Manning Clark

The Exiles His The Australians:

The Pastoral Care of Italians in Australia Anthony Paganoni,2007 This book explores the Italian contribution to the life of the Church in Australia It begins with the historical experiences where Italians became identified as the Italian Problem right through the Second World War where they became Enemy Aliens and on to the post war period where Italians moved from being Dagoes to becoming Doers The first half of this impressive book challenges the treatment of Italians in Australia and boldly argues for a new awareness almost an Italianization of the Australian Catholic Church The final two chapters explore the Italian contribution to the Australian Church through the prism of theology and scripture As Australians of an Italian background move on to their third and even fourth generation in Australia this volume will become a rally call to reclaim our unique heritage which is Catholic Italian and most of all Australian

The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce,2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society

History Of Australia (Volumes 5 & 6) Manning Clark,1999-09-13 Manning Clark s six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A History of Australia 1888 1945 covers Federation the Boer War and World War I s Gallipoli It finishes with the story of an emerging Australian identity at the point of its greatest trial the outbreak of World War II This is not a general Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive

A History of Displaced Knowledge: Austrian Refugees from National Socialism in Australia Philipp Strobl,2025-04-07 This book follows ideas and knowledge that migrated in the cultural baggage of Austrian refugees who fled to Australia in 1938 and 1939 because of National Socialism By telling and comparing the stories of twenty six different lives it highlights the processes of acquisition transportation translation and adaption of ideas knowledge and cultural capital This provides a unique and colourful insight into the impact of a group of refugees on their host society over several decades As the book shows there were many different ways in which displaced people relied upon their social and cultural capital to first escape their oppressive homeland and then build new lives Once they had arrived in Australia they used very different approaches to negotiate and promote their knowledge and to exercise agency

The Scots in Australia Malcolm David Prentis, 2008 This is a highly descriptive account of the Scots in Australia from 1788 to the present It shows that the Scots have made a major contribution to all aspects of Australian life It is aimed at non specialist general readers although much of the audience will be Scottish Provided by publisher Reading Greek Australian Literature through the Paramythi Anna Dimitriou, 2024-06-04 This is a comparative textual analysis of a body of relatively neglected works by Greek Australian writers Dimitris Tsaloumas Antigone Kefala Stylianos Charkianakis Dean Kalimnios Christos Tsiolkas Fotini Epanomitis and Helen Koukoutsis The focus is on reading their texts as a bridge between multiculturalism and world literature given each writer identifies in various ways with peripheral cosmopolitanism as they merge high brow literary forms with the quotidian paramythi or the storytelling oral tradition The different ways they do this registers the writers ambivalent relationship with their origins through their transculturally mediated expression Discovering new possibilities in literary texts which have oral traces becomes a productive way to look at the question of translatability as posed by scholars of multiculturalism and world literature such as Sneja Gunew Emily Apter and Pheng Cheah Journal of the Australian Early Medieval Association Geoffrey D. Dunn, Darius von Guttner Sporzynski, 2016-12-31 The journal welcomes papers on historical literary archaeological cultural and artistic themes particularly interdisciplinary papers and those that make an innovative and significant contribution to the

Australia as it is F. LANCELOT,1852 Identity, Community and Australian Artists, 1890-1914 Kate R. Robertson,2019-09-19 An irresistible call lured Australian artists abroad between 1890 and 1914 a transitional period immediately pre and post federation Travelling enabled an extension of artistic frontiers and Paris the centre of art and London the heart of the Empire promised wondrous opportunities These expatriate artists formed communities based on their common bond to Australia enacting their Australian ness in private and public settings Yet they also interacted with the broader creative community fashioning a network of social and professional relationships They joined ateliers in Paris such as the Acad mie Julian clubs like the Chelsea Arts Club in London and visited artist colonies including St Ives in England and taples in France Australian artists persistently sought a sense of belonging negotiating their identity through activities such as plays balls tableaux parties dressing up and of course the creation of art While individual biographies are integral to this study it is through exploring the connections between them that it offers new insights Through utilising extensive archival material much of which has limited or no publication history this book fills a gap in existing scholarship It offers a vital exploration re consideration of the fluidity of identity place and belonging in the lives and work of Australian artists in this juncture in British Australian history
