Stephen Collins Foster; a Biography of America's Folk-Song Composer Harold Vincent Milligan, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1920 edition Excerpt VI DRIFTING The records of Stephen Foster's life during these important years are scanty Of the few letters surviving from this period one of the most illuminating is the following Pittsburgh May 25 1852 E P Christy Esq Dear Sir As I once intimated to you I had the intention of omitting my name on my Ethiopian songs owing to the prejudice against them by some which might injure my reputation as a writer of another style of music but I find that by my efforts I have done a great deal to build up a taste for the Ethiopian songs among refined people by making the words suitable to their taste instead of the trashy and really offensive words which belong to some songs of that order Therefore I have concluded to reinstate my name on my songs and to pursue the Ethiopian business without fear or shame and lend all my energies to making the business live at the same time that I will wish to establish my name as the best Ethiopian song writer But I am not encouraged in undertaking this so long as The Old Folks at Home stares me in the face with another's name on it As it was at my own solicitation that you allowed your name to be placed on the song I hope that the above reasons will be sufficient explanation for my desire to place my own name on it as author and composer while at the same time I wish to leave the name of your band on the title page This is a little matter of pride in myself which it will certainly be to your interest to encourage On the receipt of your free consent to this proposition I will if you wish willingly refund you the money which you paid me on that song though it may have been sent me for other considerations than the one in question and I promise in addition to write you an opening
