The Face Of Paris:

The Fortifications of Paris Jean-Denis G.G. Lepage, 2010-08-11 As a strategically located seat of European power Paris was a prized target for invaders Consequently it was one of the world's most heavily fortified cities Though many of the fortifications have been demolished or hidden they have left their imprint on the city both physically and historically To understand the history of Paris and indeed of France as a whole one must understand the history of the fortifications This heavily illustrated history begins with the period 300 B C to A D 987 Part II looks at the Medieval era 987 1512 a growth period for the city Bastioned fortifications 1512 1874 are the focus of Part III covering the era in which Paris modernized its defenses Modern fortifications 1874 1944 are detailed in Part IV ranging from the building of the second Parisian ring of polygonal forts to the end of World War II

Jean-Christophe in Paris: The Market-Place, Antoinette, the House Romain Rolland, 2019-11-25 Romain Rolland's Jean Christophe in Paris The Market Place Antoinette the House is a profound exploration of the artist's moral and existential journey against the backdrop of Paris's vibrant cultural landscape The narrative delves into the life of Jean Christophe an emblematic figure representing the struggles and aspirations of the artist Rolland's literary style is marked by lyrical prose and rich psychological depth capturing the emotional turmoil and complex relationships that define the artistic experience Set during the early 20th century amidst the upheaval of World War I the novel reflects the tension between individual aspirations and the broader societal demands embodying the spirit of the era's intellectual discourse Romain Rolland was a Nobel Prize winning author deeply influenced by his convictions regarding humanism and the role of the artist in society His extensive studies in philosophy and music combined with his experiences in the politically charged atmosphere of Europe shaped his views on the relationship between creativity and moral responsibility Jean Christophe serves as a vehicle through which Rolland articulates his ideals drawn from his own encounters with the complexities of human existence This novel is a must read for those who seek to understand the philosophical underpinnings of artistry and the personal reconciliations that often accompany it Rolland's intricate character studies and the poignant depiction of Parisian life offer a rich narrative that resonates with contemporary readers Jean Christophe in Paris invites reflection on the enduring questions of identity creativity and the impact of art on society

Rethinking Finance in the Face of New Challenges David Bourghelle, Roland Pérez, Philippe Rozin, 2021-10-25 Rethinking Finance in the Face of New Challenges provides an overview of the new research perspectives devoted to financial activity reconsidering the opposition between orthodox and heterodox schools of finance

Heidegger in the Face of the Environmental Question Enrique Leff, 2023-12-22 This volume engages with the work of Heidegger to argue that the modern environmental crisis is fundamentally a crisis of understanding Life resulting from the symbolic codification of the world from the Logos of Greek philosophy to the rationality of the modern world and resulting in a metaphysics that privileges ontological thinking on the question of being over the environmental question and the concern for the conditions of life Exploring the work of the three principal thinkers of the Lebensphilosophie Bergson Dilthey and Husserl it charts the itinerary of Heidegger's work and exposes its conflicts with the work of Marx Plessner Haar and Derrida A critical argument against the colonization of the world by Eurocentric reason and for the deconstruction of Capital Heidegger in the Face of the Environmental Question draws on Latin American environmental thought to re think the conditions for life on Earth It will therefore appeal to scholars of philosophy political theory and political sociology with interests in environmental philosophy political ecology and socioeconomic transformation Radical Assimilation in the Face of the Holocaust Tom Navon, 2024-01-01 This book explores the confrontation of radically assimilated Jews with the violent collapse of their envisioned integration into a cosmopolitan European society which culminated during the Holocaust This confrontation is examined through the biography of the German speaking intellectual and prominent communist theoretician of the Jewish question Otto Heller 1897 1945 focusing on the tension between his Jewish origins and his universalistic political convictions Radical Assimilation in the Face of the Holocaust traces the development of Heller's position on the Jewish question in three phases how he grew up to become a typical Central European non Jewish Jew 1897 1931 how he became exceptional in that category by focusing his intellectual work on the Jewish question 1931 1939 and how he reacted to the persecution and murder of European Jewry as a member of the Resistance in occupied France and in Auschwitz 1939 1945 Breaking with the common portrayal of Heller as a self hating Jew Tom Navon argues instead that Heller came to lay the foundations for the groundbreaking recognition by communists of worldwide Jewish national solidarity Merleau-Ponty and the Face of the World Glen A. Mazis, 2016-09-21 Assesses Merleau Ponty's contribution to ethics as calling for a poetic interplay between perception and imagination and between silence and solidarity that reveals our place in the world and our obligations to ourselves and others Before his death in 1961 Merleau Ponty worried about what he saw as humanity's increasingly self enclosed and manipulative way of experiencing self others and the world the consequences of which remain apparent in our destructive inability to connect with others within and across cultures In Merleau Ponty and the Face of the World Glen A Mazis provides an overall consideration of Merleau Ponty's philosophy that brings out what he sees as a corrective prescription for ethical reorientation that is fundamental to Merleau Ponty's thought Mazis begins by analyzing the key role that silence plays for Merleau Ponty as a positive powerful presence rather than a lack or emptiness and then builds on this to explore the ethical significance of the face to face encounter in his thought as one of solidarity rather than obligation In the last part of the book Mazis traces the development of what he calls physiognomic imagination in Merleau Ponty's work This understanding of imagination is not fancy or make believe but rather brings out the depths of perceptual meaning and leads to an appreciation of poetic language as the key to revitalizing both ethics and ontology Drawing on Merleau Ponty's published works lecture notes unpublished writings and the work of many phenomenologists and Merleau Ponty scholars Mazis also offers incisive readings of Merleau Ponty's work
