The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by

The Zhivago Affair Peter Finn, Petra Couvée, 2015-04-28 The Zhivago Affair is the dramatic never before told story drawing on newly declassified files of how a forbidden book became a secret CIA weapon in the ideological battle between East and West In May 1956 an Italian publishing scout went to a village outside Moscow to visit Russia's greatest living poet Boris Pasternak He left carrying the manuscript of Pasternak's only novel suppressed by Soviet authorities From there the life of this extraordinary book entered the realm of the spy novel The CIA published a Russian language edition of Doctor Zhivago and smuggled it into the Soviet Union Copies were devoured in Moscow and Leningrad sold on the black market and passed from friend to friend Pasternak's funeral in 1960 was attended by thousands who defied their government to bid him farewell and his example launched the great tradition of the Soviet writer dissident First to obtain CIA files providing proof of the agency's involvement Peter Finn and Petra Couvée take us back to a remarkable Cold War era when literature had the power to stir the world With 8 pages of black and white illustrations

Cold War Cultures Annette Vowinckel, Marcus M. Payk, Thomas Lindenberger, 2012 The Cold War was not only about the imperial ambitions of the super powers their military strategies and antagonistic ideologies It was also about conflicting worldviews and their correlates in the daily life of the societies involved The term Cold War Culture is often used in a broad sense to describe media influences social practices and symbolic representations as they shape and are shaped by international relations Yet it remains in question whether or to what extent the Cold War Culture model can be applied to European societies both in the East and the West While every European country had to adapt to the constraints imposed by the Cold War individual development was affected by specific conditions as detailed in these chapters This volume offers an important contribution to the international debate on this issue of the Cold War impact on everyday life by providing a better understanding of its history and legacy in Eastern and Western Europe

In Exile Jessica Dubow, 2020-11-12 In In Exile Jessica Dubow situates exile in a new context in which it holds both critical capacity and political potential She not only outlines the origin of the relationship between geography and philosophy in the Judaic intellectual tradition but also makes secular claims out of Judaism's theological sources Analysing key Jewish intellectual figures such as Walter Benjamin Isaiah Berlin and Hannah Arendt Dubow presents exile as a form of thought and action and reconsiders attachments of identity history time and territory In her unique combination of geography philosophy and some of the key themes in Judaic thought she has constructed more than a study of interdisciplinary fluidity She delivers a striking case for understanding the critical imagination in spatial terms and traces this back to a fundamental if forgotten exilic pull at the heart of Judaic thought

The Modern Movement John Gross, 1992 Twelve authors from W B Yeats to Franz Kafka and how the TLS reacted to their work on its first appearance and something of how it has come to be viewed in retrospect

The Poetry of Anna Akhmatova Alexandra Harrington, 2006-05-01 This book outlines a fresh and coherent framework for the apprehension of Akhmatova's oeuvre in its totality seeing her as a poet who moves beyond modernism in her later period. The appeal to postmodernism which is in itself innovative with regard to Akhmatova studies also allows exploration of a second problematic issue: how to account for the shift in self-presentation in the later verse and the different concept of poetic self which it advances. This new account of Akhmatova's path to maturity challenges the conventional view of the early Akhmatova as poet in the classical Russian tradition and of the later Akhmatova as paradigmatically modernist. Lyric

Poetry and Modern Politics Clare Cavanagh, 2009-01-01 This work explores the intersection of poetry, national life and national identity in Poland and Russia from 1917 to the present. It also provides a comparative study of modern poetry from the perspective of the Eastern and Western sides of the Iron Curtain. Feeding the Future María del Mar Rivas

Carmona, María de los Ángeles Ruiz Romero, 2021-02-24 The agri-food sector encompasses an extremely wide range of activities regarding the entire value chain of a product and generates a huge volume of work for translators. Nevertheless, the sheer proportion has yet to be truly reflected in academic studies and research. This work intends to shed light on the vague and barely addressed until now delimitation of the area of activity of the multifaceted and versatile agri-food translator. Through a text typologisation of genres and subgenres within the margins of hybridity, specialisation and register, this work approaches the characteristics of scientific, technical, medical, health, legal, administrative, humanistic, literary, tourist, advertising and gastronomic and culinary agri-food texts and assesses the skills required from their translator. The Word that Causes Death's Defeat Anna Andreevna Akhmatova, Анна Андреевна Ахматова, 2004-01-01

Anna Akhmatova (1889-1966) one of twentieth-century Russia's greatest poets was viewed as a dangerous element by post-Revolution authorities. One of the few unrepentant poets to survive the Bolshevik revolution and subsequent Stalinist purges, she set for herself the artistic task of preserving the memory of pre-Revolutionary cultural heritage and of those who had been silenced. This book presents Nancy K. Anderson's superb translations of three of Akhmatova's most important poems: Requiem (a commemoration of the victims of Stalin's Terror), The Way of All the Earth (a work to which the poet returned repeatedly over the last quarter-century of her life and which combines Old Russian motifs with the modernist search for a lost past) and Poem Without a Hero (widely admired as the poet's magnum opus). Each poem is accompanied by extensive commentary. The complex and allusive Poem Without a Hero is also provided with an extensive critical commentary that draws on the poet's manuscripts and private notebooks. Anderson offers relevant facts about the poet's life and an overview of the political and cultural forces that shaped her work. The resulting volume enables English-language readers to gain a deeper level of understanding of Akhmatova's poems and how and why they were created. Selected Essays John Bayley, 1984-03-15 Transformative Hotels of the Future Ksenia Kirillova, Henri Kuokkanen, Xinran Lehto, 2025-06-02
