Steichens Legacy:

Steichen's Legacy Joanna T. Steichen, 2000 The companion volume to a major retrospective exhibition of Steichen's work at the Whitney Museum of Art presents more than three hundred photographs spanning seven decades of work including stunning landscapes still lifes cityscapes fashion photographs and portraits of friends family and celebrities 17 500 first printing

Faces of War Mark D. Faram, 2009 Looks at the history of the Naval Aviation Photographic Unit and their work during World War II

Ecstatic Worlds Janine Marchessault, 2017-08-25 When media translate the world to the world twentieth century utopian projects including Edward Steichen's Family of Man Jacques Cousteau's underwater films and Buckminster Fuller's geoscope janine

The Family of Man Revisited Gerd Hurm, Anke Reitz, Shamoon Zamir, 2020-08-09 The Family of Man is the most widely seen exhibition in the history of photography The book of the exhibition still in print is also the most commercially successful photobook ever published First shown at the Museum of Modern Art in New York in 1955 the exhibition travelled throughout the United States and to forty six countries and was seen by over nine million people Edward Steichen conceived curated and designed the exhibition He explained its subject as the everydayness of life and the essential oneness of mankind throughout the world The exhibition was a statement against war and the conflicts and divisions that threatened a common future for humanity after 1945 The popular international response was overwhelmingly enthusiastic Many critics however have dismissed the exhibition as a form of sentimental humanism unable to address the challenges of history politics and cultural difference This book revises the critical debate about The Family of Man challenging in particular the legacy of Roland Barthes's influential account of the exhibition The expert contributors explore new contexts for understanding Steichen's work and they undertake radically new analyses of the formal dynamics of the exhibition Also presented are documents about the exhibition never before available in English Commentaries by critical theorist Max Horkheimer and novelist Wolfgang Koeppen letters from photographer August Sander and a poetic sequence on the images by Polish poet Witold Wirpsza enable and encourage new critical reflections A detailed survey of audience responses in Munich from 1955 allows a rare glimpse of what visitors thought about the exhibition Today when armed conflict environmental catastrophe and economic inequality continue to threaten our future it seems timely to revisit The Family of Man

Cultures of Commerce E. Brown, C. Gudis, M. Moskowitz, 2016-10-19 While historians have explored the impact on workers of changes in American business the broader impact on other cultural forms and vice versa has not been widely studied This anthology contributes to the debate at the intersection of business history and the study of cultural forms ranging from material to visual culture to literature

Edward Steichen Todd Brandow, William A. Ewing, 2007 By far the most lavish thoughtfully selected and beautifully produced book of Steichen's work

Spectacular Homes of Georgia Jolie Carpenter, Brian Carabet, John Shand, 2005 More than 250 photographs of the work of more than 40 leading interior designers in the Greater Atlanta Savannah and Macon area

Moments of

Valuation Ariane Berthoin Antal, Michael Hutter, David Stark, 2015 The outcome of innovation processes are determined by complex historically grown valuation practices In this book a wide range of innovations are taken into consideration from small inventions like entertainment novelties to large societal changes through new technologies The chapters observe the particular local or distributed sites in which their episodes of innovation take place and they identify the initial dissonance among those judging a newly proposed alternative The emphasis of the inquiry however is on the practices of valuation that are at work when something succeeds in being new The authors represent a wide variety of sub disciplines and national backgrounds in the social sciences They share an interest in social valuation and a pragmatist approach The differences between their empirical evidence reflect the wide variety of appearances that valuation takes in contemporary society They are anthropologists economic or cultural sociologists organization researchers historians or political scientists A number of chapters deals with aesthetic valuation as in the tasting of a new vintage or in the socio technical process that shaped successful synthesizer sounds Other chapters discuss the judgment processes in organizations like architect offices or consultancy firms and processes of evaluation and valorization in larger fields of practice like accounting or mathematics The studies are both of interest in their various professional fields and contribute to a more general understanding of the social and cultural conditions under which innovations fail and succeed

The Focal Encyclopedia of Photography Michael R.
