Abraham Lincoln and Joseph Smith: How Two Contemporaries Changed the Face of American History Ron L. Andersen,2023-02-02 One led our country through the Civil War and out of slavery The other founded a religious movement that is today the nation s fastest growing Christian denomination So what could Abraham Lincoln and Joseph Smith possibly have in common According to Lincoln Leadership Society president Ron Andersen more than you would think Besides both being hardworking and hardly educated Lincoln and Smith also held surprisingly comparable and unpopular views on slavery and the nature of God But the most striking similarities between the two men are uncovered in historical records in Illinois where each was living and gaining critical momentum in the 1840s You ll see new sides to these important historical figures as you discover Smith s stance on the abolition movement or Lincoln s vouch for the Mormon vote Find out how two young backwoods boys crossed paths and led parallel lives before each was martyred for his cause in this exhaustively researched dual biography The Face of Lincoln [prospectus for a Lecture-demonstration]. Abraham Lincoln's Wilderness Years J. Edward Murr,2022-11-01 Abraham Lincoln spent a quarter of his life from 1816 to 1830 ages 7 to 21 learning and growing in southwestern Indiana Despite the importance of these formative years Lincoln rarely discussed this period and with his sudden untimely death in 1865 mysterious gaps appear in recorded history In Abraham Lincoln s Wilderness Years Joshua Claybourn collects and annotates the most significant scholarship from J Edward Murr one of the only writers to cover this lost period of Lincoln s life A Hoosier minister who grew up with the 16th president s cousins Murr interviewed locals who knew Lincoln Part I features selected portions of Murr s book length manuscript on

Lincoln's youth published here for the first time Part II offers a series by Murr on Lincoln's life in Indiana originally printed in the Indiana Magazine of History Part III reveals letters between Murr and US Senator Albert J Beveridge a prominent historian about Beveridge's early manuscript of the biography Abraham Lincoln 1809-1858 Of all Lincoln's biographers none knew his boyhood associates and Indiana environment as well as Murr whose complete Lincoln research and scholarship have never been published until now Abraham Lincoln's Wilderness Years preserves and celebrates this important source material unique for studying Lincoln's boyhood years in Indiana Primary Education, 1927 Primary Education, Popular Educator, 1927 A Finger in Lincoln's Brain E. Lincoln's Smile and Other Enigmas Alan Trachtenberg, 2008-01-22 A new assemblage of masterly essays from a foremost scholar of American history and culture Alan Trachtenberg has always been interested in cultural artifacts that register meanings and feelings that Americans share even when they disagree about them Some of the most beloved ones like the famous last photograph of Abraham Lincoln taken at the time of his second inaugural are downright puzzling and it is their obscure riddlelike aspects that draw his attention in the scintillating essays of Lincoln's Smile and Other Enigmas With matchless authority Trachtenberg moves from the daguerreotypes that entranced Americans from the start and that Hawthorne made much of in The House of Seven Gables to literary texts of which he is a peerless interpreter Howell's novels Horatio Alger's stories Huckleberry Finn the cityscapes of Walt Whitman and Stephen Crane In his exploration of the ways that nineteenth and early twentieth century writers tried to make sense of the modern American city he also addresses subjects as diverse as Louis Sullivan's Auditorium Building the Brooklyn Bridge and the early works of Lewis Mumford The celebrated author of Reading American Photographs concludes his important new book with readings not only of the photographs of Walker Evans Wright Morris and Eugene Smith but of the city images of film noir

Percoco, 2009-08-25 A journey across America revealing the history of how seven of these monuments came to be and what they mean to us today The Washington Times Across the country in the middle of busy city squares and hidden on quiet streets there are nearly two hundred statues erected in memory of Abraham Lincoln No other American has ever been so widely commemorated A few years ago Jim Percoco a history teacher with a passion for both Lincoln and public sculpture set off to see what he might learn about some of these monuments what they meant to their creators and to the public when they were unveiled and what they mean to us today The result is a fascinating chronicle of four summers on the road looking for Lincoln stories in statues of marble and bronze Percoco selects seven emblematic works among them Thomas Ball's Emancipation Group erected east of the Capitol in 1876 with private funds from African Americans and dedicated by Frederick Douglass Augustus Saint Gaudens's majestic Standing Lincoln of 1887 in Chicago Paul Manship's 1932 Lincoln the Hoosier Youth in Fort Wayne Indiana and Gutzon Borglum's 1911 Seated Lincoln struggling with the pain of leadership beckoning visitors to sit next to him on his metal bench in Newark New Jersey At each stop Percoco chronicles the history of the monument spotlighting its artistic social political and cultural origins His descriptions draw fresh meaning from mute stone and cold metal raising provocative questions not just about who Lincoln might have been but about what we've wanted him to be in the monuments we've built
