The False Face Of Death:

The Gospel of St. John and Its Relation to the other Gospels Rudolf Steiner, 1982-03-01 Beginning at the turn of the century Rudolf Steiner began to express a passionate interest in Christianity For him the event he called the Mystery of Golgotha is more than the central event of Christianity it is in fact the turning point in time for all human and earthly evolution In his Autobiography Steiner clarified his views on Christianity Some of what I said and wrote during that period 1890s seems to contradict the way I described Christianity later on This is because when I wrote the word Christianity I was referring to the teachings of a world beyond that was active in all Christian doctrines at the time The whole meaning of religious experiences pointed to a world of spirit one that was supposed to be unattainable by human intellect Whatever religion might have to say and whatever precepts for moral life it might offer arise from what is revealed to human beings from outside My own direct inner perception of spirit objected to this it wanted to experience the worlds of both spirit and the physical in perceptions of the human being and nature And my ethical individualism objected to this It rejected the external support of commandments for morality such support came instead as the result of spiritual soul development within the human being where divinity lives That was a trying time for my soul as I looked at Christianity This period lasted from the time I left the Weimar work until I wrote my book Christianity as Mystical Fact These kinds of tests are obstacles placed in one's path by destiny or karma and they must be overcome through spiritual development In these talks Rudolf Steiner offers his profound insights into the essential truths behind the Christ event as well as the historic and prehistoric events on Earth and in the spiritual worlds leading up to the turning point in time He shows that the ancient mysteries of the East the Persians the Egyptians the Greeks and the streams behind those impulses going back to Atlantis and Lemuria all lead to the event of Christ's incarnation and the Mystery of Golgotha through which the Earth became the body of Christ Further Steiner talks about what those events mean for the future of humanity and the Earth The Gospel of St John and Its Relation to the Other Gospels is an essential document in the literature of Christology and for understanding the central place of esoteric Christianity in Anthroposophy

The Living Age, 1867 The Fleeing Youth Richard Distasi, 2009-07-17 It is commonly accepted that the mission of Christ was an act that was independent of any corresponding and requisite deed on the part of humanity Though in part this is true this book asserts that the future spiritual evolution of humanity was dependent on human comprehension and understanding of the Event of Golgotha Comprehension and understanding are defined in this work as one's capacity to spiritually follow Christ through His entire
