Song and Significance Dinda L. Gorlée, 2005 Vocal translation is an old art but the interpretive feeling skill and craft have expanded into a relatively new area in translation studies Vocal translation is the translation of the poetic discourse in the hybrid art of the musicopoetic or poeticomusical forms shapes and skills This symbiotic construct harmonizes together the conflicting roles of music and language in face to face singing performances In opera folksong hymn and art song as well as in operetta musical song and popular song we have musical genres allied to a libretto with lyrical text A libretto is a linguistic text which is a pre-existing work of art but is subordinated to the musical text The essays in this volume provide interpretive models for the juxtaposition of different orders of the singing sign events in different languages extending the meaning and range of the musical and literary concepts and putting the mixed signs to a true and false test

The Public Work of Christmas Pamela E. Klassen, Monique Scheer, 2019-06-15 Christmas is not a holiday just for Christians anymore if it ever was Embedded in calendars around the world and long a lucrative merchandising opportunity Christmas enters multicultural multi religious public spaces provoking both festivity and controversy hospitality and hostility The Public Work of Christmas provides a comparative historical and ethnographic perspective on the politics of Christmas in multicultural contexts ranging from a Jewish museum in Berlin to a shopping boulevard in Singapore A seasonal celebration that is at once inclusive and assimilatory Christmas offers a clarifying lens for considering the historical and ongoing intersections of multiculturalism Christianity and the nationalizing and racializing of religion The essays gathered here examine how cathedrals banquets and carols serve as infrastructures of memory that hold up Christmas as a civic yet unavoidably Christian holiday At the same time the authors show how the public work of Christmas depends on cultural forms that mark mask and resist the ongoing power of Christianity in the lives of Christians and non Christians alike Legislated into paid holidays and commodified into marketplaces Christmas has arguably become more cultural than religious making ever wider both its audience and the pool of workers who make it happen every year The Public Work of Christmas articulates a fresh reading of Christmas as fantasy ethos consumable product site of memory and terrain for the revival of exclusionary visions of nation and whiteness at a time of renewed attention to the fragility of belonging in diverse societies Contributors include Herman Bausinger T bingen Marion Bowman Open Juliane Brauer MPI Berlin Simon Coleman Toronto Yaniv Feller Wesleyan Christian Marchetti T bingen Helen Mo Toronto Katja Rakow Utrecht Sophie Reimers Berlin Tiina Sepp Tartu and Isaac Weiner Ohio State ,
