Arthur, 2015-07-13 Excerpt from Ten Nights in a Bar Room And What I Saw There Ten years ago business required me to pass a day in Cedarville It was late in the afternoon when the stage set me down at the Sickles and Sheaf a new tavern just opened by a new landlord in a new house built with the special end of providing accommodations for man and beast As I stepped from the dusty old vehicle in which I had been jolted along a rough road for some thirty miles feeling tired and hungry the good natured face of Simon Slade the landlord beaming as it did with a hearty welcome was really a pleasant sight to see and the grasp of his hand was like that of a true friend About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
