The Equipping of Disciples John Hendrix, Lloyd Householder, 1977 Contagious Disciple Making David Watson, Paul Watson, 2014-12-23 It is hard to deny that today s world can seem apathetic toward Christians Some may look down at their iPhones when we mention God motion for the check when we bring up church or casually change the subject when we talk about prayer In a world full of people whose indifference is greater than their desire to know Christ how can we dream of growing the church In Contagious Disciple Making David Watson and Paul Watson map out a simple method that has sparked an explosion of homegrown churches in the United States and around the world A companion to Cityteam s two previous books Miraculous Movements and The Father Glorified Contagious Disciple Making details the method used by Cityteam disciple makers This distinctive process focuses on equipping spiritual leaders in communities where churches are planted Unlike many evangelism and church growth products that focus on quick results contagious disciple making takes time to cultivate spiritual leadership resulting in lasting disciple making movements Through Contagious Disciple Making readers will come to understand that a strong and equipped leader will continue to grow the church long after church planters move on to the next church Features include Engagement tools for use in the field Practical techniques to equip others to make disciples

Making Disciples in the Twenty-First Century Church Joel Comiskey, 2013-12-02 We know that the goal of the Christian life is to glorify God and to enjoy him forever While this is God s ultimate plan does he have a particular purpose for the cell based church I ve been wrestling with this question for the past twenty two years This question confronts me every time I coach a pastor or pastors In preparation for coaching I ask myself What is my principal objective in helping this pastor Where am I guiding this church What am I trying to do I ve come to the conclusion that the primary goal of cell ministry is to make disciples who make disciples Christ s last command to his disciples was for them to repeat the process and to reproduce new disciples But how were they supposed to do that This book answers these questions The early church followed Christ's pattern by making disciples through the house churches that periodically celebrated together in public worship. In 2 Timothy 2:1-2 Paul tells Timothy to continue the discipleship process by passing on the pure gospel message to faithful men and women. Even though the term disciple is later replaced by words such as brothers, sisters, Christians, and saints, the concept remains the same. We in North America and the Western world often project our own cultural bias into Christ's great commission (Matthew 28:18-20). Most discipleship books in fact assume that discipleship is an individualistic endeavor between me and God. And yes, there is an important individual aspect, e.g., personal devotions, etc. Yet in Matthew 28 Jesus was talking to a group of disciples. He wanted them to follow his example by making disciples in a group. Jesus molded twelve disciples in a group and then sent them house to house. So how does the cell church make disciples? In this book I show how the cell small group works together with the cell system to make disciples who make disciples. In the cell, a potential disciple is transformed through community, priesthood of all believers, group evangelism, and team multiplication. In the cell, potential disciples are formed through learning how to love one another, exercising their gifts, evangelizing together as a group, and then sent forth as teams to start new groups. Discipleship is a group process in the New Testament, and God is calling his church to re-emphasize this truth. The cell system ensures each leader has a coach, and that training/equipping track happens. Then the cells gather together to worship and grow through the teaching of God's Word. All three aspects are essential to form disciples. Training is needed because disciples won't learn all they need to know in the cell. Coaching ensures that each leader is cared for and receives shepherding. The celebration service brings the cells together to hear God's Word, worship, and receive fresh vision. The goal of the two-wing cell church is to make disciples who make disciples. The cell church today makes disciples by following the early church pattern of cell and celebration. Recommendations: I've read all of Joel Comiskey's books, but Making Disciples in the Twenty First Century Church is his best work yet. In this book Joel reminds us that the real call and challenge of the Church is not developing leaders or numerical growth, but making disciples who make disciples. He also helps us understand why that is best done in a cell or small group context and gives us great insight about how to make that happen. I'm looking forward to having all of our Pastors, Coaches, and Cell Leaders and Members read this book in the near future. Dennis Watson, Lead Pastor, Celebration Church of New Orleans. ____ I am so excited about Joel Comiskey's new book Making Disciples in the Twenty First Century Church. When I'm asked what makes a cell church thrive, I always say discipleship. Thank you Joel for unpacking discipleship not just as an endeavor for individuals but as the critical element for creating a church community and culture that reproduces the Kingdom of God all over the earth. I pray this book won't only be read but lived out as we were made to make disciples. Jimmy Seibert, Senior Pastor, Antioch Community Church, President and Founder, Antioch Ministries International. ____ I really like that Joel asked the "Why" question before the "How" question. He even takes on the "What" question, which is just as important. The interest in discipleship is greater now than anytime in the last fifty years. I fear, however, that we are using the same words but are not speaking the same language. I on Earth Are There Churches? Michael R. Privett, 2012-08 After years of observation I have concluded that so many local churches function without regard to their God given biblical mission and objectives because of their unclear mission their unbiblical targets or their unbalanced objectives The Lord God has already given His church a clearly defined mission for the present age Yet so many local churches seem to function without understanding their biblical mission their God directed reason for existence while other local churches and their leaders have revised or even compromised their God given mission thinking that they know better than God Some churches disband Sunday school dismantle the choir and disassemble pews only to replace them with other programs and ideas that will become traditional soon enough Traditions customs and worship styles vary from culture to culture and from generation to generation I've been in the gospel ministry long enough to have seen the pendulum swing back and forth a time or two So many ministries programs concepts and styles are not new but just repackaged Today's new fresh blended methods will become traditional to the next generation after a short period of time Too often we are more involved in following the latest fad than we are in striving to do all to the glory of God What really matters is whether you have presented a true and accurate opinion and view of the nature and character of God so that others will praise and exalt Him to His worthy place of honor esteem and excellence Invitation to Evangelism Timothy K.
