The Essential Gesture:

The Essential Gesture Nadine Gordimer, 1988 The Essential Gesture Bruce Guenther, 1994 The Essential Gesture Nadine Gordimer, 1988 Betrays of the Body Politic Andrew V. Ettin, 1993 He examines the connection between the personal and the political showing that Gordimer has always seen the two as inseparable and that her understanding of this relationship has developed profoundly during her career Though the book is not biographical it explores more fully than any preceding publication Gordimer's attitudes toward feminism and her connections with her Jewish background thereby expanding our comprehension of her social context Ettin includes a succinct overview of her career and devotes each of six chapters to a major theme tracing and analyzing the themes as they recur in selected stories novels essays and interview reflections and as they have emerged in relation to circumstances of her own life The author sees Gordimer's work as a tool not of propaganda but of understanding a means of sharpening our perceptions of one another's lives The Essentials of Effective Gesture, for Students of Public Speaking Joseph Albert Mosher, 1916 Nadine Gordimer Dominic Head, 1994-11-10 The award to Nadine Gordimer of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1991 was an affirmation of her distinctive contribution to twentieth century fiction and to the creation of a literature that challenges apartheid In this study which may be used as an introduction as well as by those already familiar with Gordimer's work Dominic Head discusses each of her novels in detail paying close attention to the texts both as a reflection of events and situations in the real world and as evidence of her constant rethinking of her craft Head shows how Gordimer's concerns apparent in her earliest novels are developed through increasing stress on the politics of textuality and he pursues the implications of this development to consider how Gordimer's later work contributes to postmodernist fiction and to a recentering of political engagement in an era of uncertainty Mother Jones Magazine, 1988-12 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues Essential Gesture Nadine Gordimer, Telling Times Nadine Gordimer, 2012-03-15 Nadine Gordimer's life reflects the true spirit of the writer as moral activist political visionary and literary icon Telling Times collects together all her non fiction for the first time spanning more than half a century from the twilight of colonial rule in South Africa to the long brutal fight to overthrow South Africa's apartheid regime and to her leadership role over the last 20 years in confronting the dangers of AIDS globalisation and ethnic violence The range of this book is staggering from Gordimer's first piece in The New Yorker in 1954 in which she autobiographically traces her emergence as a brilliant young writer in a racist country to her pioneering role in recognising the greatest African and European writers of her generation to her truly courageous stance in supporting Nelson Mandela and other members of the ANC during their years of imprisonment Given that Gordimer will never write an autobiography Telling Times is an important document of twentieth century social and political history told through the voice of one of its greatest literary figures The Changing Tradition International Society

Conference, 1999 Contains revised essays from a July 1997 conference investigating why and to what extent women have been excluded from rhetoric and what contributions they have nevertheless made to it in the past as well as what they are doing in the field today Essays are arranged to show the various ways in which received wisdom has been challenged and the rhetorical tradition revised Topics include Plato's women the ongoing appeal of St Catherine of Siena Lady Mary Wroth's Urania and the rhetoric of female abuse and feminist thoughts on rhetoric Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Postcolonial Representations Françoise Lionnet, 2018-07-05 Passionate allegiances to competing theoretical camps have stifled dialogue among today's literary critics asserts Françoise Lionnet Discussing a number of postcolonial narratives by women from a variety of ethnic and cultural backgrounds she offers a comparative feminist approach that can provide common ground for debates on such issues as multiculturalism universalism and relativism Lionnet uses the concept of métissage or cultural mixing in her readings of a rich array of Francophone and Anglophone texts by Michelle Cliff from Jamaica Suzanne Dracius Pinalie from Martinique Ananda Devi from Mauritius Maryse Conde and Myriam Warner Vieyra from Guadeloupe Gayl Jones from the United States Bessie Head from Botswana Nawal El Saadawi from Egypt and Leila Sebbar from Algeria and France Focusing on themes of exile and displacement and on narrative treatments of culturally sanctioned excision polygamy and murder Lionnet examines the psychological and social mechanisms that allow individuals to negotiate conflicting cultural influences In her view these writers reject the opposition between self and other and base their self-portrayals on a métissage of forms and influences Lionnet's perspective has much to offer critics and theorists whether they are interested in First or Third World contexts American or French critical perspectives essentialist or poststructuralist epistemologies

The Art of Hunger Alys Moody, 2018-11-10 Hunger is one of the governing metaphors for literature in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Beginning in the mid nineteenth century writers and critics repeatedly describe writing as a process of starvation as in the familiar type of the starving artist and high art as the rejection of culinary pleasures The Art of Hunger Aesthetic Autonomy and the Afterlives of Modernism argues that this metaphor offers a way of describing the contradictions of aesthetic autonomy in modernist literature and its late twentieth-century heirs This book traces the emergence of a tradition of writing it calls the art of hunger from the origins of modernism to the end of the twentieth century It focuses particularly on three authors who redeploy the modernist art of hunger as a response to key moments in the history of modernist aesthetic autonomy's delegitimization Samuel Beckett in post Vichy France Paul Auster in post 1968 Paris and New York and J M Coetzee in late apartheid South Africa Combining historical analysis of these literary fields with close readings of individual texts and drawing extensively on new archival research this book offers a counter history of modernism's post World War II reception and a new theory of aesthetic autonomy as a practice of unfreedom

Seized by Truth Prof. Joel B. Green, 2010-09-01 We read the Bible and interpret Scripture in order to live in grace filled relation to God's divine purpose When we approach the Bible as Scripture author Joel Green takes seriously the faith statement that the Bible is our Book these scriptures are our Scripture We are not reading someone else's mail as though reading the Bible had to do foremost with recovering an ancient meaning intended for someone else and then translating its principles for use in our own lives When we recall that we are the people of God to whom the Bible is addressed as Scripture we realize that the fundamental transformation is not the transformation of an ancient message into a contemporary meaning but rather the transformation of our lives by means of God's Word This means that reading the Bible as Scripture has less to do with what tools we bring to the task however important these may be and more to do with our own dispositions as we come to our engagement with Scripture We come not so much to retrieve facts or to gain information but to be formed and ultimately transformed Scripture does not present us with texts to be mastered but with a Word God's Word intent on mastering us on shaping our lives
