Scottish Art and Artists in Historical and Contemporary Context Bill Hare, 2024-03-31 In comparison with many who write about contemporary art Hare is never self indulgent or wilfully obscure there is no bogus theorising to be found here From the Foreword by ALEXANDER MOFFAT Alan Davie Eduardo Paolozzi William Turnbull Janet Boulton Ian Hamilton Finlay Joan Eardley Anthony Hatwell Colquhoun and MacBryde Boyle Family Jack Knox Barbara Rae Lys Hansen Joyce Cairns Doug Cocker John Kirkwood Steven Campbell Ken Currie Peter Howson Henry Kondracki Paul Reid Iain Robertson Douglas Gordon This book is a wide ranging exploration of Scottish art and artists by one of Scotland's leading art historians Navigating the intricacies of aesthetic debate with attitude and aplomb Bill Hare examines the historical forces that have shaped Scottish art His elegant approachable writings are a treasure house of informed discourse Illuminating and perennially relevant these essays offer stimulating perspectives and nuanced insights into the confluence of passion mystery and myth that lies at the heart of the best of Scottish art Whaur Extremes Meet Catriona M.M. MacDonald,2009-10-30

On the cusp of memory and history the story of Scotland's twentieth century is contested territory international yet parochial prosperous yet ailing and passionate yet temperate This thematic account of Scotland's twentieth century examines the economic social political and cultural aspects that shaped the country during the period Catriona MacDonald underlines the tensions inherent in the life of a nation distinguished by stark changes and surprising continuities a fragmented identity a shifting and at times uneasy accommodation in the UK nation state and an ongoing engagement with globalising tendencies In identifying the choices ambitions possibilities and contradictions that Scotland experienced during a century of profound change she uncovers a country in which one can truly say extremes met Visions of Empire David Philip Miller, Peter Hanns Reill,2011-07-21 Richly illustrated 1996 collection on how Pacific plants and peoples were depicted by European explorers Scottish Art since 1960 Craig Richardson,2017-07-05 Craig Richardson here addresses key areas of cultural politics and identity in a way that not only illuminates the development of Scottish art but teases out another strand of the plurality of developments which led to the success of artists throughout the UK in the 1990s It is of the highest relevance whether one's perspective is that of the development of the Scottish art British art or European art of this period The book adds significantly to our knowledge of the art of this period in a way that will aid not only our historical understanding but our understanding of the dynamics of art practice today Providing an analysis and including discussion interviewing artists curators and critics and accessing non catalogued personal archives towards a new chronology Richardson here examines and proposes a sequence of precisely denoted exemplary works which outlines a self conscious definition of the interrogative term Scottish art Among the artists whose work is discussed are John Latham Simon Starling Alan Johnston Roderick Buchanan Glen Onwion Christine Borland William Johnstone Joan Eardley Alexander Moffat Douglas Gordon Alan Smith Graeme Fagen Ross Sinclair and many others The discussion culminates in a critically original demonstration of the scope for further research and practice within the subject facilitating national cultural debate on the character of Scottish national visual art
