The Ethical Dimensions Of School Leadership:

The Ethical Dimensions of School Leadership Paul Thomas Begley, Olof Johansson, 2003-04-30 This book about valuation processes in educational administration has a particular focus on the notions community and professionalism The topic is addressed comprehensively bringing together the work of some of the best known and most respected philosophers theorists and researchers working in this field It will be of interest to university faculty graduate students and educational administrators

The Ethical Dimensions of School Leadership P.T. Begley, Olof Johansson, 2006-04-11 Among the many significant features of this volume is the dedication to the late Don Willower Professor of Education at Pennsylvania State University It is significant in light of Willower's long record of major contributions to the empirical literature in Educational Administration and his mentorship of many students steeped in the tradition of the so called science of administration These include scholars like Wayne Hoy and Peter Cistone who readily acknowledge their personal and intellectual debt to Willower How is it then that Willower a colleague of the giants of Educational Administration in the 60s and 70s people such as Dan Griffiths Jack Culbertson and Roald Campbell to name just a few came to associate himself with this relatively upstart group of academics and practitioners interested in values of all things As an inheritor of the mantle thrown down by Getzels and Guba all those years ago it might seem strange to see Willower consorting with people who argue about the distinction between fact and value It is true of course that Willower majored in philosophy at the State University of New York at Buffalo as an undergraduate So the language and the ways of thinking among many of those interested in values and ethics were not all that foreign to him He could certainly hold his own in debate with his friend Chris Hodgkinson the foremost philosopher of Educational Administration in the field today and a contributor to this volume

Ethical Leadership Robert J. Starratt, 2004-07-20 In Ethical Leadership Robert Starratt one of the leading thinkers on the topic of ethics and education shows educational leaders how to move beyond mere technical efficiency in the delivery and performance of learning He challenges educators to become ethical leaders who understand the learning process as a profoundly moral activity that engages the full humanity of the school community Starratt explains that educational leadership requires a moral commitment to high quality learning for all students a commitment based on three essential virtues proactive responsibility personal and professional authenticity and an affirming critical and enabling presence to the workers and the work involved in teaching and learning He clarifies how essential these virtues are for leadership in the pressure cooker of high stakes schooling He provides vivid illustration by beginning and ending the book with a morality play the narrative of a principal who struggles to do the right thing for his students and teachers as they are pressured and often punished by state mandated tests Starratt concludes by offering practical suggestions for working leaders as well as preservice and inservice courses in educational leadership This book is a volume in the Jossey Bass Leadership Library in Education a series designed to meet the demand for new ideas and insights about leadership in schools
