

"This is musical history of global import."
— NEW YORK TIMES

A vibrant, high-contrast photograph of Hugh Masekela. He is in the center, wearing a yellow t-shirt and a striped skirt, with his arms raised in a celebratory dance. He holds a trumpet in his right hand. The background is a blurred crowd of people, suggesting a festival or concert setting. The overall color palette is dominated by yellow and black.

Still Grazing:

Still Grazing Hugh Masekela, D. Michael Cheers, 2004 Hugh Masekela is a giant of world music. He was present in the most important music scenes of the late 20th century whether advising a young Bob Marley in Kingston or organising the Rumble in the Jungle musical extravaganza in Zaire. Through his musical Sarafina and his activism he worked to destroy the apartheid regime of his South African homeland. With its surprising humour, historical sweep and human pathos, this closely observed tale will appeal not only to Masekela's fans around the world but anyone interested in the dramatic chronicle of a one of a kind life. Gift from the Ancients Wayne Bulow, 2002-03-26 Gift from the Ancients is about a warrior that follows his vision and creates a beautiful agate spear point that becomes the symbol of his people. The spear point is used to protect his people and is lost. Many years later the spear point is uncovered by another warrior. Times have changed yet the spear point is still beautiful and remains with the warrior throughout his life. Returned to the earth it is discovered by a warrior who hunts on horseback. In awe of its beauty he treasures it until it is lost protecting his life. Years later the spear point is found by a young girl who gives it to her mother. Buffalo are disappearing and the whiteman has arrived changing their nomadic lives forever. Cherishing the agate point as a symbol of a time long ago the woman watches her people's way of life slowly destroyed.
