Turangawaewae Richard Shaw,2021-08-05 What is a New Zealander What does it mean to be a citizen of or a resident in this country How do we understand what makes New Zealand complex and unique And what creates a sense of belonging and identity both here and in the world Now's a critical time to be thinking about these sorts of things In a post Trump post

Brexit world easy slogans have taken the place of reasoning and reasonableness empathy is in retreat and intolerance is on the march History tells us that this is never a good mix In this engaging book experts and thinkers direct their sharp analysis at these and other important issues Written for university students it will appeal to anyone interested in where we have come from and where we are headed It s a book for active participants in Aotearoa New Zealand and in global society

Reinventing Capitalism in New Zealand Chris Wilkes,2019-05-02 In the nineteenth century Britain bestrode the world Its domination depended in part on it exporting its social and economic problems to the farthest reaches of the globe In Aotearoa New Zealand Britain s lite thought they had found a ready made country in which to re establish their way of life This invasion might ease their problems at home and extend their influence to the edge of the earth White settlers began to arrive in New Zealand in numbers during the 1840s and sought to reinvent capitalism in a new land This book traces the shape of this reinvention and the slow emergence of New Zealand s particular form of class structure The book will be of interest to anyone concerned with the history of capitalism and its colonial ambitions It sheds light on the enduring nature of inequality in New Zealand and where it might originate Students of political science sociology history and cultural studies will find its arguments of interest

Enhancing Student Education Transitions and Employability Thanh Pham,Behnam Soltani,2021-04-08 This book explores student education transition and employability negotiation experiences in various contexts It explores determinants of student transitions at three levels including macro meso and micro but focuses on exploring affordances constraints and strategies at the micro level The framework underpinning the explorations at the micro level covers a range of different forms of capital including human culture social identity psychological and agentic The book is unique in three ways First it consists of chapters about critical discussion empirical research and practical guidance about student transition experiences The critical discussion and empirical research chapters explore and obtain insights about the complexity of student transitions and develop conceptual frameworks that guide the development of applicable practices The book is therefore a useful resource for policy makers institutions academics professionals and students Second it provides insights about how student transitions are determined by a range of factors at different levels These insights extend discussions about student transitions in the current literature which have mainly explored impacts of policies institutional programmes and human capital Finally it is international in focus because it draws on research with different cohorts of students and graduates in different contexts Insights provided in the book are therefore rich diverse and comparative

Women Out of Place Brackette Williams,2013-12-02 These essays investigate the links between agency and race with regard to constructions of masculinity and femininity among radical groups resisting varied forms of political and economic domination Building on the work of anthropologists historians sociologists literary critics and feminist philosophers of science the essays in Women Out of Place the Gender of Agency and Race of Nationality investigate the links between agency and race for what they reveal about constructions of masculinity and femininity and patterns of domesticity

among groups seeking to resist varied forms of political and economic domination through a subnational ideology of racial and cultural redemption The Lifeboat Keith Fenwick,2022-08-28 The Lifeboat is the third novel in the Skidian Chronicles series In The Lifeboat an asteroid is on a collision course with earth It soon transpires the asteroid has been sent on its way by the Skidian first people who have uploaded themselves to a celestial version of the cloud and now define themselves as Transcendents The Transcendents have a plan for humanity which doesn't include an asteroid strike killing us all off The plot contains plenty of parallels with current world politics including the introduction of a character based on a certain ginger haired world leader The Lifeboat goes further in explaining our world history and continues the theme of the risk to humanity if we continue to ignore the dangerous degradation of our environment The Dominion of Signs Nick Perry,2013-11-01 If you have ever wondered what led to the rise and fall of New Zealand's Telethon or pondered the appeal of Metro magazine or sought to understand the popularity of Billy T James this book is for you The Dominion of Signs is a brilliant and provocative commentary on contemporary New Zealand culture New Zealand and the Vietnam War Roberto Rabel,2013-11-01 Starting with the first Indochina War in the 1950s this historical analysis covers the story of New Zealand's relations with Vietnam up to the end of the Vietnam War in the 1970s Exploring the diplomatic history of the engagement which is not well known or understood and showing that New Zealand officials and politicians in fact entered the war with extreme reluctance this describes how the dispatch of troops to Vietnam divided the country enraged a generation and forced the government to publicly defend its policy Readers quickly discover that the fallout from the Vietnam conflict still affects New Zealand's position today from its well known antinuclear stance to its position over the recent Iraq conflict
