical and social contexts Considers the relationship between the Victorian novel and historical religious and bibliographic writing Features short biographies of over forty Victorian authors including Wilkie Collins Charles Dickens George Eliot and Robert Louis Stevenson Offers close readings of over 30 key texts among them Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre 1847 and Bram Stoker's Dracula 1897 as well as key presences such as John Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress Pt 1 1676 Pt 2 1684 Also covers topics such as colonialism scientific speculation the psychic and the supernatural and working class reading The Transformation of the English

Novel, 1890-1930 D. Schwarz, 1995-02-27 In an exciting and important book The theoretical chapters are a model of elegantly styled accommodation yet they brook no fudging of the issues no comfortable ambiguities Modern Fiction Studies The Transformation of the English Novel 1890 1930 Studies in Hardy Conrad Joyce Lawrence Forster and Woolf is a provocative exploration of a crucial period in the development of the English novel integrating critical theory historical background and sophisticated close reading Divided into two major sections the first shows how historical and contextual material is essential for developing powerful readings The second section is theoretical and speaks of the transformation in the way that we read and think about authors readers characters and form in the light of recent theory offering an alternative to the deconstructive and Marxist trends in literary studies

Criticism of Society in the English Novel Between the Wars Hena Maes-Jelinek, 2013-05-22 The main concern of this study is the artist's vision of society its major theme is the relation between the individual and society resulting from the impact of social and political upheavals on individual life By criticism of society I mean the novelist's awareness of the social reality and of the individual's response to it the writers I deal with all proved alive to the changes that were taking place in English society between the two World Wars Though the social attitudes of the inter war years as well as the writers response to them were shaped by lasting and complex influences such as trends in philosophy and science the two Wars stand out as determining factors in the development of the novel the consequences of the First were explored by most writers in the Twenties whereas in the following decade the novelists felt compelled to voice the anxiety aroused by the threat of another conflict and to warn against its possible effects After the First World War many writers felt keenly the social disruption the old standards which were thought to have made this suicidal War possible were distrusted the code of behaviour and the moral values of the older generation were openly criticized for having led to bankruptcy Disparagement of authority increased the individual's sense of isolation his insecurity his disgust or fear Even the search for pleasure so widely satirized in the Twenties was the expression of a cynicism born of despair The ensuing disengagement of the individual from his environment became a major theme in the novel his isolation was at once a cause for resentment and the source of his fierce individualism
